Roosevelt and Gov. Hughes Confer.

Important Meeting at Oyster Bay Lasts Far Into Night. Results Secret.

State Politics Thoroughly Discussed by Two Great Party Leaders.

Many Visitors Call on Colonel. Discredited Forester to Aid Johnson.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

OYSTER BAY (N. Y.) July 12.—Theodore Roosevelt and Gov. Hughes spent the evening at Sagamore Hill in conference on State politics. They talked in secret, and no word of the result was allowed to become known beyond the fact that the entire political situation in this State was taken up.

Col. Roosevelt had said previously that the defeat of the direct nominations bill by the Republican State organization would be one of the main topics of discussion. Whether a Republican candidate for Governor was considered is not known.

Col. Roosevelt will have more politicians at Sagamore Hill tomorrow, perhaps the most conspicuous of whom will be Timothy L. Woodruff, chairman of the Republican State Committee.

ENTHUSIASTIC WELCOME.

Gov. Hughes received an enthusiastic welcome from Col. Roosevelt. The Governor came down in the car of William B. Wilcox, chairman of the Public Service Commission of the First District. Mr. Wilcox left almost immediately for his summer home in Glencove, near Oyster Bay.

Col. Roosevelt after a hard day in New York, motored home, reaching Sagamore Hill only a short time before the Governor.

After dinner the colonel and Governor withdrew to the former's library, where they talked far into the night. The colonel sent out word that neither he nor the Governor would be interviewed.

Col. Roosevelt has made it clear that he will fight for the Direct Nominations Bill, and James Wadsworth, Speaker of the State Assembly, said with equal frankness today when he called on Col. Roosevelt in New York that this bill was the one thing that loomed up as a rock in the smooth seas ahead.

CHAT IS VERY BRIEF.

The Speaker's chat with the colonel was very brief, but apparently much to the point, and gave Col. Roosevelt, in advance of his talk with the Governor, a clear view of the attitude of the Republican organization.

The Speaker said with a broad smile afterward that his position was unchanged, and that as far as he was concerned there would be no "sacrifice of principles."

When Col. Roosevelt came out of his office a little later he said:

"I talked politics with the Speaker.

NO COURTESY, SAYS JUDGE.

"Only Pickpockets and Degenerates Help Women on Cars at Night."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Helping women on street cars at night is not a courtesy, according to Judge Gemmill. "There are only two classes of men who make a practice of such a thing, pickpockets and degenerates," he said.

This opinion was expressed when a disorderly charge against Harry H. Smith of Manitou was called for a hearing. Smith had a large number of character witnesses present, but their testimony had little effect upon Judge Gemmill.

"I was waiting for a friend and simply showing a little courtesy," Smith had explained to the judge, who then expressed the above opinion.

SENSATION IN DIVORCE SUIT.

MRS. ANNIE CASSIN M'CLURE FILES COMPLAINT.

Parker Corning, the Alleged "Man in the Case," Attacked by Mr. McClure, Knocks Down the Husband at Exclusive Albany, N. Y., Club. All Parties Socially Prominent.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ALBANY (N. Y.) July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The announcement that Mrs. Annie Cassin McClure has begun a suit for absolute divorce against her husband, Archibald Jermain McClure, before Justice Betti at Kingston, created some little sensation, which had, however, been discounted by the fact that the action had been anticipated.

The fact that he, who is said to be "the man in the case," Parker Corning, at about 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon knocked Mr. McClure down at the Fort Orange Club, Albany's most exclusive organization, will create much more of a sensation. Mr. McClure had said:

"I congratulate you on your success." Then he attacked Mr. Corning and was knocked down.

The social prominence of both parties made the affair one of more than ordinary interest.

Mr. Corning is a son of the late Erastus Corning, at one time president of the New York Central Railroad and a grandson of Erastus Corning, financier and iron merchant. He is president of the Albany Felt Company.

A portrait of Mrs. McClure, then Anna Cassin, published in a magazine fascinated two men. One was McClure, who was at Denver; the other was an Italian Count. Both hurried to New York, unconscious of the existence of the other, with the idea of suing for the hand of the girl. When the Count arrived it was to find that she had become Mrs. McClure.

AT BUENOS AYRES.

RIDICULE ALLIANCE AGAINST UNCLE SAM.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

BUENOS AYRES, July 12.—The opening of the fourth Pan-American conference here today was marked by a brilliant assemblage of delegates representing the United States and the Latin-American republics.

Philander C. Knox, the American Secretary of State, and Dr. V. De La Plaza, the Argentine Foreign Minister, were named as honorary presidents. The American delegates were warmly received on all sides, and reports of a Latin-American coalition against the United States are ridiculed.

When the conference was opened this afternoon there was a large attendance. Great crowds gathered around the hall to watch the coming of the delegates.

The address of welcome was delivered by Dr. De La Plaza, and Henry White, formerly American ambassador to France, responded in English on behalf of all the delegations. The delegate from Cuba proposed that Mr. White's address be translated into Spanish, and this was done by the Secretary-General, Señor Portela, who is the Argentine Minister at Washington.

The Mexican delegate, Señor Salado, nominated Antonio Bermejo for president, while Rodriguez Larreta, in behalf of the Argentine delegation, proposed Henry White for that honor. Señor Bermejo was elected. The proposal to elect Secretary Knox and Dr. De La Plaza honorary presidents came from the Peruvian delegation.

The fourth international conference will remain in session for five or six weeks. The last conference was held in Rio de Janeiro in 1906, and was generally regarded as a success.

The present conference plans to adopt a series of resolutions framed for the actual good of the various states on the American continent, subject to ratifications by the governments concerned, and in some quarters the importance of this gathering is regarded as second only to the great peace conference at The Hague.

AMERICAN DELEGATES.

The members of the American delegation are Henry White, former American Ambassador to France; Prof. Paul Reinsch, University of Wisconsin; Prof. David Kinley, University of Illinois; Prof. John Bassett Moore, Columbia University, New York; Prof. Bernard Moses, University of California; E. B. Moore, United States Commissioner of Patents, Washington; J. B. Quintern, lawyer and journalist, of New Orleans; Col. Enoch Crowder, assistant judge advocate-general of the army, Washington; Louis Nixon, former naval constructor, New York; Prof. J. B. Sheppard, Columbia University; George Cabot Ward, former Secretary of State of Porto Rico, and William T. S. Doyle, assistant chief of the division of Latin-American affairs, State Department.

The newspaper La Razon, commenting today on the reports published in Argentina that Brasil and Chile are planning the formation of an alliance the object of which shall be to counterbalance the policy and effect of the actions of the government of the American continent, declares that the policy of the northern republic does not give any reason for such an entente. An alliance of this kind, the paper says, would result in no advantage to Argentina; on the contrary, it would have the effect of placing great restrictions on her commerce.

The International Scientific Congress, held in connection with the pan-American gathering, had its first session today in the Colon Theater.

CEMENTS BONDS OF PEACE IN FAR EAST.

Manchurian Convention Made Public—United States Assured No Slap at Any Great Nation Intended—Railroad Situation Cleared.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The text of the long-heralded Manchurian convention between Japan and Russia, signed July 4 at St. Petersburg, was made public tonight. It is one of the shortest important treaties of modern times, being just 237 words in length. It follows:

"The imperial government of Japan and the imperial government of Russia, sincerely attached to the principles established by the convention concluded between them on the 17th of July, 1907, and desirous to develop the effects of that convention with a view to the consolidation of peace in the extreme East, have agreed to complete the said arrangement by the following provisions:

"Article I. With the object of facilitating communication and developing the commerce of nations, the two high contracting parties mutually engage to lend each other their friendly coöperation with a view to the amelioration of their respective railway lines in Manchuria and the improvement of the connecting service of the said railways, and to abstain from all competition prejudicial to the realization of this object.

MAINTAIN STATUS QUO.

"Article II. Each of the high contracting parties engages to maintain and respect the status quo in Manchuria resulting from the treaties, conventions and other arrangements concluded up to this day between Japan and Russia, or between either of these two powers and China. Copies of the aforesaid arrangements have been exchanged between Japan and Russia.

"Article III. In case that any event arises of a nature to menace the status quo above mentioned, the two high contracting parties shall, in each case, enter into communication with each other in order to arrive at an understanding as to the measures they judge it necessary to take for the maintenance of said status quo."

The convention had been presented to the State Department by both the Russian and Japanese Ambassadors. The notes of transmission were almost as interesting as the agreement itself.

TO INSURE PEACE.

Baron Rosen, the Russian Ambassador, stated in his note that he was instructed in making the communication to express to the Secretary of State the hope that he would find in the convention, which was described as reaffirming Russia's peaceful relation with Japan and as being directed neither against the interests of China nor any other power, a new pledge of stability and general peace in the Far East.

Ambassador Uchida of Japan, in his communication to the Secretary of State, said he was instructed to make similar representations.

Just before the State Department closed today a dispatch was received from the American embassy at Tokio setting forth more fully the attitude of Japan in drafting the new treaty, and seemingly disposing of the rumor that a secret treaty had been signed by the two countries. It was stated that the negotiations that resulted in the signing of the St. Petersburg convention began last November.

Heralded as a direct and powerful blow at the United States, it is understood that officials of this government regard the convention itself as little more than a harmless appendage to the convention between Russia and Japan in 1907.

GREAT NATIONS APPROVE.

That treaty contained an express recognition of the people of the equal opportunity in the Far East, and a promise by the two governments not to interfere therewith. It also recognized the independence and territorial integrity of China.

Reiteration of loyalty to these principles, taken in connection with the general principle that two powers cannot bargain away rights of a third nation, such as the United States claimed European powers were about to do in regard to the Chinese railroad loan, makes the new treaty unobjectionable, it is understood here, to either the United States, Great Britain or Germany.

It is known that the British government agrees with the government of the United States that the open-door policy is subsequently included in the new treaty, and that the policy must be safeguarded in present and in future arrangements. No doubt is felt here that the German government, which recently has coöperated with the United States in the Far East, takes the same view.

BOY SHOOTS MOTHER.

TRINIDAD (Colo.) July 12.—John Lutzke, 7 years old, shot his mother, Mrs. Fred Lutzke, with a rifle, while playing Indian near the Lutzke home at Delagua, eighteen miles north of here, today. The bullet took effect in the left breast. Mrs. Lutzke was brought to a hospital here. Her recovery is doubtful.

SMOKING RUINS EXTEND FOR TWO MILES.

Two Lives Are Lost in Flames Which Destroy City of Campbellton and Village of Richardsville, N. B.—Loss Two and Half Millions. Blaze Started in Shingle Mill.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

DALHOUSIE (N. B.) July 12.—A waste of smoking ruins extending for two miles and seven isolated buildings represent tonight the town of Campbellton and the near-by village of Richardsville, which were overwhelmed yesterday by fire.

Two lives were lost while the fire raged. Dr. Beverly Sproule, a dentist, while aiding with his automobile in rescuing woman and children, was burned to death by an explosion of gasoline. An infant was suffocated in the smoke.

Five thousand residents of Campbellton and 400 of Richardsville are homeless. One thousand buildings in Campbellton and seventy-five in the village were destroyed.

The combined loss in both places is estimated at $2,500,000. The total insurance is $1,000,000. Tonight some semblance of order had been established, and relief work was begun.

Campbellton was the largest cedar shingle center in Eastern America. All the mills were destroyed, including the big plants of the Shiver Lumber Company, the Richards Lumber Company and the Moffatt mills. The property of these three concerns, in which American capital was invested, was valued at $300,000.

A gale and the failure of the water mains left the population helpless against the flames.

The blaze started in the Richards company's shingle mill, on the western side of Campbellton. A heavy wind was blowing, and within a few minutes the fire was beyond control. Two banks, three large lumber mills, three churches, the Intercolonial Railway station, telegraph and telephone offices, and many other large buildings were soon burned. The water mains failed at a critical time, and even with aid sent from Newcastle, Bathurst and Dalhousie the Campbellton people were unable to make headway against the flames.

Practically every house in Richardsville, two miles from Campbellton, was burned by the same fire. The Canadian government is a heavy loser through the destruction of Intercolonial Railroad property.

Alexander L. Pfitzner of Budapest Becomes Despondent Over Mishaps in Recent Flights.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

MARBLEHEAD (Mass.) July 12.—Lieut. Alexander L. Pfitzner of Budapest, Hungary, an aviator, committed suicide by jumping from a skiff in Marblehead harbor today. He had been despondent for some weeks.

In recent flights with the Burgess-Curtiss aeroplanes Lieut. Pfitzner met with a number of mishaps, and after each of these he became more and more despondent. His friends say he had expressed the intention on several occasions of committing suicide.

Pfitzner was about 35 years old. He graduated from the universities of Charlottenburg and Budapest, taking engineering courses, after which he served in the artillery. He was a member of an old Hungarian family. He came to this country about eight years ago.

PHOENIX HOTEL GUTTED.

Spectacular Blaze in Midst of Fierce Sandstorm—Fire Department Does Valiant Work.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHOENIX, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] By a fire that started at midnight the Van Buren lodging-house of forty rooms was gutted, with a loss that will fall short of $6000.

The fire was spectacular in the extreme, breaking out in the midst of a howling sandstorm, the worst that has been known for years. Very rapid work was done by the fire department, which saved all surrounding property and a part of the lodging-house.

The house is better known as College Plaza, and is situated at the corner of Van Buren street and First avenue. It is the property of City Attorney T. J. Prescott and was leased by R. M. Catterson. Much of the furniture was saved.

Woman's Suffrage a Step Nearer.

Big Majority for Bill Giving to Sex Parliamentary Franchise.

Many Obstacles Yet to Be Overcome Before Principle Is Legalized.

Leading Men, While Favoring Idea, Oppose Present Measure.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

LONDON, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Tonight four detectives guard the home of the Cabinet Ministers who opposed the women's suffrage bill in the House of Commons today. The police around the house are doubled lest some Guy Fawkes in skirts attempt to wreck vengeance for the bill's "betrayal."

LONDON, July 12.—The House of Commons, by a vote of 299 to 90, tonight passed the second reading of the woman's suffrage bill for which David James Shackleton, Labor member from the Clitheroe division of Lancashire, is the sponsor. The bill provides for granting the parliamentary franchise to women who have property qualifications and who already exercise the franchise in municipal elections.

The unprecedented large majority, 109, gives an impulse to woman's suffrage but many obstacles must yet be overcome before the principle is legalized by the necessary majority of 145. The House subsequently referred the bill to a committee of the whole. This means that the bill will be shelved until next year.

The interesting debate showed that many leading men, including Winston Spencer Churchill, Secretary of Home Affairs, and A. J. Balfour, leader of the opposition, while favoring the principle of woman's suffrage, objected to the present bill and contended that the whole country must pronounce unreservedly in favor of women voting before Parliament could sanction such a change in the constitution.

Premier Asquith in a strong speech against the bill declared that if women had a vote they must inevitably have seats in Parliament and might take the Speaker's chair or sit in the Cabinet.

Mr. Balfour contested the Premier's view. He said that it was not government by consent to exclude a large class of the community from voting.

Chancellor Lloyd George, as a strong supporter of woman's suffrage, said that if the promoters of the bill would promise to reintroduce the bill in an acceptable form he would support it.

Austin Chamberlain opposed woman's suffrage in any shape or form.

A great crowd of suffragettes awaited the result of the vote outside the House.

GREAT DEBATE MARKS MOVEMENT'S ADVANCE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] How rapidly and how far the women's enfranchisement movement in Great Britain has advanced in the last few years is indicated by the serious and powerful debate proceeding in the House of Commons. Heretofore, the demands of the women have been treated by Parliament as either a remote ideal, requiring only a perfunctory discussion or as a matter for irony and wit. Today, the women's movement carries the Commons to the highest general debating level reached in many months. Perfunctoriness, irony and wit have given place to the gravest and most brilliant arguments British parliamentarians can produce.

The particular bill under discussion probably will get little farther at present than the second reading, but few impartial observers doubt that the really decisive battle for women's suffrage in Great Britain has been fought.

The greatest speech against "votes for women" was delivered by F. E. Smith, Unionist. Formerly, without exception, this splendid debater impressed the house that he was just a little lacking in sincerity and conviction. The women now congratulate themselves on having compelled him to make the most powerful speech of his career. Especially do they congratulate themselves because, as they assert, speaking at his best, he left the impression on the majority of his hearers that he was behind the march of accomplished facts and was brilliantly fighting for a lost cause.

The greatest speeches for the women were made by Mr. Haldane, the Secretary of War, and Lord Hugh Cecil, the gifted son the the late old Lord Salisbury.

In a nutshell, the argument was that women already vote in the municipalities, council, royal commissions, fight in campaigns, do all sorts of political work and even sit on the throne. If

LEGAL FIGHT FOR CHILDREN.

Mrs. Ralph Hill Thomas Says What She'll Do.

Will Oppose Frank Gould's Custody of Girls.

Helen Gould's Guardianship Is Refused.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Ralph Hill Thomas, former wife of Frank J. Gould, who, with her husband, sailed today on the North German Lloyd liner Kaiser Wilhelm de Grosse, made it plain that she intended to make a legal fight for the possession of her two little daughters, Helen and Dorothy, and that she would absolutely decline to accept the proffer of Miss Helen Gould to take the guardianship of the children.

When questioned as to the report that she had attempted to kidnap the girls after the wedding yesterday, Mrs. Thomas said:

"It's ridiculous to charge me with any such purpose. When the girls were intercepted by detectives who have been annoying me for weeks, they were on the way to Hotel Gotham to spend a little time with their grandmother. Then they were to have been sent to Miss Gould at Irvington-on-the-Hudson. But the detectives, who are, I believe, acting at the instance of Frank Gould, sought to make a scene and compelled the girls to enter another car and be driven to Miss Gould's house. The girls are both with Miss Gould now, and will remain with her until I return two months hence. Then they will go with me to my country place at Sands Point, Long Island."

"Will you give them back to Mr. Gould's care when the six months you are to keep them has elapsed?"

EVASIVE.

"That remains to be seen," she replied. "I have heard of Mr. Gould's remarriage in Paris, and I do not regard him as a proper person to have charge of the girls. Rest assured I will do all in my power to keep the girls away from him."

"What of the proposal of Miss Gould to act as guardian?"

"I could not think of entertaining such a proposition. Miss Gould has twice offered to adopt the children, but I would not consider it."

Under the orders of the court, which granted a divorce to Mrs. Gould, the parents were notified that each would have the custody of the two girls for six months of the year. When it came the father's turn he sent the children to his sister, Miss Helen Gould.

On the pier, when the Thomases called, appeared the same band of detectives who enlivened the neighborhood of Mrs. Thomas's home yesterday. They made no attempt to board the ship, however.

DECISION REACHED.

TWO OFFICIALS GO TO ALASKA.

WICKERSHAM TO ACCOMPANY SECRETARY NAGEL.

President Wants First-Hand Information of Puzzling Conditions in Northern Territory—Mr. Taft Holds Conference With These Two and Senator Crane.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

BEVERLY (Mass.) July 12.—President Taft talked politics today with Senator Crane of Massachusetts, Atty.-Gen. Wickersham and Secretary Nagel of the Department of Commerce and Labor. Their conference lasted until after 6 o'clock tonight. Extreme reticence was displayed by everybody and no statement other than that the general situation was discussed could be obtained.

Senator Crane was close to the President in the last session of Congress and was a daily visitor to the White House. The President was reported tonight to be well satisfied with general conditions and hopeful of Republican success "all along the line."

It was definitely determined this afternoon that Atty.-Gen. Wickersham will accompany Secretary Nagel to Alaska. The situation in that Territory has given the President much concern. Serious factional fights have been in progress there for several years. Extreme bitterness has been displayed. Each time an appointment has been made to a Federal office, a campaign has been started against the appointee. The fights have been carried to Washington from time to time.

The delegate from Alaska, Mr. Wickersham, who is in no way related to the Attorney-General, is at loggerheads with the administration.

The President has found it necessary lately to remove a number of Alaskan officials. Several men whom he appointed to succeed these failed of confirmation and made it necessary for the President to resort to recess appointments.

Mr. Taft wants much first-hand information as he can get on the situation. He believes that the Attorney-General and Secretary Nagel can bring him this information.

The two Cabinet officials will sail from Vancouver on the fish commission steamer Albatross. They will go west through Canada, leaving Montreal next Monday morning.

CHARLTON FACES FREEDOM.

Government Indicates Extradition to Italy of Wife-Murderer Will Not Be Granted.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, July 12.—Only a word from the State Department at Washington is necessary to set Porter Charlton free. This was made apparent today when Prosecutor Pierre P. Garvin was told that unofficial advices from Washington indicated that the United States government would not grant the request of the Italian government for extradition to Italy of the confessed wife-murderer.

"If the United States government sends word to me that it will not honor the extradition papers from the Italian government, I will not hold the prisoner," said Mr. Garvin. "An application will be made to the court for Charlton's release as soon as such word, in event it should come, arrives."

GERMANY DENIES ANY SUBTLE DESIGNS UPON NICARAGUA.

Report from America That Emperor William Is Currying Favor With Madriz in Opposition to the United Staes Is Emphatically and Angrily Refuted at Foreign Office at Berlin—Official Statement.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

BERLIN, July 12.—Germany has taken no stand in opposition to the United States in the affairs of Central and South America. Germany has issued no statement that could be construed into antagonism of the American government in what that government has done, is doing, or may do in Nicaragua. This declaration was made at the German Foreign Office this evening.

Special dispatches received here from Washington and other American cities reported that the German Foreign Office had issued a statement today that "Germany refuses to recognize any right on the part of the United States to supervise her diplomatic relations with other countries, Central and South American countries in general and Nicaragua in particular.

When this report was placed before the Foreign Office it was given an emphatic denial.

BRANDED PURE INVENTION.

No such statement, an official declared, angrily, had been issued by that department or by any other department of the German government. He affirmed that no declaration of such a nature could be made because there was no necessity for it, and, therefore, anything published in such a sense was pure invention.

German government officials are greatly wrought up by the attempts made to have this country appear in a role of antagonism to the United States, when on the contrary it has been the desire of the government to develop both commercial and diplomatic relations with America.

The present situation has arisen from the publication of a letter from Emperor William to Dr. Madriz, President de facto of Nicaragua. In several quarters, apparently, the significance of this letter has been misjuiged and it became necessary today, in order that no wrong constructin might be placed on it, to issue a statement through the Foreign Office explaining that the letter was merely a formal acknowledgment of a notice received from Madriz of his election to the Presidency.

This explanation was accompanied by the statement that Germany had no intention of intervening in any way in Nicaraguan affairs and that the reported offer by Madriz of a coaling station to a European power if it would intervene in Nicaragua, was not made to Germany.

The Foreign Office has given the Associated Press an authorized statement respecting the letter of Emperor William to President Madriz of Nicaragua. The statement follows:

"Madriz gave notice of his election on undertaking the Presidency to the Emperor in the usual written form. The customary formal reply was prepared by the Foreign Office. It was not an autograph letter, but was simply signed by the Emperor. The address 'great and good friend' was in accordance with official courtesy. Any intervention by Germany in Nicaraguan affairs neither followed nor is intended. Germany neither sought nor designs to seek a coaling station.

"Rumors of Germany's intention toward the Galapagos Islands are equally without foundation, as are all suggestions that the German government has in any wise modified the cultivation of friendly relations towards the United States."

The Emperor's letter was dated April 26 and said:

"I am informed by your letter of the 27th of December of last year that Your Excellency was elected President of the republic by the merited confidence of your fellow citizens and that Your Excellency entered upon your most honorabe duties on the 21st of that month."

An expression of the usual diplomatic good wishes and desire for the cultivation of good relations between the two countries, followed.

UNDERSTOOD AT WASHINGTON.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The State Department from the first has believed that the communication to Dr. Madriz by the German Foreign Office, was purely a matter of form and made without the slightest regard to the existing conditions in Nicaragua, of which Germany, having relatively insignificant commercial interests, was hardly expected by this government to have intimate knowledge. Officials of the department are said to be unable to see any basis for the exploitation of this communication by the Madriz faction.

GERMANY SEES A NEW DIPLOMATIC ELEMENT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BERLIN, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] While the German Foreign Office has refrained from giving official expression to its views on the new Russo-Japanese agreement, the question has been the subject of careful consideration.

The feeling is that the compact introduces a new element in the arena of world diplomacy. The attitude of the United States is watched with special interest for an indication of its possible effects on the international situation.

The press here is divided, one section urging the Foreign Office to take a firm stand in seeking the coöperation of America against the Russo-Japanese exclusion policy. Most of the other newspapers urge the government to seek friendlier relations with Russia, which is now free to play a more important and dangerous role in European affairs.

In diplomatic circles the agreement is regarded primarily as a diplomatic defeat for America. It is said here Knox's naive proposal to manage the Manchurian railroad question forced Russia and Japan into each other's arms.

COREA IS REPORTED TO SUCCEED MADRIZ.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW ORLEANS, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] That Luis Corea, Nicaraguan Minister at Washington will sail from New York within the next two or three days for Nicaragua to succeed Madriz as President was given out here tonight by good authority.

It is said that Corea will be acceptable to the United States and that he is regarded as the only solution to the present diplomatic troubles in that country.

Waldemar Harold Bille, agent for Zelaya in New Orleans has not been here for several weeks.

NICARAGUA CONTEST IS CLOSELY WATCHED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The officials of both State and Navy Departments are closely watching the developments in the fight of the Estrada and Madriz forces in Nicaragua. The navy was advised today of the departure of the gunboat Paducah from Cristobal for Bluefields, where there is much activity. Acting Secretary Winthrop said today that there was no particular significance in the message. This government, however, proposes to be prepared for any eventuality in that quarter.

THOMPSON FOR GOVERNOR.

Alabama Republicans Indorse Taft Administration and Warmly Welcome Roosevelt Home.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

BIRMINGHAM (Ala.) July 12.—The Alabama Republican convention today nominated J. O. Thompson, Birmingham, for Governor. The platform praises the administration of President Taft, and warmly welcomes back to America Theodore Roosevelt. On State issues a compromise on the liquor question is inserted.

LEADERS.

ANGELENOS ARE IN LIMELIGHT.

California Elks Conspicuous in Detroit.

Great Interest in the White Squadron Team.

Are Confident of Winning Big Drill Contest.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DETROIT, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Los Angeles delegation is one of the most striking groups attending the twenty-sixth annual Elks' convention in Detroit. There are about 150 residents of Los Angeles here, ninety of whom are members of Lodge No. 99, B.P.O.E. of Los Angeles.

The Los Angeles delegates are confident they will capture the prize in the drill contest on Belle Isle, Wednesday. The White Squadron of the Los Angeles lodge has been given extensive notices by the Detroit newspapers, and Detroit is expecting big things from it. It is in charge of Capt. Robert Atkins.

The competitive drill will take place on Belle Isle, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, each drill team will be escorted on and off the field by Detroit Lodge No. 34.

Past Exalted Ruler Leo V. Youngworth is the delegate from Los Angeles, and Tom Domity is the alternate delegate. Exalted Ruler Drake is also with the party.

ARE HUSTLERS.

The visitors from Los Angeles and other places in California have attracted wide attention here by their hustling ways. The delegates from Redlands, Riverside, San Bernardino and other places in the fruit belt brought two carloads of fruit and distributed it in Detroit, thereby adding to the fame of California as a fruit raising district.

ELKS CHOOSE NEW GRAND LODGE HEADS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

DETROIT, July 12.—August Herrmann of Cincinnati was today elected Grand Exalted Ruler at the largest meeting of the Grand Lodge of Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks ever held. Edward Leach of New York, Grand Treasurer R. P. H. Shields of Clarksburg, W. V., Grand Tiler, were reelected.

The sharpest contest centered about the selection of a Grand Secretary. Fred C. Robinson of Dubuque, Ia., incumbent, was opposed by David McArron of Port Huron, and George D. Bostock of Grand Rapids, Mich.

The largest vote ever cast for an officer of the order, it is said, was polled in this contest, completely swamping for the time the Election Committee. Robinson was reelected.

Atlantic City was chosen for the next convention.

NATIONAL WELL BREAKS LOOSE.

AGAIN SHOOTS OIL FAR ABOVE THE DERRICK.

The Great Lakeview Is Gradually Diminishing Its Tremendous Flow, Much to the Relief of All Parties, But Is Still Yielding Forty Thousand Barrels Daily.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BAKERSFIELD, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Maricopa National's well, brought in some time ago on section 6, just east of the Monte Cristo, Ethel D. and K. T. & O. group of gushers in the North Sunset field, gave another sign of its future capacity yesterday when it broke loose and shot the oil far above the derrick.

Most of the oil was caught in the sump, but there was no accurate means of measuring the flow. It is believed, however, that the well will yield 5000 or 6000 barrels when it is finished. After flowing a short time the well sanded, and it will not be reopened until arrangements now under way for connecting it to the Producers' pipe line are completed.

The performance of the well is the more remarkable from the fact that the oil sand was only uncovered and not penetrated to any depth. The oil is of light gravity. It is supposed to come from the sand the Ethel D. and K. T. & O. wells penetrate.

LAKEVIEW DIMINISHING.

The great Lakeview gusher, the wonder of the oil fields, not only of California, but of the world, is gradually diminishing in its tremendous flow. Reliable information is to the effect that it is now producing about 40,000 barrels per day. At the height of its glory the well was making between 75,000 and 80,000 barrels per day by actual measurement.

There has been no sudden change in the condition of the gusher. Reports from time to time have come in from the field that it was slowly falling off, but so gradually that little difference could be detected from day to day. The present information is said to be based on records of measurements, and is considered reliable.

The news is generally welcomed, not only because of the effect of the Lakeview's production on the market, but because with its subsidence there disappears what has been generally considered a menace to the entire Sunset field. Nothing further is heard concerning water coming from the well, and it is hoped that the gusher will calm down to the point where it can be controlled before the casings are worn out.

PICTURE FAKIR IS HELD.

PARIS, July 12.—The Court of Tours today refused bail for the release of Count D'Aulby De Catigny, who has been detained by the police since April last, on the charge of having misrepresented the origin of paintings and the antiquity of furniture purchased by Mrs. Charles H. Paine of this city, but formerly of Boston. An official expert who has examined the pictures, pronounced them forgeries, and to be less valuable than the frame in which they were contained.

ROOSEVELT AND HUGHES

We discussed direct nominations. That is all I can say."

The general opinion is that the first tangible result of tonight's conference will not be made known until the initial steps in the programme outlined by the colonel and Gov. Hughes are taken. On the other hand, it is possible that the full plan will not be disclosed until the Saratoga convention has been called to order.

IMPORTANT VISIT TODAY.

Nothing was learned here tonight as to when the Governor and the colonel will meet again.

Mr. Woodruff's visit tomorrow is awaited with interest, for he is one of the men with whom the colonel must reckon if he is to win the fight for a direct nominations bill.

Representative Charles N. Fowler of New Jersey, who is an ardent insurgent, will be at Sagamore Hill tomorrow. The Congressman had a long talk with Mr. Roosevelt in New York today.

Gov. Hughes will go to New York tomorrow and it is understood that he will leave at once for Washington.

PINCHOT COMING HERE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, July 12.—Gifford Pinchot announced today that he would leave for California tomorrow to take the stump in behalf of Hiram Johnson, who is seeking the gubernatorial nomination and indorsed for that honor by the Lincoln-Roosevelt League of California.

Mr. Pinchot's announcement was made shortly after a conference with Col. Roosevelt, in which Marshall Stimson of Los Angeles also took part. Mr. Pinchot said he would make several speeches in behalf of Mr. Johnson's candidacy.

Neither Mr. Pinchot nor Marshall Stimson would say that Col. Roosevelt had given his assurances of support to Mr. Johnson's gubernatorial aspirations.

After making his announcement Mr. Pinchot said:

"I shall make four speeches in California in behalf of William Kent, an insurgent candidate for the nomination for Congress. Mr. Kent is opposing Congressman McKinlay, who seeks renomination."

Mr. Pinchot said he had already made arrangements to make one speech for Mr. Johnson in California, but did not know how many more he might make.

OTHER CALLERS.

Besides Mr. Pinchot and Marshall Stimson, Col. Roosevelt, who came to the city from Oyster Bay, had several other visitors during the day. The callers included Herbert Knox Smith, Commissioner of Corporations; Prof. L. H. Bailey of Cornell, chairman of the Roosevelt Country Life Commission; Representatives W. S. Bennet of New York and Charles W. Fowler of New Jersey.

A delegation from Macon, Ga., composed of E. W. Stetson, W. E. Dunwoody, a cousin of Col. Roosevelt, and Postmaster Harry Stillwell Edwards, called on Col. Roosevelt to request him to make a speech at Macon.

Col. Roosevelt, during the forenoon, held a conference with James W. Wadsworth, Jr., Speaker of the Assembly of New York. Mr. Wadsworth was the first of the Republican State leaders who have opposed the Hughes primary measure to call on Col. Roosevelt.

On emerging from Mr. Roosevelt's offices Speaker Wadsworth said:

"I discussed the legislative situation briefly with Col. Roosevelt, and explained to him the circumstances leading to the defeat of the direct nominations bill."

Asked if his visit could be construed as the first step in a movement toward party harmony, Mr. Wadsworth made it apparent that he did not come bearing a white flag, but that he did not recognise that the direct nominations situation needed harmonising influences.

"I came to see Col. Reesevelt of my own accord," said the speaker, "to show him that there was no standoffishness. The colonel asked me to visit him again, and I shall be glad to do so.

"The party will have no difficulty in uniting on a candidate for Governor, and on a platform. I do not take the talk of factional strife seriously."

The delegation from Macon left Col. Roosevelt's office without having obtained a definite promise from him to deliver an address in the Georgia city. Col. Roosevelt, in fact, informed them that he hardly believed his itinerary would permit the visit they wished.

ON COUNTRY LIFE.

Prof. Bailey said Col. Roosevelt had promised to speak before a national country life conference, which will be held some time next winter, although the time and place have not been definitely fixed.

Congressman Bennet, after talking leave of Mr. Roosevelt, talked freely on various phases of the political situation.

"We discussed past performances and present and future politics, national and State," the Congressman said.

Asked if, after seeing Col. Roosevelt, he was still a candidate for the New York gubernatorial nomination, Mr. Bennet said that the Governorship was not discussed in any way by himself and the former President.

Of Col. Roosevelt's political activity, Mr. Bennet said:

"Col. Roosevelt is in the fight, both national and State, and I thank heaven for it. I am a red-hot Roosevelt man."

One of Col. Roosevelt's callers this afternoon was Col. W. R. Nelson, proprietor of the Kansas City Star.

Col. Roosevelt had as guests at luncheon the Gaekwar of Baroda and his aide, and Bishop Earl Cranston of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

LATEST THING IN SURGERY.

Physician Now Studies Photo in Colors of Diseased Tissues Before Using the Knife.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHILADELPHIA, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Color photography is the latest adjunct to the surgeon's knife. Instead of operating as soon as his services are required, the up-to-date surgeon now notifies the attending physician that he wants an "autochrome" or photographic plate in colors, of the diseased condition of the patient. This he studies before he decides where to operate and what he wants to cut away.

The "autochrome" has been used only recently by surgeons and only in large cities. Several Philadelphia doctors have been making these photos. The advantages of the autochrome picture are that they show the color of the disease, its limitations and the color of the surrounding tissues.

FIGHT FOR ESTATE.

WILL IS DECLARED FORGERY; WIDOW COLLAPSES IN COURT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Handwriting Expert Eisenschimel of San Francisco, today, declared, under examination in the Granville Furnish will contest, involving an estate valued at $25,000, that the holographic will presented by the widow, Adelaide Furnish, which bequeaths the entire estate to her, is a clumsy forgery. He said that it is not a will but a copy, none of the characteristics of Granville Furnish's handwriting appearing in it.

Mrs. Furnish is contesting the will filed by two cousins in which the entire estate was left to them; she being cut off without a cent. The will claimed as genuine is written in Bloch letters, signed in italics.

Granville Furnish was a guard at Folsom State Prison for many years. Upon retiring from that service, he settled upon his large farm near Galt. He was at one time reputed to be worth more than $100,000.

In testifying as to his findings after several days research, Eisenschimel was very dramatic, and created quite a stir in the courtroom.

The widow uttered a low exclamation and fell back in her chair as the expert declared the will a forgery.

Eisenschimel will be on the stand tomorrow, the defense not completing its case.

More sensations are expected to develop before the contest is finished.

IONE, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Charles Westwood, 15 years old, committed to the Preston School of Industry by Judge Murasky of the Juvenile Court of San Francisco for incorrigibility, escaped from a Deputy Sheriff, who had him in charge at Tracy, late last Saturday night. He climbed through an open window in the car and disappeared. The officer, reinforced by peace officers and citizens of Tracy, scoured buildings in the vicinity of the depot without success, and the search was given up. It was not until late yesterday that young Westwood was found, as he was making his way out of town. He was rounded up and landed safely here.

STANTON IS LIVE WIRE.

Southern California Candidate Is Winning Votes Everywhere His Auto Takes Him.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PASO ROBLES, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Phil A. Stanton, Southern California's candidate for Governor, received an ovation here tonight when he arrived in the Stanton Campaign Committee automobile. Though the candidate was covered with dust, and has been on the go for eighteen hours a day, he effectively presented his position on all important interests which concern the people of this district and his attitude, together with his widely-known record for efficiency, has won over thousands of voters in San Luis Obispo county to the southern candidate.

People admire Stanton's activity and forthrightness.

Stanton is pronounced the livest wire in the campaign line who has ever struck this district. He is on the go eighteen hours a day, and nothing escapes him.

Shale married the belle of the tribe, being one of the participants at a double wedding. He was doomed to disappointment, as his wife proved extravagant.

"She is too stylish," remarked Shale. "She bought the best clothes, and when I took her to a restaurant it cost me from $2 to $3 for a meal."

SUES FOR BACK ALIMONY.

Mrs. Addie M. Dewey, Divorced in Los Angeles, Says Former Husband Didn't Pay.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Being divorced in Los Angeles, June 17, 1905, and now alleging $2250 back alimony is due her, Mrs. Addie M. Dewey has appeared in court here bringing suit against her husband, Morris M. Dewey. Mrs. Dewey wants the interest on the money also.

The interlocutory decree of divorce is alleged to have been signed June 30, 1905, a final decree being issued September 24, 1906, when Dewey was ordered to pay his ex-wife, it is alleged, $50 monthly.

Harold C. Dewey was made a party to the divorce suit, as his property would be affected by the decree of the court. It is alleged he turned over to Mrs. Dewey $450, which was to be applied on the alimony. The ex-husband has paid Mrs. Dewey nothing, she says. Besides the unpaid alimony she demands $130 costs.

UNIONISTS FORM PARTY

WOULD CONTROL NEW STATE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) July 12.—Union labor delegates in convention here, after voting down a resolution pledging their constituency to support the candidates of any ticket who stood for their principles, adopted another resolution organizing a "political party for the purpose of nominating and electing delegates to the constitutional convention. The name adopted was "the Labor party." The declaration of principles the party wants incorporated in the constitution include: Equal suffrage, election of United States Senators by popular vote, initiative, referendum, recall, anti-injunction law, employers' liability act, abolishment of the fee system of all courts, the State to have the right to seize property of persons or corporations refusing to comply with the law, the State to defray the expense of the defense as well as the prosecution of criminals, the power to declare laws unconstitutional to rest with the electors by referendum, no private police to operate or to give testimony, the constitution to be amended by a majority vote of electors on initiative either by the Legislature or the people.

Portland Police Respond to Two Riot Calls.

Non-Union Teamsters Are Severely Beaten.

No Arrests Made; Strikers Make Getaway.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch. Two riot calls to police headquarters were necessary to suppress the fury of a gang of striking teamsters that attacked several strikebreakers employed by the Oregon Auto Dispatch Company at Fifteenth and Washington streets early this morning.

Although William Dale, William Adams and George Dunning, three strikebreakers were severely beaten, no arrests were made by the handful of police, which responded to the summons for assistance.

The rioting was the climax to several minor clashes between the factions during the night. Under the leadership of an imported unionite, named Crowley, a gang of several teamsters pounced upon the victims, a riot call was turned in and the three reserves at police headquarters responded.

By the time the police appeared, the rioters had fled and had renewed their battle upon another crew of non-unionists near Eleventh and Couch.

As the patrol neared the station on its return from its first riot, it was flagged and dispatched to the second.

Again the unionites had fled after administering severe thumpings to the strikebreakers, who were far outnumbered.

STOCKTON, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Having exhausted all efforts to reach an agreement through committees appointed to adjust the differences between employers and employés, the contractors' association today virtually declared for the open shop by giving out the following notice:

"To the Building Trades Council:

"You are hereby notified that, at a meeting of the Contractors' and Mill Men's Association, held Friday evening, with the executive boards of all affiliated trades, it was decided without a dissenting vote that we would start our work again July 18 at the old scale of $4 for eight hours.

"This decision to include all men of whatsoever trade now affected.

"It was the unanimous opinion of all members of the association that we would much prefer to have all our old men come back to work but that if we cannot do so we will have to fill their places.

"The Contractors' and Mill Men's Association."

TWO DIE FROM HEAT.

NEW YORK, July 12.—Although the mercury reached 86 deg. at 3 o'clock this afternoon, cooling breeze and low humidity made the weather less oppressive than yesterday, and only two deaths from heat were recorded.

EUCALYPTUS PEST FOUND.

Mysterious Insect Attacks One Variety of Tree With Fatal Results.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] An unknown species of insect has begun to attack the ornamental variety of eucalyptus tree. In large nurseries it has eaten gashes in the leaves, killing the young trees. Heretofore all varieties of eucalyptus have been considered immune from insect attack. State Forester Homans is investing, while the Horticultural Commission may be called upon to secure a parasite to fight the pest.

This particular insect resembles the ordinary bee, but is of a strange variety in this section of the State. It feeds upon the young, tender leaves, cutting half-moon gashes, which eventually destroy the young tree. It is remarkable that the insect preys upon only one variety—the polyanthien—leaving the thirty-one other varieties untouched.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

Catholic Properties Burned.

NANAIMO (B. C.) July 12.—The Roman Catholic Church and St. Anne's convent were completely destroyed by fire here last night. Forty orphans in the convent were rescued, but all belongings were destroyed. The fire started in the convent and quickly spread to the church close by, the firemen being bothered in their work by low water pressure. The loss is placed at $25,000, partly covered by $3000 insurance.

Seattle Hotel Clerk Arrested.

SEATTLE, July 12.—E. C. Sessions, a hotel clerk, was arrested here last night on information received from Convent, La., charging embezzlement. The extent of the alleged defalcation was not given and Sessions declines to discuss the affair. He is being held pending the arrival of officers from Louisiana.

Telephone Saves Life.

WILLIAMS, July 12.—A telephone yesterday morning saved the life of Mrs. Smith Eakle, wife of an aged and wealthy farmer, who was being choked to death by her husband. The woman managed to break away from her spouse long enough to telephone to friends here who hurried to her rescue. Eakle is believed to have become deranged believing that his wife was endeavoring to get his property.

Three Children Seriously Injured.

CHICO, July 12.—Three children, Merritt and Curtiss Musselman, 8 and 5 years old, and Joseph Henderson, 5 years old, were severely injured while playing with a dynamite cap at Coutolene, twenty-eight miles from here. While the injuries of the children are serious they are not believed to be fatal.

Wrecked Schooner Breaks Up.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—The four-masted schooner Annie E. Smale, which was wrecked on Point Reyes last Saturday morning, is reported to have broken in two. The stern of the vessel, with the aftermast, has drifted out to sea, where it constitutes a menace to navigation and probably will be destroyed by the government.

NEW TIME FOR FRANCE.

Cabinet Decides to Submit Bill for Adoption of Western European Time.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

PARIS, July 12.—The Cabinet has decided to submit a bill for the adoption of Western European time in France. During the old days of enmity toward England France steadily refused to accept standard time, maintaining the solar time of Paris, which is nine minutes slower. The confusion resulting, especially in telephone communications with England, as well as the change in French-English relations, is responsible for the decision.

SAVAGE IS INDEPENDENT.

Announced Withdrawal from Theatrical Syndicate and Gives Reasons.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, July 12.—Henry W. Savage isued a formal statement tonight announcing his withdrawal from the theatrical syndicate. The statement says:

"I have definitely and absolutely severed all connection with the theatrical syndicate and my attractions will not appear in any house owned or controlled by that organization. My reason for this radical step is because I claim the privilege of offering my goods in the plays that seem best suited to my interests and those of the public at large."

is dreaded by people with low vitality. They cannot sleep at night, do not enjoy their meals, suffer continually from dysentery, malaria, chills, fever and other summer ills. To overcome this the system must be built up, the vitality restored, and the whole body made strong and vigorous and able to ward off the attacks of all disease germs. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is the medicine you need. It has been doing this for over half a century, and the fact is attested to by the thousands of letters we have received from patients everywhere endorsing it as the world's greatest medicine in all cases where a tonic stimulant and body builder is necessary.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain, great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus producing a liquid food, tonic and stimulant, requiring no digestion, in the form of a medicinal whiskey. Its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach. Its gentle and invigorating properties influence for good every important organ in the body. It makes the old feel young and keeps the young strong and vigorous.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, be sure you get the genuine. Sold IN SEALED BOTTLES ONLY—never in bulk. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Price $1.00 a large bottle. Write Medical Department, The Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y., for doctors' advice and an illustrated medical booklet containing testimonials and rules for health, both sent free.

POLITICAL.

IRON HAND OF WHISKY MEN.

Make Bold Demands of Illinois Democrats.

Want Bribery Suspects Returned to Legislature.

Party Leaders Protest and Candidates Are Alarmed.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO (Ill.) July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Liquor interests and legislative candidates became involved today in the Democratic contest for county officers. The word has gone forth that the distillers and brewers, alarmed over the fight for county local option, are demanding that candidates who stood by their interests at Springfield, be re-nominated regardless of the Senatorial or legislative jackpot scandals.

Reports have it that a big fund is at the disposal of the legislators who are under fire.

The situation is considered serious by the Democratic party chiefs, as well as by the laymen who have been asked to take places on the ticket.

"If the Democrats are going to nominate the members of the Legislature, who have been placed under suspicion in the graft scandals they will carry the ticket down to defeat," said one man who has been slated for an office on the county ticket.

"I want to know if the liquor people are going to force the return of men to the Legislature who should remain at home for the good of Democracy before I will accept a nomination. I have been told that Lee O'Neill Browne, who was the recognized anti-local option leader in Springfield, has been encouraged to seek a renomination by the liquor interests. Such a course, in my judgment, will carry down the entire Democratic ticket to defeat. The people are in no mood to be trifled with, and it is for the Democratic leaders to take a bold stand and say 'no.'"

INSURGENT DECEPTIVE.

Roosevelt's Alleged Promise to Support Poindexter Is Published in Washington Newspapers.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TACOMA, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It developed yesterday that a circular headed "Roosevelt to Support Poindexter" was sent to country papers and others from Spokane last week, after Poindexter's interview with the former President at Oyster Bay.

A Vancouver newspaper called for the withdrawal of the circular, saying it is in keeping with the false attack made a few days previously on Congressman McCredie by the Poindexter bureau and declared that a Senatorial campaign based upon falsehood and deceit cannot win.

Poindexter's circular has caused the greatest interest throughout the State. The newspapers supporting four other candidates from Tacoma and Seattle are calling wide attention to the circular, and Roosevelt's absolute denial of any partnership in the Washington Senatorial campaign.

Senator Jones is vigorously supporting John L. Wilson of Seattle, whose newspaper aided greatly in electing him two years ago.

BITTER CAMPAIGN.

MISSISSIPPI POLITICS

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW ORLEANS, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Not for thirty-five years has Mississippi politics been so warm. State Senator Bilbo, author of the bribery charges in the Senatorial caucus, is the chief disturbing factor in vitriolic joint debates. Charges and counter-charges are of daily occurrence. Bilbo is stumping the State denouncing Senator Percy, saying whisky, lewd women and money is being freely used to defeat ex-Gov. Vardaman for United States Senator. Bilbo, who is not a candidate, is called "Vardaman's understudy" by his political enemies. Senators Percy, Vardaman and Alexander are running for the United States Senate. The campaign is very bitter and bloodshed is not improbable.

OBITUARY.

Dr. M. B. Kassabian.

PHILADELPHIA, July 12.—Dr. M. B. Kassabian, one of the best-known X-Ray specialists in the United States, died at a hospital here today of a skin cancer contracted from burns received during many years' practice with Roentgen rays.

Henry Dexter.

NEW YORK, July 12.—Henry Dexter, the millionaire president of the American News Company, who died at his home here last night, in his ninety-eighth year, spent the greater portion of the last seven years of his life in unavailing search for the murderer of his son, Orrander P. Dexter. A reward of $10,000, offered by Mr. Dexter for the apprehension of the murderer is said to be continued in a codicil to the now nonogenarian's will. Orrander P. Dexter was shot in the back in September, 1903, while driving along a road on his place in the Adirondack Mountains. The bullet that killed him passed entirely through his body and killed the horse he was driving. It was believed that Dexter was murdered by some one who had a grudge against him because he had bought about 10,000 acres of land in the best game section of the Adirondacks. Henry Dexter always believed his son's murderer was shielded by prominent persons. He is said to have expended at least $50,000 in his effort to clear up the mystery. In memory to his son, he erected the new building of the New York Historical Society in Central Park west, at a cost of $350,000.

Mrs. C. C. Morse.

SAN JOSE, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.]] Mrs. C. C. Morse of Santa Clara, widow of the man who initiated the great seed industry in this county, died this evening at her home in the Mission town. Mrs. Morse crossed the plains to Santa Clara from Iowa in 1855, nine months being required for the journey, most of which she walked. A few years later she was married to Mr. Morse, then a prominent rancher, and soon the C. C. Morse Seed Company, which paved the way for the making of one of this valley's greatest industries, was launched. She was a devoted and prominent church worker, and in addition, was a member of the Kings Daughters, and prominent in local Chautauqua work. No arrangements for the funeral have, as yet, been made.

CONSPIRATORS CONFESS.

FAKE REVOLUTION FRAMED UP TO ANNIHILATE CUBAN STOCKS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

HAVANA, July 12.—The purpose of the conspiracy for which the mulatto, Col. Jorge Valera, and his associates were arrested yesterday, was to compel American intervention, according to the government's information.

The Secretary of the Interior has issued an official statement that it was learned some days ago that it was designed to blow up bridges and railways and destroy property of foreigners with the hope of compelling this result.

The suspects, being poor and ignorant, most of them negroes, the Secretary believed they were acting under the instigation and orders of persons of super-intelligence. Further investigation resulted in the discovery that the suspects were in constant communication with a stock broker whose name is unknown.

ON TRAIL OF SUSPECT.

A description of him has been obtained and the police are making a search for him.

The arrests were delayed until the four conspirators had started for Viaja Bremeja, whither a trunk containing arms and dynamite had been shipped the same day, and where, it is believed, they intended to begin operations.

When arrested one of the conspirators named Valeriano Pico made a voluntary statement, declaring that the whole conspiracy was a fake and merely an attempt to make a pretense of an uprising.

Its purpose, he said, was not to cause American intervention, but simply to break the local stock market by committing some damage, not serious, to property.

Only four persons were concerned in the conspiracy, he said, the rest of the eight arrested knowing nothing of the plot.

FAKE REVOLUTION.

The prisoner further declares that the plot was first suggested by an agent of the government, who informed him he knew an individual willing to pay Pico and his four comrades $5000 each, and to furnish explosives if they would go into the country and start a fake revolution.

The government agent declined to give the name of his principal, but assured Pico he was connected with the bourse and desired simply to depress the market.

A few days later three conspirators started for the scene of operations, Pico remaining in Havana to receive the promised $20,000. According to a statement made to Vicento Blanco, who professed to have some knowledge of the conspiracy, Pico informed him that Señor San Miguel, the editor of La Lucha, was the person financing the conspiracy.

The authorities apparently attach no importance to this charge as Señor San Miguel sailed for New York yesterday.

FORMER HUSBAND A BURGLAR.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A separation of five years and a new blond mustache did not deceive Mrs. Louisa Goodall-Zipp of East St. Louis, when her divorced husband returned last night in the roll of an alleged burglar. Instead of becoming frightened when she heard a noise in the house at 9 o'clock, Mrs. Zipp started an investigation. In a rear room, where the noise seemed to originate, she found a man. His declaration that he was a burglar angered Mrs. Zipp. She turned on the electric light, and found Arthur Leyd, her former husband. Leyd broke a window, she told the police, entered the house, drove Mrs. Zipp out, and locked the door. He was taken to the Police Station, where he declared that he had returned to visit his former wife, after an absence of five years. He is charged with attempted burglary and larceny.

NIGHT RIDERS REVENGEFUL.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HOPKINSVILLE (Ky.) July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Milton Oliver, one of the chief witnesses in the trials of alleged night riders, is still in danger of being killed by the band for the betrayal of its secrets, according to reports received here from soldiers who are guarding Oliver day and night at his home in the Lamasco precinct of Lyon county. The militiamen have learned that a few nights ago a body of night riders, armed and masked, started for Oliver's home, and were prevented in their purpose by inability to ford a stream which had been swollen from the heavy rains. The soldiers have renewed their vigilance, and say that they feel amply capable of protecting Oliver from the vengeance of the band.

BABY MURDERER FREED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. PAUL (Minn.) July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] About three years ago Maria Jane Williams, a friendless girl, serving a life sentence at Stillwater, expressed to the prison evangelist a desire to have some friend to write to. The prison teacher got her into correspondence with the wife of a charity worker in Salt Lake City, and today the new friend, Mrs. E. T. Mackey, made a plea for the girl before the State pardon board, which secured her release. Mrs. Mackey promised the board that she would take the girl into her own home and see that she would be well taken care of. Maria Williams married a man whose reputation was not good. He forced his wife to earn money for him by improper methods. She had a baby, and one night, when with three or four men, she tossed the child into the Mississippi.

FORTY HURT IN WRECK.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

FLINT (Mich.) July 12.—Crowded with excursionists bound for the Orangemen's celebration at Windsor, Ont., a special Detroit United Railway Interurban car crashed into a work train today at Wilkes Crossing, near here. Forty-five passengers were injured and it is reported six of them will die. One passenger was instantly killed. There were three special cars carrying the excursionists to Detroit. It is said the second special was mistaken for the third, and the work train started out, meeting the third special at full speed on a sharp curve.

FOR CHURCH ASYLUM.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

HOLLAND (Mich.) July 12.—A movement has been started by prominent divines and laymen in the Christian Reformed denomination to establish a church insane asylum where the church will be able to take care of its insane as it does the poor. The project, which is enthusiastically backed here, came up at the recent meeting of the general synod in Muskegon. This will include the purchase of a large farm, and as this city and Grand Rapids are the center of the denomination in America, the plan is to establish the asylum between the two cities.

FIVE HURT IN AUTO CRASH.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, July 12.—Five persons were severely injured shortly before midnight last night when an automobile in which they were riding was struck by an Illinois Central Railroad passenger train at East Seventy-third street and Railroad avenue. All were taken to the Washington Park Hospital. Those hurt were Mrs. N. Clyde, Mrs. N. M. Flanagan, Thomas Robinson, William Sheppard and Miss Grace Spencer. Owing to a sharp turn in the road, Sheppard, the chauffeur, was unable to see the train until he had driven the machine upon the tracks. Seeing that a collision was inevitable, Sheppard tried to increase the speed of the machine and pass in front of the engine. He was unsuccessful, however. All of the occupants were thrown from the machine.

DIRTY MILK IN CHICAGO.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, July 12.—The milk of Chicago is the dirtiest in the world. This startling fact, vital to the health of 2,500,000 people, was made public last night by the Milk Commission recently appointed by Mayor Busse in its first preliminary report to the City Council Commission. It was careful to impute no blame to the city health department, which, its report says, has done wonders with a staff undermanned and underpaid. The milk supply of Chicago amounts to 240,000 gallons daily. The commission will continue its investigation of the milk supply.

INDIAN SLAYER MYSTERIOUS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CINCINNATI (O.) July 12.—Except that he is a Cherokee and that he came to Cincinnati with a "Mexican" show, which disbanded here, the local police are unable to identify an Indian who today was held on a charge of murdering John Donovan, a negro. "I shot him. Him no good," was the Indian's explanation of the affair. Questioned as to his identity and his home, he refused to answer, except to say he was a "government man." When the case was called in Police Court the Indian was mute. A hearing was scheduled for July 16.

HEIR FIGURES COST.

Young Dyrenforth Decides Its Too Hot to Set Study Record—He Likes Girls, Too.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Robert St. George Dyrenforth, who, by the eccentric will of his grandfather, Maj. Robert Dyrenforth, was to have received $500,000 if he set a new record in study and progress, has taken a new view of life. He has decided to pass his summer at Madaline Island, in Lake Superior, and not take a school book with him.

"I will do as much as I can of what my grandfather outlined in his will," said the grandson, "but I know it is impossible to do it all. And I will get the money, anyway. I am not going to study this hot weather.

"Instead of being a woman hater I always will like the girls, just like any other boy does."

Robert got busy with a pencil and figured that if he followed the rules until he was 28 years old, for every day he was good, counting every minute, even the leap year extras, he would earn $85.85.

"Gee," he said, "they used to spank me for being bad, but they never paid me for being good. I wonder if I will lose $85 because I didn't go to church?"

PHOTOGRAPHERS CONVENE.

MILWAUKEE (Wis.) July 12.—More than a thousand delegates from all parts of the country attended the opening session today of the Photographers' Association of America.

SUFFRAGE BILL.

they can do these things without losing their love of the ideal or their knack of looking after the babies they also can vote without such loss, it was asserted.

Among the artistocratic suffragettes who listened to the debate on conferring the Parliamentary franchise on women last night were Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, the Duchess of Marlborough and Mrs. Vanderbilt.

MILLIONAIRES DRAGGED TO SUFFRAGETTE RALLY

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, July 12.—Methods bordering on the militant were resorted to yesterday at Lake Forest, a North Shore suburb, by the Trout suffragette tour, when Mrs. Katherine Waugh McCulloch, justice of the peace in Evanston, led a spirited assault on the so-called millionaires' special on the Chicago & Northwestern line as it pulled into the station, and forced 200 prominent Lake Foresters to listen to her arguments for ballots for women.

As the wealthy residents of the suburb filed out of the coaches Mrs. McCulloch's slight figure dashed across the street to intercept them.

"Just a minute, we're going to have a suffrage meeting across the street right away," she pleaded. "Come over and hear us."

Two hundred persons gathered around and Mrs. McCulloch plunged into a story of how well women's rights have worked in other States, and how badly Illinois needs the help of women.

"I have letters from 140 Mayors where suffrage has been granted in full, or in part, and they are practically unanimous in declaring conditions have improved," Mrs. McCulloch told her listeners.

TOBACCO SALES CONSIDERED.

Statement Strong for Another Poot This Year—None of Last Year's Crop Pledged.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

LEXINGTON (Ky.) July 12.—The district board of the Burley Tobacco Society, with representatives present from sixty or more counties, convened here today to consider questions in regard to the prospects of a sale of the 1909 crop.

Sentiment seems to be strong for another pool this year, despite the fact that not a pound of the 1909 crop has been sold or graded. Negotiations are said to be pending for the sale of 10,000,000 pounds to important factories, but this could not be verified.

They Have no Souls to Speak of, Says Dr. Hall at Colorado Normal School.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

GREELEY (Colo.) July 12.—Girls turning sixteen are absolutely irreligious and have no soul to speak of, according to Dr. G. Stanley Hall, president and professor of psychology at Clark University, Worcester, Mass., lecturing at the Summer Normal School here today. Hence it is, he explained, that they are devoted to rats, puffs, psyche knots, fudge, giggles and other ephemeral things.

"The budding girl is as baffling a problem as the soul of woman," said Dr. Hall, "and the world now knows that instead of no soul at all, woman now has one, two, three or even four more than man.

"The girl is absolutely irreligious in her nature. She is myopic, seeing the immediate present whereas a boy looks into the future. Her life is all emotion, and for that reason a certain religious fervor is likely to appeal to her. She should be protected from professional religionists."

FIDELITY TRUST COMPANY IS SOUND INSTITUTION.

Peculations of Assistant Secretary of Louisville Concern Will Result in Losses Only to Stockholders. Directors Pledge Million to Increase Resources, If Necessary.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) July 12.—Admission that the shortage of August Ropke, defaulting assistant secretary of the Fidelity Trust Company "is very large" was made at the trust company's office late today. At the same time, it was announced that the directors of the company had pledged themselves to an increase of $1,000,000 in the capital stock if such increase is necessary.

President John W. Barr issued a statement in which he said: "Our securities have been found absolutely intact. The defalcation of Mr. Ropke is very large. The estates are absolutely intact. Not a dollar can be lost to any one other than the stock holders.

"To strengthen further the resources of the company and to place further capital behind all trust estates and that all persons may know of its great resources and of the confidence of the directors, I have been authorized in writing by each and every director to state that the board of directors have pledged themselves, without compensation, to pay into the company, if it should become necessary, $1,000,000 in the form of a subscription to an additional issue of stock.

"Notice of a stock-holders' meeting will promptly be mailed to each shareholder."

It became known this afternoon that the trust company, although not expecting a run on the institution, is fully prepared for such an emergency. Apparently there is widespread faith in the officials and directors of the institution.

Ropke's shortage is placed by current rumor at about $500,000. His case today was set for hearing before the grand jury October 5, and the prisoner returned to jail in default of $25,000 bail.

It is said the peculations began between ten and fifteen years ago.

NEWARK IS PURIFIED.

Sheriff Resigns, Citizens Arrested on Riot Charges, Officials Deposed.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEWARK (O.) July 12.—Sheriff Linke of Licking county resigned today. The County Commissioners elected S. M. Slabaugh to succeed him.

The police arrested Weldon Kerr, Charley Bagley, Ed. Willis and Edward Shaller early today, charged with complicity in the riot of Friday night. The police will say nothing concerning the evidence obtained, except that it was furnished by witnesses who are in Columbus in consultation with the Governor.

Several other men are under surveillance. The new Chief of Police, Charles Hendel, and the new Police Captain, Charles Swank, were the arresting officers.

John Ankele, the new Mayor, stated today that he would completely reorganize the Police Department.

In addition to the Police Department, it is stated that the Director of Public Service Milton M. Taylor, and the Director of Public Safety Harry Runkle, will be deposed.

James McCrum, was sent to the City Prison, to take charge in place of Charles Hager, one of the old administration men. Vance Miller, aged 22, a negro, whose home is in Zanesville, is charged with being the one who crushed Etherington's skull the night of the lynching.

J. H. Newton, who has been editor of the Newark Advocate for thirty years, has resigned. He was liberal in his views and the policy of the paper has suddenly been changed since the riot.

In the State Supreme Court at Lincoln, Neb., yesterday Atty.-Gen. Thompson filed suit against the American Telegraph and Telephone Company, alleging that the concern had violated the anti-trust laws of the State. He asked for a temporary injunction to prevent the merger of rival companies. This the court issued.

combine to call out the workmen of other employers who have no grievance or to threaten the owners, builders and architects, that their contractors will be held up if they or any other subcontractors use the complainant's trim is quite another affair.

"To take the converse of the proposition, will the defendants admit that employers may combine to prevent any employer from using union labor? May the employers agree not to sell to, or contract with one who deals with an employer who uses union labor?

"Either of these propositions is destructive of the right of free men to labor for, or to employ the labor of any one the laborer or employer wishes.

"If the struggle is persisted in between labor and capital to establish a contrary view, ultimately either the workmen or the employers will be reduced to a condition of involuntary servitude."

WAKENED BY GLOVED HAND.

Oregon Woman Mysteriously Assaulted.

Three Times Burned by Concentrated Lye.

Town Aroused by Actions of Night Visitor.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND, July 12.—Three times within the last month, Mrs. R. C. Jennings of Gresham, twelve miles from here, has been the victim of mysterious assaults, a solution of concentrated lye being thrown in her face by a night visitor, whose identity is unknown.

An investigation is being made by the Sheriff and the entire town is in a state of excitement. The last assault was made about midnight, Saturday, when Mrs. Jennings was badly burned about the face, and her companion, 13-year-old Eva Hamlin, who was sleeping in the room with her, was frightened into hysterics.

With them was Mrs. Jennings's terrier. The chamber door was locked. Mrs. Jennings was awakened from a sound sleep by the little dog jumping on her chest, she declares, tearing at the bedding and barking furiously.

In an instant she felt her mouth covered by a gloved hand, and in the struggle which followed her face was daubed also by a gloved hand dipped in concentrated lye.

Her screams, with that of Eva Hamlin, together with the barking of the dog, evidently struck fear to the heart of the invader, who fled through the window, from which the screen had been torn.

The two previous attacks were made in June—one on June 22 and the other earlier in the month.

Each time Mrs. Jennings's face was burned, the last attack being made before she had recovered from the previous one.

Harry Collins, a young man who had been rooming in the house, was also burned in one of the previous attacks on the household.

ESCAPE FROM DEATH IS TIP.

News of Parachute Accident Furnishes Clew to Whereabouts of Aeronaut.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] George Taylor, whose right name is George T. Bartlett, escaped death in a fall of 500 feet in a crippled parachute at Belleville, N. J. He is now under arrest as a fugitive from the Glenmills Reformatory, an institution located in Pennsylvania.

Bartlett, who is 19 years of age, was taken into custody at the request of the Pennsylvania authorities, who learned of his whereabouts solely through the news of the accident.

The youth fled from the reformatory on June 28, 1909.

MOTHER ALLEGES JEALOUSY.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, July 12.—After listening to the statements of Mrs. Sarah Mahany, mother of Raymond Mahany, who was shot and killed yesterday by Elmer Cooper in what was believed to be an attempted robbery of Cooper, the police today caused the inquest to be postponed that they might investigate the circumstances of the shooting.

The mother said the shooting was the result of jealousy. She insisted her son was acquainted with Miss Catherine Rush, who says she is the fiancée of Cooper.

HORSE THIEVES ROUNDED UP.

Confession to Systematic Operations in Central Part of State Follows Arrests.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Fred Miller and Charles Coleman, the former 19 years old, were arrested and brought to this city today from Emigrant Gap, Placer county. They have admitted they are part of an organized gang of horse thieves operating throughout the Sacramento and the San Joaquin Valleys, with stations in Sacramento and Reno. After their arrest for stealing a valuable horse and buggy in this city, they admitted they have operated in Placer, San Joaquin and Sacramento counties, saying the rest of the gang are in Reno. Within the last four days it is claimed they have stolen four horses and as many rigs.

The plan was to steal horses in San Joaquin, pass them along to members in Sacramento county, finally landing them in Reno, where the animals, valued at from $200 to $300 each, were sold for one-half.

ARRESTED AT WIFE'S GRAVE.

Desperate Man Whose Wife Had Killed Herself Disarmed at Cemetery After Fierce Struggle.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MONROE (La.) July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The young wife of Philip Ward, committed suicide Sunday, shooting herself through the heart. No one divined the cause. Her husband, a desperate character, buckled an armed guard to his side and followed the body to the grave. Sheriff Jack Parker, with three of his most powerful deputies, went to the funeral today, and, as the grave was being filled, Sheriff Parker tapped Ward on the shoulder, "I want to see you," he said.

"You had as well dig another hole here and put me in it for I'll never surrender," he boasted, drawing a large pistol.

He was quickly disarmed by the four sheriffs. He reached for another gun, but it was snatched away. He whipped out a third, but the officers overpowered him at the foot of his suicide wife's grave, and he was landed in jail, wanted in three parishes on serious charges.

IGNORE COURT ORDERS.

Witnesses in Vaughan Murder Trial Remain Away by Advice of Prosecuting Attorney.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

KIRKSVILLE (Mo.) July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] All efforts here today by Mrs. Alma Proctor Vaughan, the wealthy young widow, to force the State to consent to depositions in the case in which she has been indicted jointly with Dr. J. R. Hull, charged with murdering her husband, Prof. Vaughan of the State Normal School, by poisoning, were blocked by Prosecutor Campbell, who advised his witnesses to stay away from court. President Kirk of the normal, Miss Elsie Kirk, Miss Emma Harvatt and others who testified before the grand jury which indicted Vaughan's widow and Hull, ignored subpoenas for them today.

Widow Vaughan's attorneys ignored Prosecutor Campbell's offer to take public depositions of all the State's witnesses if the defense would agree to take public depositions of the widow.

COPPER EXPERT SHOT.

FAMILY AFFAIR CAUSES KILLING

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EL PASO (Tex.) July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Arthur Bean, a mining engineer employed by the Copper Queen Mining Company and one of the best known copper experts in Arizona, was shot and killed Monday night by W. H. Hart at Bisbee, Ariz. The trouble was the result of family difficulties between Bean and Hart, according to the story told by Bean before he died. According to his statement he went to Hart's home to ask for an explanation as to Mrs. Bean's arrest for disturbing the peace. While discussing the case the two men walked away from the Hart home, and later Bean was found shot through the neck. Hart claimed that he was forced to shoot the mining engineer in self-defense, as the latter had drawn a knife and started to stab him. Hart was immediately arrested, charged with murder, and was refused bail.

MAN SUDDENLY FALLS DEAD.

JUST ABOUT TO KILL WIFE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

YONKERS (N. Y.) July 12.—Mrs. Peter Tripoli owes the fact that she is living today to an attack of heart failure which caused her husband to fall dead in the act of trying to kill her. The woman, unnerved by her narrow escape, fainted over the dead man's body.

Tripoli, who is believed to have become suddenly insane because of excessive heat, began to show signs of derangement yesterday morning. He grew worse as the heat increased, and eventually got into a quarrel with an ice man over a 10-cent piece of ice. Suddenly he attacked the ice man with an ax. His wife and a neighbor disarmed him, and soon afterward Mrs. Tripoli saw him take up a knife from the table.

She tried to disarm him, but he fought frenziedly, swearing that he would kill her. Finally the woman, exhausted, relaxed her hold. Tripoli raised the knife above his head, then suddenly reeled and fell dead.

Kills Self and Babe.

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) July 12.—Clasping her 18-months-old baby in her arms, Mrs. Rosie Mickecic, wife of an employé at the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé Railroad roundhouse in Kansas City, Kan., threw herself in front of a passenger train near the roundhouse today. Poverty, it is said, caused the woman to seek death. She was killed instantly, but the baby lived an hour after it was picked up.

"STANDARD" DECLINES AID.

LONDON, July 12.—The German tank steamer Standard, which was in collision with the White Star liner Baltic, June 30, was sighted Friday last, by the Diamant in latitude 55, longitude 24, about 500 miles due west of the north coast of Ireland. The Diamant offered assistance, but the Standard declined the offer.

Silk Dresses, July Purchase

A Manufacturer's Surplus Ordinarily Worth $15 to $25

The writer had the good fortune to see this deal closed personally; 250 garments were involved, and the first price named was not the price accepted by our representative. It was only after much dickering that these dresses came to us at our own price.

Taffeta, Messaline, Foulards, Pongee, Bengaline and Cloth of Gold dresses. Trimmed with dainty lace medallions and insertion. Garments that, earlier in the season, found ready sale at from $15 to $25. Just the sort of dresses you need for summer days. They are cool and comfortable and attractive. Second Floor..... $9.95

600 White Waists—They're Value Marvels Worth $1.95 to $4 ..... $1.50

A veritable landslide of white waists, lingeries and batiste, trimmed with very fine embroidery and Val. laces. Go from coast to coast an dyou'll not be likely to find the equal of this offering, for here are waists that sell regularly at $1.95, $2.50 and even $4.00. Think of the opportunity of buying them at, choice, each $1.50.

Still More of Those Dress and Tailored Waists—July's Waist Sensation..... $5.00

The wonder of it all is how could we secure such beautiful waists to sell at such a ridiculous price? It's one of those opportunities that have seldom if ever before been presented to the Western buying public, such rich plums being reserved for eastern retailers. Waists of fine taffeta, net and soft drapery materials that are seldom found outside of the more exclusive models. Every day lessens the assortment now. Don't miss it.

New Panama & Serge Skirts $5.95

We've set our aim on a big skirt day Wednesday, and for that end we've marked over 100 of the latest models in splendid all wool fabrics at $5.95. The tailorings are the very best possible in the higher-priced lines. In fact, these skirts are great values at $7.50, $8.50 and $10. This wonderful feature today, $5.95.

Pongee Coats For Women .. $7.95

Besides clever pongee coats are late models of taffetas, wool serges, coverts and broadcloths. The color range is represented by black, white, natural and cream. CAPT. ROLLS MEETS DEATH.

English Aviator Plunges to Earth in Biplane.

Tailpiece of Machine Suddenly Snaps Off.

Body Entangled in Mass of Steel and Canvas.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

BOURNEMOUTH (Eng.) July 12.—The first flying tournament of the year in England was brought to a tragic close by the dramatic death of the most daring British aviator, the Hon. Charles S. Rolls, third son of Lord Llangattock.

In the presence of a great company of spectators, a majority of whom were women and children, and many personal friends of the young aviator, the Wright biplane, on which he was flying, fell suddenly with terrific speed from a height of 100 feet. It struck the ground close to the crowded grand stand, smashed into a tangled mass, and before the doctors and their assistants could reach the spot Rolls was dead.

The event in which Rolls was competing was for a prize for the aviator alighting nearest a given mark. The goal was directly in front of the grand stand, where the spectators were massed. He had risen to a good height, then shut off his motor and was gliding in a broad circle toward the mark. Without warning the tailpiece of the biplane snapped off. The machine gave a sudden lurch and the framework crumpled up in the air. When it struck the ground it was smashed to splinters. The doctors found that Rolls had suffered a fractured skull. The wreck of the machine and twisted stays surrounded the body so that there was difficulty in extricating it.

Immediately after the result of Rolls's accident, the committee announced that flying would be suspended for the day.

PARENTS NOT PRESENT.

Lord and Lady Llangattock, the parents of Rolls, did not witness the catastrophe. They were yachting along the coast and put in at Poole, near Bournemouth, this morning, intending to attend the aviation meeting, but postponed going until after noon.

Audemars, the Swiss aviator, had a close shave while making a trial flight above the Bournemouth field. His monoplane overturned and descended swiftly to the ground, but he escaped without injury.

Capt. Charles Stewart Rolls was 33 years old, and was one of the most popular young all-around sportsmen in England. At ballooning, at motoring and later in the field of aviation, he had distinguished himself by his utter fearlessness.

Undoubtedly his crowning feat was his round trip across the channel between Dover and Calais in a Wright biplane on June 2, last. Two Frenchmen, Louis Blériot and Count De Lesseps, already had crossed the channel, and Hubert Latham had almost succeeded.

ELECTRIFIED KINGDOM.

Channel flying was at a discount in England because it was considered an old story, and also because national pride suffered from the monopoly of the by Frenchmen, when Rolls electrified the entire kingdom by doubling the accomplishments of his predecessors. The distance between Dover and Calais is twenty-one miles, and when Rolls did the round trip of forty-two miles in ninety minutes without stopping, his performance was a marvelous one, both for distance and time.

Rolls was as modest as he was daring, and received the congratulations which were showered upon him almost with embarrassment.

In his youth Rolls was one of the pioneers of motoring in England. He drove a motor car while the ordinance was still in force that every self-propelled vehicle on the public road must be preceded by a man carrying a red flag to warn pedestrians. Since 1896 he has been one of the best-known motor experts in Europe. In 1900 he won the gold medal in the 1000-mile automobile race. He was the representative of Great Britain in the Gordon Bennett race of 1905, and several times made world's records for speed. As a balloonist, Rolls had made more than 150 ascensions, crossed the channel several times in balloons, and in 1906, by a journey from Paris to Sherbourne in Norfolk, gained the French Aëro Club's medal for the longest balloon journey.

FAMOUS AT CAMBRIDGE.

Rolls was intended for the diplomatic service, but he showed such enthusiasm for science and mechanics that his parents decided it was better to let him become a good scientist than a poor diplomat. He was educated at Eton and Cambridge, where he specialized in engineering and electricity. He was captain of the Cambridge University bicycle team and gained his military title with the Eton volunteer battery.

Rolls had written and lectured much on his hobby, particularly on the future of motoring. He also was an expert musician. He was the technical managing director of the Rolls-Royce Motor Company and also captain of the London section of the army motor reserve corps.

Captain Rolls had expected to come to the United States this fall to give exhibitions of flying and to compete in any meetings that might be held. After his flight of the Channel he received telegrams of congratulation from King George and Queen Mary, was given the gold medal of the Royal Aero Club and altogether was one of the most conspicuous figures in England.

Capt. Rolls is the twelfth victim of the science of aviation.

AVIATION HAS LONG DEATH ROLL.

DEADLY AIM.

CURTISS PROVES EFFICACY OF AEROPLANE IN WARFARE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

ATLANTIC CITY (N. J.) July 12.—Glenn H. Curtiss today tossed oranges and mimic bombs within three feet of the decks of the yacht John E. Mehrer II, used in place of a battleship, during the sham battle arranged to demonstrate the utility of the aëroplane in coast defense.

The mock "bombs" were dropped from a height of about 300 feet, and Curtiss purposely failed to strike the deck of the yacht for fear of injuring the officials and passengers on board her decks.

Visiting experts agreed that the experiments showed that a fleet of aëroplanes armed with bombs could wreck any warship before guns could be trained on them.

Curtiss was flying about forty-five miles an hour when he dropped the "bombs," and the officials on the deck of the yacht declared that he was within accurate distance for rifle fire less than half a minute.

EFFICACY PROVED.

Col. William Allen Jones, retired, formerly of the United States Engineer Corps, who is an advocate of aëroplanes for coast defense, stated before the trials his belief that the air machine has proved its efficacy.

"The armored battleship is approaching its last days as an engine of attack against a city or country guarded by aëroplanes," he said.

"I believe a fleet of a score of aëroplanes would absolutely protect any coast city. A night flight by such a fleet would not only probably demolish an entire fleet of battleships, but would so demoralize the crews of the attacked vessels as to make them useless."

Curtiss also dropped oranges over a fortification marked out on the beach, making practically every shot a "hit."

BROOKINS STARTLES CROWD.

Walter Brookins's last flight here today was sensational, the adept driver gliding his machine toward the ocean until its runners were submerged in a breaker. He rose safely and glided to the beach.

Today's flights ended the meet. The prizes of $5000 each were presented to Brookins for breaking the altitude record, and to Curtiss for establishing a fifty-mile American record over the sea course yesterday. Twenty-two flights were made in the ten days' meet.

CRACK GOLFERS REGISTER FOR WESTERN AMATEUR TOURNEY.

CHICAGO, July 12.—Many entries for the Western amateur golf championship, which will be held at the Minikahda Club, Minneapolis, Minn., the week beginning July 25, are being received by Secretary Chas. E. Willard, of the Western Golf Association at his Chicago office. The entries close on July 18.

Among those who have already entered are Robert R. Gardner, national amateur champion, and Chas. Evans, Jr., the Western title holder.

The Southern Trans-Mississippi, Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Colorado, Missouri and the Western Association will be represented by teams in the Olympic cup contest. It is also possible that the California team will be in the play.

The Western Golf Association teams will be composed of Chas. Evans, Jr., captain; R. A. Gardner, national champion. Albert Seckel, intercollegiate chapion, and Paul Hunter, California champion.

GILL SERIOUSLY HURT.

Aviator, Members of Local Aero Club, Falls Hundred Feet at East St. Louis.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

EAST ST. LOUIS (Ill.) July 12.—Howard W. Gill of Baltimore, a novice aviator, fell a distance of nearly one hundred feet here tonight and sustained serious injuries. He was flying outside of the aviation field where the novice meet is to open Thursday, when a runaway team of horses beneath him temporarily took his mind from his levers and he lost control of the machine.

With a sudden jerk it was almost capsized and started for the ground. Gill was thrown several feet away from the machine, which was wrecked. He had just finished a quarter of a mile trial flight when the accident occurred. At a local hospital, where he was taken, it is said his injuries will confine him for several days.

Y.M.C.A. BARS OUTSIDERS.

Chicago Association Forbids Athletes to Compete Under Its Colors in Invitation Meets.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, July 12.—Adopting a new policy, the Central Y.M.C.A. will hereafter take no part in outside athletic competition of any sort. It calls for a curtailment in all branches of sport, and members will no longer be allowed to compete under the colors of the Central Association.

The step proved unpopular with almost the entire athletic crew, for with few exceptions they sought new homes, while others will compete unattached.

The policy does not mean that athletics will be abandoned entirely, but hereafter will be confined to rivalry among the different classes of the organization.

LONDON BALKS.

LONDON, July 12.—A motion deprecating the exhibition of the moving pictures of the Johnson-Jeffries fight in London halls was carried today by a vote of 45 to 29 at a meeting of the London County Council.

The adoption of this motion practically means that no films will be shown in England. The Council cannot prevent music halls from exhibiting the pictures, but as the halls must seek licenses from the Council each year, the managers are not likely to risk offending the Council. The provincial Councils are certain to follow London's lead.

After Stakeholder Sullivan.

NEW YORK, July 12.—Charles C. Mott, the assistant District Attorney, who is acting urosecutor of New York county in Mr. Whitman's absence, has decided to attempt proceedings against State Senator Timothy Sullivan for holding the stakes in connection with the recent prize fight at Reno. While the money was supposed to have been collected in Hoboken, Mr. Mott has been informed that the actual depositing of the cash took place here. It was announced unofficially that Mr. Mott would call the matter to the attention of the grand jury.

Aero Meet Postponed.

EAST ST. LOUIS (Ill.) July 12.—The opening of the first national aviation meet for novices was postponed this afternoon until Thursday, July 14. Several contestants were not ready to begin their trials. Only three of them made attempts to get off the ground this afternoon.

Inventor Commits Suicide.

BOSTON, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A. L. Pfitzner, Austrian army officer, designer of the Curtiss motor, who was recently injured in a flight accident, committed suicide here today.

AERO ROMANCE.

MAN-BIRD GETS "BIRD."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Frederick Philip Schneider, aëropianist, appeared before Clerk Stewart Harris at the Bronx marriage bureau today with pretty Eva Matilda Leonhauser. They wanted a license to be married.

Schneider is a builder of flying machines. Their acquaintance began when Schneider erected a workshop in the back yard of the Leonhauser house and went to work on an aëroplane. Matilda sat at her piano near the window and played "Take Me Up in Your Aëroplane."

When Schneider's machine fell and he was badly bruised Miss Leonhauser was one of the first to reach his side. He was taken to his home and she nursed him back to strength again

No Power to Butt in.

MELBOURNE, July 12.—The government has decided that it has no power to prevent the display of pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight.

ANOTHER THEORY.

WORRY CAUSED JEFF'S DEFEAT.

Corbett Says He Broke Down at Last Moment.

Could Have Whipped Dozen Jacks Before Fourth.

Big Fellow Carried Mental Burden Into Ring.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, July 12.—Jim Corbett threw some interesting side lights today on the Jeffries-Johnson fight, declaring that Jeffries could have beat a dozen Johnsons before July 4, but that worry over several things caused his defeat.

Corbett said Jeffries worried over the criticism of the fight by Gov. Gillett; that he fretted constantly over the news that his friends were betting all their money on him, and also the fact that Billy Delaney, his old manager, was going to aid Johnson.

Corbett, speaking of the final rubdown before the fight, said:

"I've seen many a fellow who was all in before a fight, but never one to compare with Jeffries. We found our room all right and the big fellow stripped for a rubdown. Roger Cornell, the greatest rubber in the world and one of the best judges of condition, started to work over Jeffries as he lay on the table. Jim was lying on his stomach. Suddenly I heard a low sob from where I stood to one side.

"It was Cornell. He realized that Jeffries was all in and it broke his heart. I tapped him on the shoulder and as he looked up I shook my head and frowned at him. The tears were streaming down his cheeks and the muscles of his face were working convulsively. But Jim did not heed anything and I doubt greatly that he would have realized even had he looked around at the rubber."

HE LOST HIS WAD.

DICK ADAMS IS ALL IN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One of the men who suffered because of his hero worship for Jeffries is little Dick Adams, hotelkeeper of Oakland, who has been forced to put a $2500 mortgage on his hotel furniture because he bet heavily on Jeffries to whip Johnson.

The mortgage is given to Mrs. Freda Jeffries, Jeff's wife, so the foreclosure will probably not take place even if he fails to pay the interest. Adams is under five feet high, but he was a great Jeff enthusiast, and for ten years has been a special crony of the big fighter.

It was Adams's heavy plunging on Jeffries that induced many to give odds of 2 to 1 on Jeff at Reno. They argued that Adams wouldn't bet so freely if he hadn't got an inside tip that Jeff was a sure winner.

VAN COURT'S OPINION.

GIVES ADVICE TO JEFF.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Dewitt Van Court, veteran boxing instructor and lifelong friend of Jeffries, is on his way to Los Angeles to advise Jim to forsake the roped ring forever. While not loudly proclaiming the fact, Van Court has confided to friends that it would practically be useless for Jeffries to make the fight of redemption and he friends to impress it upon the big fellow when he sees him.

Van Court said before leaving here: "It would be bad policy for Jeffries to think about fighting again. He has been out of the game too long and I don't think he would do well in a return match with Johnson.

"Before the Reno fight I thought he was all right, but that battle settled it. He can't come back and he would be whipped again if he got into the ring with Johnson."

POWELL AND MORAN.

PLAN ANOTHER MATCH.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Promoter Jim Griffin is planning to put on in San Francisco Lew Powell against Owen Moran or Frankie Burns for a ten-round, no-decision boxing match, toward the end of this month.

Griffin figures that such bout will not come under Gov. Gillett's or Mayor McCarthy's condemnation because it will be a boxing match, which, under no conditions, could be called a prize fight, since neither men could knock the other out inside of ten roupds.

Although local fight fans are mourning over the death of the old ring game they will turn out in good numbers to see a ten-round contest, especially between light or featherweights.

May Let in Pictures.

VICTORIA (B. C.) July 12.—The Provincial government will announce its decision concerning the fight pictures on Thursday. It is understood that the government will not interfere with the exhibition. A resolution to forbid the exhibition of the pictures in Victoria was lost at the meeting of the City Council last night.

SETTLES PROTESTS.

LYNCH HANDS DOWN DECISION.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, July 12.—President Lynch of the National League in a decision handed down today, declares against the New York club in the matter of a protested game with Boston on July 7, won by the latter, 5 to 2.

Before the game a time limit of 6:25 had been set to enable the Boston players to catch a train. The score at the end of the seventh inning stood 5 to 2 in Boston's favor. In the first half of the eighth New York made six runs, which were not counted because Boston's half of the inning was not finished before the time limit expired.

Brooklyn loses in a decision handed down by Mr. Lynch covering a protest of the game on June 30, won by New York, 2 to 0. Brooklyn claimed that a hit by McElveen with a man on base went into the stand and entitled him to a home run, which would have tied the score. President Lynch holds that the ball hit the outside of the upper tier of boxes and bounded back into the playing field. Under the circumstances the baseman was not entitled to a home run, and the game stands.

Big Deal Arranged.

CINCINNATI, July 12.—Perhaps the biggest trade of the year in baseball is to be announced here on Wednesday when the Boston National team comes to play Cincinnati a series of four games. It will take from Cinnati Third Baseman Lobert, who is considered by many one of the best infielders of the league, and will bring to Cincinnati Pitcher Cliff Curtiss and Shortstop Sweeney of Boston. This trade has received the official sanction of President Herrmann, who is now at Detroit.

CURED

Dr. M. S. Chenoweth, The Master Specialist

Varicose Veins, Hydrocele, Hernia, Piles, Fistula

My large and special practice has led me to cure Varicose Veins, Hernia, Hydrocele, Piles and Fistula without resorting to experiment, and the cures I have effected are the best proof of my ability to do just as I claim. I know just what is to be done in each case, and lose no time in doing it. You do not suffer any pain or lose time. My cures are not only for the time being, but I guarantee them to be permanent.

I am the oldest licensed and longest established specialist in California. I am a graduate of one of the largest medical colleges in the United States. I was physician in outdoor clinic, St. John's Hospital, St. Louis, Mo., 1888-1889, and railway surgeon on Harriman lines in Colorado for four years. Member of American Medical Society for six years, and the author and publisher of medical works of recognized authority. I do not hide under a false name, nor publish a false picture, nor make a false statement of any kind. I personally own and conduct my office, see my patients, and treat them personally from the time they come to me until I discharge them as cured.

I offer not only FREE consultation and advice, but of every case that comes to me I will make a careful examination and diagnosis without charge. Ailing persons should not neglect this opportunity to get expert opinion about their trouble.

My offices are open all day from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., and Sundays from 10 to 12.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

MISS EILEEN SALYER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred M. Salyer, No. 2712 La Salle avenue, became the bride, at 5 o'clock last evening, of Earl E. Hitchcock of this city, at the First Unitarian Church, on Flower street, Rev. E. A. Cantrell officiating. Before the ceremony Miss Edith Salyer, a sister of the bride, sang "Possession," "Irish Love Song" and "Oh Perfect Love." The bride, entering on the arm of her father, was attired in a white serge tailor-made suit, with a white picture hat, and carried a shower bouquet of brides' roses and maidenhair fern. She was attended by her sister, Miss Althea Salyer, and Miss Helen Echenberg of Santa Barbara, as bridesmaids, both gowned in white serge suits, with black picture hats trimmed with white plumes. They carried bouquets of pale lavender, sweet peas and maidenhair ferns, tied with lavender tulle ribbon. The flower girl was little Dorothy Salyer, a niece of the bride, gowned in a dainty white lingerie frock. The groom was attended by Will Thompson and Frank Webber.

Shasta daisies and greenery were used exclusively in decorating the church. Following the ceremony, the bridal couple left for a wedding trip to Coronado and surrounding points, and will be at home to their friends, No. 1147 East Thirty-sixth street, after August 1. The bride, who is a charming girl, has lived in this city most of her life, and is a graduate of Polytechnic High School. She then went to Pomona College for five years, graduating with the degree of A.B., and the past year has been supervisor of physical culture, physiology and hygiene in the Santa Monica schools. The groom, who has charge of the Grafton special school for boys, was president of the Phi Kappa Sigma and Crescent fraternities in this city, and was also a student at Berkeley.

Red Noses Cleared

Effect of Poslam, the New Skin Remedy, is Immediately Perceptible.

"I have been troubled with red nose and eczema for nearly eight years until I discovered poslam, the new magic cure. My face was a sight, and I was ashamed to be seen on the street. I was surprised to see the improvement after a months' treatment and I have a nice, clear complexion from which the pimples and my red nose disappeared like magic," says Charles F. Slutter, Wilkesbarre, Pa. "My nose would be like a boil," says Carl D. Steinhoff, Columbus, Ohio, "not only painful, but embarrassing. I have given poslam a thorough trial. My face became smooth and fair. My nose is a natural color and does not get sore."

Poslam is the new skin remedy, naturally flesh-colored, while heals and hides all skin imperfections. Although primarily intended for eczema —stopping the itching with first application and rapidly restoring the health of the skin—poslam shows immediate and surprising results when used for less serious skin affections, such as pimples, rash, blotches, inflammations, etc.

Poslam is on sale in 50-cent boxes and $2 jars at all druggists, particularly The Owl Drug Co.'s stores. A free sample may be obtained by mail in plain wrapper by writing to the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West 25th st., New York City.

FACTS, FEATURES AND FANCIES FOR WOMEN.

BY OLIVE GRAY.

On one of the recent warm mornings, I was down town with a friend who is furnishing a summer cottage and we dropped into a store where only reed furniture is sold. It was really a pleasure to be there, just because the place looked so cool, and had such a clean odor from some of the chemicals used in preparing the reed for use. Then, too, there was such a suggestion of the airiness of summer places by sea and country-side, that it added to the pleasure of the actual surroundings.

My friend was looking for an odd-shaped chair for a certain location in her house—she scarcely knew in fact just what shape she did wish it to be; but she described the location and surroundings, pointed out the features of one and another chair which she liked, and the maker said, "Now, if you will wait for half an hour or so, we will have for you a design combining the characteristics of several of those pieces and you can see if it is about what you want and suggest changes."

It did not take very long for the half-hour to pass, for the salesman showed us the new shapes in dressers and sideboards and buffet, all made from reed in the most elegant finish and of the prettiest designs and pointed out one entire dining-room set, which was to be sent down to Louisiana for a winter home. There was a gigantic dining table with center pedestal of finely-woven reed, and arm or "top" chairs made as solidly as though of mahogany, yet with the lightness of the reed; and a charming buffet and a sideboard unlike anything of the kind that I had ever seen. Then there was a jardiniere stand and several light side stands for special dining-room pieces. I would give something to see that furniture in place. I hope the walls of the room will be decorated in shades of leaf browns toning into the warm autumn colors, with some gold here and there, and that there will be brown leather cushions to the chairs and a rug in the same leafy shades upon the floor; and somewhere a picture of autumn woods, where you look far into the deep shade and seem to see the autumn leaves showering down through the sunlight. At the windows there should be imported madras curtains combining all the autumn colors and toning out to pale yellow where they part to let in the light. And then, for plants I would have, not the usual jardiniere affairs, but blossoming bulbs, brought in from time to time as they were about to bloom—crocuses, jonquils, tulips, freesias, and, in fact, I would run the entire scale of the spring and summer blossoming bulbs in their turn. But there! Those Louisiana people have not asked me to furnish their dining-room and they probably do not care what I would like to have in their dining-room, and by the time I had finished planning it, my friend's chair was designed and we became absorbed in that.

"Different" Salad Dressings.

For this season, when so many salads are used, it is well to know of different ways of preparing the dressing, as this, when varied, changes the entire salad. A friend who makes a delicious mustard dressing gave me her recipe recently and it is much appreciated at our home. Mix one teaspoonful of dry mustard with one-half cup of sugar, add one cupful of vinegar and bring to a boil. Beat two eggs with a half teaspoonful of salt and pour the hot mixture over, stirring thoroughly.

This is especially good for use with a vegetable salad, such as tomatoes and lettuce, asparagus and lettuce, peppers and tomatoes, or beets, celery and cress. One friend makes a salad from canned red kidney beans and sweet cucumber pickles, cut in small pieces and finished with this mustard dressing. It is an exceptionally appetizing salad, especially with such meat as roast fowl or lamb.

Not a dressing, but a warm weather drink, which is quite as necessary for nowadays, is "capillaire." It is an old southern drink, and is made thus: Take fourteen pounds of sugar, six eggs, three quarts of water, four drops of vanilla, one gill of orange flower water. Put into a large saucepan the sugar, add the eggs with their shells, stir in gradually the water, set it over the fire and boil it, taking off the scum until only a froth rises, then add the orange flower water and the vanilla extract, then strain it through a jelly bag. When cold, cork it tightly in bottles. A wineglass full of this put into a glass of ice water is very refreshing. A slice of lemon or orange, a few strawberries, currants or other fruits may be added to each glass when served, or, if preferred, grape juice for an added flavoring.

Best Belts to Wear.

Since the return of the separate skirt and the shirt waist, the belt has again become an important item of feminine attire. It may be ornamental and becoming, or it may be distinctly a disfigurement. This is particularly so for the stout woman. She, above all others, should be careful what she wears at the waist line. There are several "Don'ts" for the use of belts which should be strictly regarded by women who are inclined to have too much girth. One is don't wear conspicuous belts—those glaringly different from the remainder of your dress. Another is, don't wear very wide belts, nor slinkey ribbons.

Don't fail to adjust your belt so that it will extend down slightly in front, giving a trim appearance.

Don't wear a belt at all if you can help it; but wear a one-piece dress—semi-princess, preferably, with a close-fitting princess slip underneath. To dress thus will detract from the size of your belt, both apparently and in fact.

Simple Summer Games.

For summer parties, when it is too warm to exert the brain too greatly with intricate games of cards, a simple game of questions is amusing and serves to pass the time. One called the game of "Kate," is played thus: There are questions as follows: Kate, a queen renouncing her throne? Abdicate.

Kate as a teacher instructing her pupils? Educate.

Kate, leaving a house for good? Vacate.

Kate, in the act of imploring a favor? Supplicate.

Kate repaying the favor? Reciprocate.

Kate struggling for breath? Suffocate.

Kate living in the country? Rusticate.

Any number of such words may be riddled in this way, and the list made as long as desired.

A hare hunt is another simple game which may be used ingeniously.

Pass around cards decorated with small sketches of hares in all attitudes, scurrying off, standing upright, etc., and offer a prize for the greatest number of words written in fifteen minutes, all pertaining to hares, such as hair-lip, hairbreadth, haircloth.

To Amuse Bobbie.

Children like home-made games and toys better, as a rule, than the more expensive playthings which are purchased at a price for their amusement. A set of toy soldiers made from empty spools entertained Bobby and his little friend for several days and, indeed, are not yet discarded, as when in a warful mood they still get out the army and draw them up in battle array. For the foundation, or, rather, the body of each soldier, use one of the spools upon which heavy sewing silk or linen comes. Attach to this, for legs, two smaller spools, and two for arms, one at each side. These may be put on with glue or with double-pointed tacks. Then add a folded pasteboard cap, cut in a point, and you have a very soldierly-looking figure. An army train may be made from match boxes with spools for wheels. Bobbie may assist in all this making process and will appreciate his toys much more for having helped to produce them.

Frills and Frocks.

French summer frocks are really almost too straight in their lines to be becoming, as they, in fact, destroy the form, making all look alike as a slim, straight board. However, it is not likely that these styles can be followed by all, so there will of necessity be some individuality left, whatever Dame Fashion may decree, since nature is not to be wholly gainsaid.

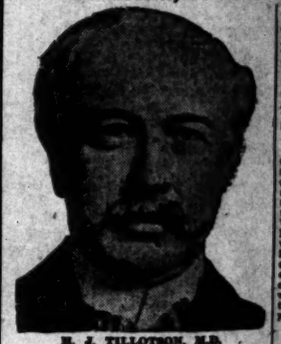
Cured In Five

Hernia, Piles and Varicose



H. J. TILLOTSON, M.D.
Established 20 Years.

I am the only Specialist in Los Angeles who is sole owner of his office and equipment, who does not advertise a fictitious name and photograph. I publish my true photograph, correct name, personally conduct my office. I am the longest established, most successful and reliable, as medical credentials and press records prove. I make this statement that you will know you consult a celebrated Specialist, who sees and treats patients personally. I possess skill and experience, acquired in such a way that no other can snare, and should get classed with medical companies. Experience is the safe standard by which judgment may be valued, and it is unwise and expensive to embrace the statements of medical companies. It is impossible for a medical company to attend college. Companies have no diploma or license to practice medicine in California or any other State. Medical companies usually are named after a doctor. A portrait, whose personality and identity are indefinite, is selected and published as the legitimate specialist of the office. Hired substitutes ordinary doctors with questionable ability, give consultation, examination and treatment.

A thorough investigation should be made by every ailing person as to the specialist he consults. Duty and destiny to self and those who depend upon you demand the best medical attention. I have the ability and can give you this service. I have always charged a very reasonable fee, so that my services may be obtained by any man who sincerely desires to be cured. I make no misleading statements or unbusinesslike propositions; neither do I desire to be particularly independent, and I would like to have you for a patient, if you will come to me on a strictly professional basis and the inducements that I offer, which are my ability, and thirty years' successful experience, Time-Saving Treatment and Guarantee of cure of certain Diseases.

NO MONEY REQUIRED TO COMMENCE TREATMENT. Many patients have no confidence in their doctor, because he demands pay before a cure has been effected, and there are many who have been misinformed about their condition, or through unsuccessful treatment have become skeptical and think there is no cure for them. I want an opportunity to treat such cases. It makes no difference about the financial part, as I accept pay for my services as benefits are derived, when I am satisfied the patient is reliable. Health is capital of interest. I will prove my ability to cure you before asking pay for my services.

WRITTEN GUARANTEE.

Dr. Tillotson's Written Guarantee means a cure or no pay for services. I guarantee to cure certain diseases or refund every dollar you have paid me for my services. My services cost you nothing unless I cure your Varicose Veins, Hernia, Piles, Fissures, Ulcerations, or any disease I guarantee to cure. My terms are reasonable and no more than you are willing and able to pay.

that board," said a Santa Clara orchardist.

Frank L. Caughey, Clerk of the Supreme Court, is visiting Los Angeles and Southern California in the interest of his campaign for reelection. The judges of the court are saying good words for Mr. Caughey, and it is to his advantage, in the minds of right-minded men, that the McCarthy gang in San Francisco has declared war against him. The McCarthyites have put forward for the office W. H. Bemiss, one of Pinhead's particular friends, a member of his personal cabinet, and have made a dicker with Alden Anderson's supporters—Jerry Burke, for instance—in Bemiss's behalf.

Members and friends of the Young Men's Political Club were informally entertained last evening at the second "smoker" of the organization in Stone Hall, corner East First and Chicago streets. Several candidates seeking Republican nominations were among the guests, and addresses were made by Ethan R. Allen, Dr. George W. Campbell, T. R. Harris and others. Charles M. Ackerman, candidate for justice of the peace, officiated as the presiding officer, and Vernon Ross was secretary. The sentiment of the meeting was decidedly in favor of the nomination of Phil Stanton for Governor.

Walter C. Fisher has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for the Assembly in the Seventy-fifth District. Percy Hammon, who has been a candidate, has retired. Mr. Fisher enters the lists against Dr. W. A. Lamb (Lincoln-Roosevelt,) and is well known in the district as a loyal Republican worker. He is in charge of the investment department of the Erkenbrecher Syndicate. He is a very energetic young man who will make a warm campaign.

Frank Mattison tells me that he is satisfied with the present outlook in his fight for the Republican nomination for State Controller.

COLD WATER BOSSES BLOCKADE EARLY CANDIDATE.

Would-Be Congressman on Anti-Booze Ticket Euchered for Nomination—Regular Slate Named for State Officers and Filed With the County Clerk, Hustler Is Left Out.

With about as much chance of success as the proverbial snowball would have in Death Valley about this season, the Prohibitionists of Los Angeles have succeeded in getting up a real fight over their nomination for Congress in the Seventh District. While there has not been any rumpus of startling proportions, there has been a sprinkling of cold water over and around the heads of some of the party leaders—or bosses, according to the story that is told by some of those interested.

Long before any of the deputies in the County Clerk's office had become acquainted with a circulating copy of one of the nominating petitions, Emery D. Martindale, a local attorney, made his way to the Courthouse and announced his intention of becoming a member of Congress. He had decided to go before the people and get his official vise from them in the form of ballots at the coming November election.

Mr. Martindale's enthusiasm was wonderful, and he was the first man in the county to secure the right sort of official papers to go out into a booxy werld and solicit supporters at the battle of the ballots. He was in earnest, and he said so. The situation had received full and serious consideration at his hands, and he could see nothing but sweeping defeat for any but a candidate with Prohibition stamped opposite his name on the official ballot.

But there is a different aspect on his bright political moon. After having had the best start and with battle forces in phalanx formed, Martindale ran into a skirmish with the party bosses, that looks very much as if he is out of the running.

"The earlier the start, the earlier one gets through," said a strawberry blonde young man who was yesterday swearing by Mr. Martindale and his candidacy—all Prohibition aspirants for public office refer to themselves candidates just the same as Democrats in Pennsylvania and Republicans in Texas. Be this as it may, the fact remains that yesterday, when the list of Prohibition candidates that had been agreed upon by the bosses was presented for filing at the County Clerk's office it was found that another cold-water advocate has been selected to make the race against Uncless James and the rest of the bunch.

The honor has been conferred upon Rev. Charles V. La Fontaine, pastor of the Grand Avenue Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene.

The official list of the Prohibition State candidates is as follows: Governor, Simon P. Meade of Oakland; Lieutenant-Governor, M. W. Atwood, Pasadena; Secretary of State, Lucien C. Dale, Los Angeles; Treasurer, William P. Fassett, Loomis; Attorney-General, Wallace M. Pence, Salinas; Controller, C. V. Sturdevant, Pasadena; Superintendent of Public Instruction, Perry O. We tell you again of the Life insurance feature of the Fitzgerald piano club

¶ There is a life insurance feature connected with our 20th Anniversary Piano Club. This feature provides against the possibility of the piano being lost to the family in event the head of it should die before the piano is fully paid for.

¶ This unexcelled feature is set forth in the face of the contract in the simplest, yet strongest, language—like this:

¶ "If the signer of this contract should die during the life thereof, and all weekly rentals have been paid when due, the remaining installments will be cancelled forthwith, and a receipt in full for the piano turned over to the family of the deceased."

¶ This is a very simple statement—without any "frills"—that covers the whole story. We want this club to be co-operative and helpful to each and every member in it. We want the saving to each and every member to be the greatest possible. We want every protection that we can think of to go to all its members. In short, we want this big deal, with which to mark our 20th anniversary in the piano business, to be a standing advertisement for us as long as we are in business, and this life insurance idea is its crowning feature.

¶ If the head of the family dies, if the bread-winner dies, if the source of income is stopped by death—the piano is not lost to the family. The family does not have to work and worry to meet the remaining payments. They are immediately cancelled, and a clear "receipt in full" is given to the family of the deceased. Isn't this a comforting and reassuring idea?

The making of a piano, in fact, is like the making of a picture. Given to one man exactly the same materials and the result is inevitably different. Never exactly the same combination of wood, steel, string and felt.

The Fitzgerald Club Piano is the expression of a great man—his accumulated genius made manifest.

Life insurance clause of Fitzgerald piano club

If the signer of this contract should die during the life thereof, and all weekly rentals have been paid when due, the remaining installments will be cancelled forthwith, and a receipt in full for the piano turned over to the family of the deceased.

(Signed) FITZGERALD MUSIC CO.

If, with two years' use the piano is not satisfactory, we will exchange it.

The sweet tones of the Club Piano speak adequately of its quality.

¶ Think of buying a suite of furniture, an automobile, a watch or anything of value, with a privilege of exchanging it at any time within two years from the time you bought it, and not lose a penny in the transaction.

¶ That is exactly what we are willing to do with these Fitzgerald Club pianos.

¶ The club member can come to our store and make another selection. He can select a piano of equal grade or a better grade. Whatever money he has paid, whether it is $40, $50, $60, $100, or whatever the amount, will be credited to the price of his new piano, and we will take the original Club piano back without the loss of a single cent to him.

These pianos are worth $375. The club price is $277.50 thus saving you $97.50.

Terms are $5 cash and $1.25 a week--less than half the regular terms.

¶ The pianos are worth $375. The Fitzgerald Club price is $277.50. This price includes everything. There are no extras of any kind. No interest to be added. Nothing to be added for drayage, stool, absolutely no extras. Two hundred and seventy-seven dollars and fifty cents is the price, and the price includes everything.

¶ These 500 pianos will be sold, $5.00 cash, then $1.25 a week. The $5.00 just about covers the cartage and delivering—yet the $5.00 payment you made when you join the club is credited to your account.

¶ The piano is delivered immediately. You do not have to wait until the club is filled. You get your piano when you join. The remainder is payable every week. Club members do not have to pay but $1.25 a week. This gives them 218 weeks in which to pay for the piano, and still get it at the Club price of $277.50, or at a straight out saving of $97.50.

¶ We have compiled a booklet, giving full details of the Club Plan, and showing the three different styles and woods of the Club Pianos. We will be glad to mail this booklet, together with a Star Collection of Old Favorite Songs, to all those who will fill in and return to us the coupon in the lower right hand corner of this sheet, without cost or obligation on their part.

...e second day of the week, all the ...larship contestants had buckled ...n to hard, eager work, with no time ...visiting or comments. Most scores ...e sent in by mail or by friends or ...tives, to save the working hours. ...l are after that $5 gold piece, and ...are hustling to fill the books of ...annuals before the limit expires. ...eans much to have an extra 15,000 ...d to a score, at this stage of the ...e, and that is what it will do to ...that book, and besides it may se... the extra prize.

...ester Stevenson made the greatest ...ber of points yesterday, with a ... of 2130.

...na Montgomery came next, with ... Edith Thomas counted third on ...list as to points, with 1665, and ... Sheppard followed, with 1041.

...new name was enrolled from Beau..., that of Frederick C. Ayars. He is ...11 years old. He starts in with a ..., so evidently means business.

...wins Brunton of the Soldiers' ...e is enthusiastically supported by the boys in blue, who do not mean to see their candidate distanced.

Said one of the contestants coming into headquarters yesterday: "Well, I've had bad luck. A lady promised me an eighteen months' new subscription, and when I went after it, she said: 'I gave it to your brother.' Then I knew that was lost, for I had no brother there. She had given it to a rival. That made me just sick, for a minute; but I said to myself: 'Now is the time to go after something else. It's always darkest before dawn; there must be some good luck on its way to me.'" That is the kind of a spirit to develop in the face of disappointment.

Chester Stevenson has taken a position where he will be at work a part of the time, so his friends mean to boost harder than ever for him, to help him make up for the time lost to his scholarship work.

While the work for this week is just a little more eagerly engaged in than ever, on account of the special prize, it will all count, too, in the summer's round-up for the great cash prizes.

The cash prizes are:

FINE!

...BUMP" THEIR ...DINNERS DOWN

...phans Revel in Sand and Ocean Waves.

...tos Take "Kidlets" Where Good Time Is Had.

...ungsters Own Venice for One Whole Day.

...hat a lot of fun they had! Never ...such a lively, happy day for them. ... orphans and dependent chil... of Los Angeles and vicin... had all the joy that could be ...ded into eight hours—and then ... Every youngster in the crowd ... home lugging some surplus de... on that his appetite had not quite ... equal to, and some had tried to ... home much more than was good ... them by putting it inside, in one or ... cases with disastrous results.

... 9 o'clock yesterday morning, the ... for gathering, three sides of Ham...er's were thronged with auto ...ds, and others who were to meet ...hines there. A few minutes after ...appointed time, a long procession ...ed, and with pennants flying, chil... laughing, and well wishers way... goodbye, they were on their way. ...Broadway to First, east on First to ...g, south on Spring to Pico, west ...Pico to Crenshaw boulevard, south ...Adams and then out to the beach. ...very corner some one waving, and ...y little hand in the long line an...ring; it was a pretty sight.

...er 400 children sat down ... lunch at Venice, a less ...ber than the society ex...ed, for the reason that the orphans' ...e in Anaheim has been quaran...d, on account of scarlet fever, and ... in time to deprive the youngsters ...heir promised outing. Several of ... committee are of the opinion that ...e should be given another chance, ... a day of their own as soon as ... are able to go to the beach.

BUMP THEIR DINNERS.

...nner safely and surely stowed ..., the beach was figuratively "pre...ed to the society," and the flock ... separated into squads of twenty... for safety and convenience, each ...ter-hundred being assigned a cap... and two or three mothers from ... list of patronesses. Then the fun ...n. One little rascal who said un...pected things at unexpected times ...ested that he be allowed to bump ... bumps first, and when he was ...d his reasons for wanting to go there first, said that he could not walk very well just then and thought that bumping down his dinner might make him more comfortable. The bumps it was, as per suggestion, and for a half hour twenty-five "kidlets" bumped with a great enthusiasm.

One batch was in the plunge, while one took possession of the scenic railway, and "had the life scared out of us twice a minute," as one of the little guests put it. The railway, with its curves and hair-raising plunging, was one of the favorite amusements, while the stretch of beach with its various attractions, such as wading, building forts, burying each other in the sand, and just resting lazily in the sun, came in close second. The miniature locomotive was a source of joy, especially to the boys, and not one in the crowd but whose fingers were itching to "run it." One little rogue made every one that was in his vicinity laugh by standing out in the middle of the road, and mimicing the "barker" for the railway, reproducing the very tones of the man's voice in a way that was remarkable.

ROUNDING 'EM UP.

At 4 o'clock the "mothers" started to round up the squads, and herding them toward the speedway where the autos were drawn up, backs to the sidewalk, on every hood a pennant of blue, lettered in white "Humane Society for Children." One by one the machines were filled with their little passengers, and with the band playing a final serenade, they reluctantly turned their faces away from the ocean and started to Los Angeles with a distance of about fifty feet between autos, making a monster procession.

The machines, all kindly loaned by members and friends of the Humane Society, took each its crowd of children to their respective starting places, and thus ended a day which will be long and loudly talked about among the youngsters. The society is very grateful for the interest the public took in the plans, and for the use of the machines placed at their disposal.

The officers of the Humane Society were in nominal charge of the excursion, under the management of M. C. Adler, treasurer, who was the father of the idea, and has worked very hard to bring it about. John C. Austin, president; Mrs. Fred Hooker-Jones, vice-president; John S. Myers, auditor, and Mrs. Clara V. Kubel, secretary and manager, headed the band of kindly people who have made the trip possible by their efforts. They were assisted by Capt. Edward F. Gray and Mrs. Virginia Heap.

The board of trustees includes Dr. Helen Woodruff, Mrs. F. E. Fay, Mrs. H. R. Boynton, Mrs. J. B. Carpenter, Mrs. Marion Welsh, Frank L. Miller, C. C. Desmond, E. J. Lickley and M. C. Adler.

Orphans off for the beach yesterday in long auto procession.

"HOT-DOG."

SANDWICH GRAB MEANS DEATH.

ONE MAN DYING IN HOSPITAL, ASSAILANT IN JAIL.

Mail Wagon Driver Was Too Hungry to Wait and When He Grabs Supper of Lunch Stand Customer Fight Follows and His Back Is Broken.

When Ralph Phillips, a former mail wagon driver of No. 538 Central avenue, and Jesse Navarre, a cigar store owner, slid onto adjoining seats at Bruce Weaver's lunch stand at Fifth street and Central avenue, Monday night, a dispute arose over the possession of a "hot-dog" sandwich, which developed into a slugging battle, and ended by Phillips being taken to the Sisters of Mercy Hospital in a dying condition, and Navarre being arrested last night.

At an early hour this morning, Phillips's condition was reported to be probably fatal, as he is suffering from a broken spinal column, contusions of the head, and probable internal injuries. No friends or relatives are attending his bedside, and the address of no member of his family is known.

Navarre was arrested last night at his cigar stand at Ceres and Central avenue by Detectives Ingram and Carroll. He admitted his part in the fight, discussing in detail the occurrence of the struggle, but pleaded self-defense, saying that Phillips was intoxicated, and that he tried in every way to avoid coming to blows with him.

According to Weaver, owner of the stand where the fight occurred, Navarre was seated at the wagon awaiting an order of a sandwich, when Phillips lurched in. When the "hot dog" was served, Phillips grabbed the morsel from in front of Navarre. A dispute followed, during which Phillips is reported to have volleyed drunken epithets at Navarre, and by offensive measures provoked a quarrel which ended by a hand-to-hand struggle on the sidewalk. Phillips fell against the curb, striking on his back, which resulted in breaking the spinal column. He was badly wounded about the head.

Phillips was attended by Dr. Dawley, who had been treating him for a period of two months past, during which Phillips had been unable to work. Phillips's room was bare of any articles or papers which might establish his former residence or the names of relatives.

Navarre, who is held in the City Prison, charged with assault and battery, with further charges pending development in the condition of Phillips, was formerly employed in a rolling mill, but purchased the cigar stand about two months ago, and permanently changed his occupation.

JUDGE PARKER TRANSFERRED.

EL PASO (Tex.) July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Judge Burton Parker, special agent of the Treasury Department, in charge of all offices along the Mexican border from El Paso to California, including Los Angeles and San Diego, has been transferred to Detroit, Mich., and his place will be taken by Charles E. Lewis, now special agent in charge of the treasury office in Detroit. The transfer was made at the request of Judge Parker, who is now a member of the commission which is investigating the affairs of the customs department at the port of New York. The change will be made before the first of August, and the new special agent will make an inspection of all the offices along the border as soon as he arrives in El Paso.

UNFORTUNATES.

DOUBLE DEAL IN ACCIDENT.

Boy on Bicycle Is Injured by Automobile.

But Wheel Jumps Into Auto and Breaks an Arm.

Party Hurries Away; Police Are Investigating.

Struck by an automobile, which collided with his bicycle at Thirty-ninth street and Vermont avenue, shortly after 9 o'clock last night, Lucas Vilarde, a 17-year-old boy, who lives at no. 3986 Vermont avenue, received a broken left arm, a broken left leg, internal injuries, bruises and abrasions. He was taken to his home, where his condition was pronounced serious at an early hour this morning.

The shattered bicycle wreaked vengeance on the automobilist when the force of the collision threw its owner to the curbing and caused it to bound into the automobile where it bruised the occupants and broke the right elbow of Miss Catherine Gibson, of Denker street and Vernon avenue.

In the automobile at the time of the accident were Mrs. J. W. Kemp, No. 3006 South Grand avenue; Miss Genevive Kelton, a guest of Mrs. Kemp; Miss Catherine Gibson, her mother, Mrs. D. Gibson, and a chauffeur, Albert Waterfield.

Mrs. Kemp is the wife of Attorney J. W. Kemp, who has offices in the H. W. Hellman Building. She was entertaining a party of friends for the evening and took them for a ride in the automobile. They were speeding south on Vermont avenue when they collided with the boy on the bicycle, who was riding north on Vermont avenue.

Bystanders who witnessed the affair assert that the autoists ran into the boy, and when his bicycle bounced up into their car they stopped to throw it out. They discovered that he was seriously hurt, and pulled him from the gutter up over a curbstone onto a grass plot. Residents near by came out and carried the boy into a house and the joy riders rode away without leaving their names or addresses.

TRAIL AUTO BY NUMBER.

Quick-witted persons in the crowd which gathered caught the number of the automobile and notified the police. The officers looked up "No. 34584" and found that its license was held by Attorney J. W. Kemp. They found that he was not using his car, but that his wife had been out in it with some women friends.

Two patrolmen were sent to the house to await the arrival of the woman whose identity was verified when she telephoned to her husband later and told him of the accident. The party went to the University Police Station with the officers and explained the case there. They were not placed under arrest, but the police say that they will make a thorough investigation.

Attorney Kemp stated last night that his wife had called him by telephone and told him that her automobile party had met with an accident at Thirty-ninth street and Vermont avenue. She told him that she did not know how badly the boy was hurt, or could guess at the extent of his injuries, but was contented when she saw him carried into a house in the neighborhood, her principal worry seemed about Miss Gibson, whom she rushed to a doctor and dispatched one to go to the scene of the accident. In the meantime the boy was taken to his home.

"I did not learn the boy's address from my wife. She did not seem to know. What is it?" questioned Mr. Kemp when asked about the accident last night. "I am sure that our chauffeur is one of the most careful men in the world and I know that my wife would not go away and leave a seriously injured boy without making sure that something was done for him. She may have been worried over the injury of Miss Gibson. As I understand the matter the boy ran into a wheel of our automobile."

CONFLICTING STORIES.

Eye-witnesses insist that the automobile hit the bicycle, and their story seems to be borne out by the fact that the latter machine was hurled into the air and fell inside the touring car.

The women in the automobile gave an appearance of lack of feeling when they took no pains to have Vilarde examined before they rode away, and did not leave their names with anyone whom the police could locate. The boy was apparently dangerously hurt and persons in the neighborhood were angered at the haste of the auto party to attend to the injury of one of their own number, when a boy was lying on the ground with a broken leg, broken arm and other injuries.

The Vilarde boy was later removed from his home at the suggestion of Mrs. J. F. T. Jenkins and J. E. Jenkins, No. 1050 West Twenty-fourth street, who had him treated at the California Hospital.

Miss Gibson was treated at her home, where her broken elbow was found to be not a dangerous injury.

The police are puzzled at the conflicting stories of the accident. Mrs. Kemp asserts that the boy ran into the side of her automobile, and bystanders say that it was a plain case of collision. All persons concerned in the affair agree that the bad condition of Vermont avenue is responsible for the accident, however it happened.

COLORED CAMPS DETACHED.

General Order Puts Negro Veterans of Wars Into New Department of the Columbia.

In pursuance of a general order, Gen. H. G. Otis Camp, No. 34, Los Angeles; Gen. Adna R. Chaffee Camp No. 44, Monterey, and Gen. Guy V. Henry Camp No. 45, Oakland, are detached from the Department of California, U. S. Spanish War Veterans, being composed of colored men who served during the Spanish War, the Philippine Insurrection and the China campaign against the Boxer uprising, and with all colored camps west of the Rocky Mountains, will be known as the Department of the Columbia. The department will be under the command of Capt. Frank H. Crumbly, provisional department commander.

Capt. Crumbly served during the Spanish War as captain in the Forty-ninth United States Volunteer Infantry. He was organizer and first com-

HUSBAND IS DEAD.

But Missing Woman in This City Does Not Know That She Is a Widow.

Detectives are searching for Mrs. J. J. Fitzgerald, who is somewhere in this city unaware that her husband is dead in Portland, Or. J. J. Fitzgerald, formerly an employé of the National Fireproofing Company of this city, with headquarters in the Security building, went to Portland several weeks ago and left his wife in this city pending his securing a permanent position in the north.

His former employers in this city received the following telegram yesterday afternoon:

"Advise Mrs. Fitzgerald that Mr. Fitzgerald is dead. Have her come at once. Advise us if you cannot locate her.

(Signed) "JAMES STEWART & CO., Portland."

Friends of the dead man could not find the address of his wife and they asked the assistance of the police department in locating her. The officers requested the newspapers to publish an account of the search.

AUTO INJURES BICYCLIST.

Roland Gershell, a 15-year-old boy living at No. 450 West Thirty-third street, was seriously injured yesterday when he collided, at the corner of Eighth and Grand avenue, with an automobile driven by Rev. Alexander Buccia of No. 750 New High street. The boy's wheel was smashed and he was knocked senseless. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where it was found that he was suffering from concussion of the brain. The police surgeons prescribed an ice bag, and the boy was taken to his home by the clergyman.

TANGLED CASE OF MATRIMONY.

Real Wife Files Action for Absolute Divorce.

Other Will Have a Chance to Remarry Bigamist.

Strange Case of Fugitive Now in Mexico.

Free from prosecution on a charge of bigamy as long as he remains on Mexican soil, George A. Robbins, an assayer of this city, who fled to the southern republic with wife No. 2 in February, may soon be able to call the woman with whom he is living his lawful wife.

Mrs. Mary C. Jack Robbins, wife No. 1, yesterday commenced an action for divorce in this county. It is likely that the decree will be granted, as her husband will not dare to return here for fear of being arrested on a felony charge.

The escapade of Robbins is a strange one, and for a time caused international complications. After he left here with wife No. 2, he was arrested and held in a Mexican prison for several months. The President of Mexico finally decided he would not honor the request for extradition, and the prisoner was turned free.

The Robbinses were married in British Columbia in 1902. They went to Wallace, Idaho, to reside, and then came to this city. Robbins is the son of Francis C. Robbins, a mining engineer, with offices at No. 1400 Union Trust building.

His wife became an invalid, and for several months was unable to leave her home. Robbins appeared to be devoted to her, and lavished much care on her. At the same time he was paying attention to Miss Genevieve Lindsay, daughter of G. J. Lindsay, superintendent of the E. K. Wood Lumber Company.

The young woman was employed as a stenographer in the same building in which Robbins had his office with his father. He became more and more attentive to her as their friendship ripened.

On January 7 he procured a marriage license, and they were wedded. He continued to keep up the deception, daily inventing new excuses for keeping both wives in the dark as to the cause of his absences from them. Finally he told them that he had urgent business in Mexico, and took wife No. 2 along with him.

A few days later Lindsay desired some word from his daughter, and dropped in to see the elder Robbins, thinking he might have had a letter form the newly-wedded couple. This was the first meeting of the two men, and was not a happy one. After they had made themselves clear to each other, they discovered the fact that a bigamous marriage had been solemnized.

Lindsay felt that his family's honor had been deeply wronged, and procured a warrant for the arrest of the young man. Telegraphic advice to the Mexican authorities soon caused his arrest.

Wife No. 1 was prostrated with grief when the news was carried to her. With her mother-in-law she immediately went north, and refused to take any part in the prosecution.

For months the authorities here sought to get the fugitive in their custody, that they could bring him to

SCORNED MAN KILLS HIMSELF.

WRITES GIRL HE LOVES IT IS FOR HER SAKE.

Employee of Cafeteria Makes Fatal Resolve After Unsuccessful Meeting With His Inamorata, and Blows Out His Brains—Shot Creates a Panic Among the Patrons.

Despondent from unrequited love, Fred Turner, a bus boy or dishwasher at Miller & Dickens' cafeteria, No. 621 South Main street, blew out his brains in the dressing-room of the establishment yesterday afternoon, and caused a panic among the patrons eating their noonday meal.

Turner, who was about 28 years of age, was desperately in love with Miss Julia Bechtold, one of the girls employed in the place. She spurned his advances, and he determined to die, after a last meeting during the noonday rush.

Armed with a cheap revolver, he went to the little dressing-room on a small gallery at the rear of the restaurant. There he hastily scribbled a letter to the girl who scorned him, and, placing the muzzle of the pistol against his right temple, pulled the trigger.

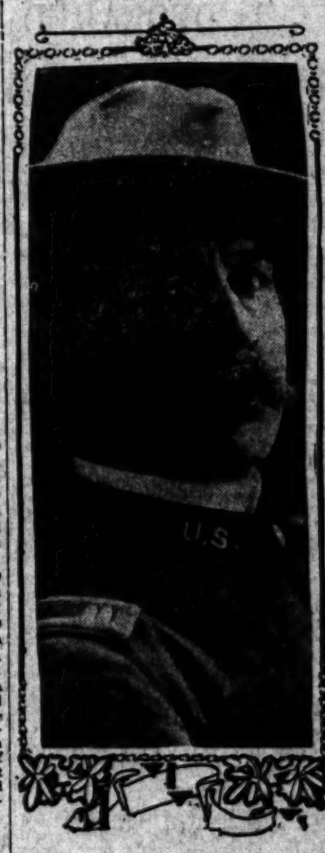
The appearance of the body showed that Turner died almost instantly. He lay upon his back, the fingers of his right hand still caught in the guard of the revolver, and his limbs enwrapped in the long white apron he had not taken time to discard.

The note found in his pocket read:

"Dear Julia: I am doing this for your sake, because I know I cannot have you for my own. I love you better than my own life, and that your heart will tell you. Life without you is not worth living though. I am doing this for your sake. Good-by, Fred Turner."

There was no address, nothing to indicate where Julia might be found, but Turner knew she would get the note.

At the cafeteria neither the proprietors nor any of the employés could tell anything about the dead man. They said he had been working there about five months, but nobody knew where he lived or where he came from. The



Maj. Elon F. Willcox,

U.S.A. (retired) who died last night at his home in this city.

"TAPS."

MUSTER-OUT OF A SOLDIER.

AFTER LONG SERVICE DEATH CONQUERS HIM.

Maj. Willcox, Late of Sixth Cavalry, With a Record in Southwest and Philippines, Where He Contracted Disease, Passes Away at His Home in This City.

After a lingering illness, "taps" sounded at sunset last evening for Maj. Elon Farnsworth Willcox, U.S.A., retired, late of the Fourth Cavalry, and a resident of this city, at No. 2057 Halldale avenue. The army lost a brave and gallant officer, his family a devoted father and husband, his friends a kindly and sweet-natured intimate, beloved of a wide circle. The immediate cause of death was tuberculosis, contracted on duty in the Philippines. The major retired from active service immediately after his return from the islands in 1906, and devoted himself to an effort to recuperate his shattered health, which, despite the care of the best physicians, was in vain.

Maj. Willcox was born in Michigan, November 6, 1855. His father, Gen. Orlando Willcox, was a distinguished soldier before him, having been twice brevetted for conspicuous bravery during the Civil War. The general was in command in Arizona and New Mexico at the time of the campaign against Geronimo, and the town of Willcox was named for him.

The son entered West Point in 1873 and became a second lieutenant in 1878. He served as an aide on his father's staff, in campaigns against the Apaches of Arizona and New Mexico, where he was a field mate of the then Capt. Adna R. Chaffee. In 1882 he was transferred to the Sixth Cavalry, becoming a first lieutenant in 1888, and a captain of the same regiment in 1897.

In 1903 he was removed to Los Angeles, where for two years he served as recruiting officer. Made a major of the Fourth Cavalry in 1905, he was ordered to the Philippine Islands, where he served under Gen. Wood in the campaign against the Moros. He was in command of the military post at Jolo at the time of the famous engagement wherein a handful of troops from the fort stormed the crater of a dead volcano, used as a fort by 600 bolo-armed Moros.

He returned from the islands in the following year and was retired at his own request after over thirty years active service. Coming directly to Los Angeles, he made this city his home.

He leaves a widow, Blanche Erde Willcox, and a 10-year-old son, Farnsworth Blake. It was the major's wish that his son should follow his father and grandfather in a military career, and it is the son's most cherished ambition to do so. While in the Philippines, Farnsworth, though then a lad of only 6, organized a little company of Moro children of his own age and drilled them with a skill that proved his ancestry.

Other relatives are the major's three brothers, O. B. Willcox, a prominent attorney of Denver, C. M. Willcox, a business man of the same city, Lieut. Julian Willcox of the Marine Service and a military attaché at the court of Peking, and a sister, Mrs. Grace Willcox Comegys, who resides at No. 2106 Halldale avenue. Although a member of no local organization than the California Club, Maj. Willcox was widely known in Los Angeles, and a host of friends will mourn him.

The remains are to be taken to San Francisco, where they will receive a military burial in the Military Cemetery at the Presidio, probably on Friday.

RATE HEARING POSTPONED.

The Pacific Telephone Company rate case has been set for hearing on September 1 by Federal Judge Wellborn. When the case was called yesterday the telephone people asked for an earlier hearing, but Attorney Hewitt, for the city, said that he needed at least six weeks to prepare for trial. The Judge remarked that he did not care to hurry the city, and granted Hewitt's request. The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company asks that a restraining order be issued to keep the city from enforcing the new 7-cent rate lately fixed by the

SUCH A MESS.

"SOLID SIX" STAND PAT.

In a Hole, But Willing to Stick There.

Council Votes Large Sum to Defend Rate Case.

Hot Words Bandied Between Ordinance Makers.

A final attempt to correct the telephone rates by increasing them, according to the Earl-Lissner schedule, not only failed in the Council yesterday, but disclosed the new alignment of the full membership. The "solid five" which made the reduction beyond the Earl-Lissner schedule remained solid and became more adamantine by the addition of Councilman Whitnin. Only Washburn and Stewart favored the increase. Gregory was absent when the discussion came up, but he has been favorable to the increase. Incidentally Lissner was branded a "dog in the manger" by Betkouski.

The Council was about to adjourn when City Attorney Hewitt presented a request that the Council make provision for the defense of the suit brought by the Pacific Telephone Company invoiving the new rates. Hewitt said Judge Wellborn had set the case for September 1 and the city must be prepared by that time to sustain the rates by affidavits of experts competent to give a court assurance.

"The city cannot use the experts who serve the Board of Public Utilities," said he, "because they will be used by the telephone company. I cannot now say how much money will be required, but a conservative estimate will be from $10,000 to $15,000. The local experts are already employed by the telephone company. I do not know where we will get experts to justify our rates or whether they will sustain us after they make an investigation, but we must be prepared."

Washburn said he had prepared what he wished to say on the telephone rate question and he read the following:

WASHBURN'S ARGUMENT.

"The City Charter provides for a Public Utilities Commission. The duty of this commission is to make an examination of the various public utilities operating in this city, their property, their revenue and expenses and to report to the Council the rates to be charged to the public that will yield a fair return on their investment. In conformity with this provision the commission made a report after what they stated to have been a very thorough investigation, giving the value of the physical properties of the two telephone companies operating in this city, together with other information as required by law and a recommendation as to the rates to be authorized that will yield them a revenue of 8 per cent. on the amount of their investment.

"At the time this report was under consideration by the Council I made inquiries in this Council Chamber and elsewhere as to whether there was any question about the accuracy of the report. I have never heard it questioned. I have no personal knowledge in the matter and under the circumstances I am bound to believe that the report is correct. My understanding of the law is that no court in this State has ever allowed any public utility corporation a rate of less than 6 per cent.

"This Council ignored the report of the Commission and arbitrarily fixed the rate materially less than recommended by the Commission and as a result suit has been filed by the Sunset Telephone Company in the United States Court, asking for an injunction to prevent the enforcement of these rates.

"The City Attorney now comes to us, asking that the Council provide him with the sum of $15,000 for the purpose of defending this suit. He states that on account of the refusal of the Council to recognize the report of the Public Utilities Commission that the evidence upon which their report is based is not available, that it is going to be a long and very expensive trial. The situation seems to me to be about as follows:

"In order to win the city will have to prove that the valuation placed upon the property of the telephone company is greatly overestimated or that the courts will reverse their previous decision and fix a lower rate than 6 per cent as a reasonable amount to be allowed them. Unless we do one of these two things our case is hopeless. I believe, therefore, that we are not justified in spending this large amount of money until we have placed ourselves in a defensable position by adopting the report and rates recommended by the Public Utilities Commission. I therefore move a reconsideration of the ordinance fixing the rates."

"DOG IN MANGER."

This cold-blooded statement of the hole the "solid five" dug for the telephone patrons of the city aroused Betkouski. He said the Pacific Company refused to accept any compromise except the old schedule of rates, and even rejected the suggestion of the Lissner board's rates, which meant an increase.

"We are entitled to the help of the Board of Public Utilities in this situation," said Betkouski, "but they have sat like a dog in the manger all through this dispute. I am in favor of passing a resolution compelling them to aid this defense and stiffen the backbone of the city."

"There is no question about the backbone of the City Attorney," said Hewitt, hotly. Betkouski laughed and sat down.

Stewart said a lawsuit is inevitable, and the city must defend its action, and for that reason he first believed a reconsideration of the rates necessary to put the City Attorney in a defensible position. As it now stands the attorney will have difficulty in sustaining the action of the Council, and it must first get in accord with the Board of Public Utilities. Such a course would also minimize the cost of the defense.

There was a conflict of motions, but President Lusk entertained Betkouski's, supporting the appropriation of $15,000. The City Attorney said he would not be limited to this amount, as it might cost more. "Uncle Jerry" lighted the oil on the troubled waters by intimating that experts could be obtained for $10 a day, and that the

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Health Board annual report shows gratifying health conditions in Los Angeles.

Council will declare today that power bond proceeds are primarily to supply the city with public light and power.

A fish horn solo, offered in evidence in court, was ruled out by Police Judge Frederickson, in the case of a fish peddler, who made a noise on the street.

Violators of the dog-muzzling ordinance were jollied in the Police Court yesterday morning, after which they all paid fines.

Count A. Von Dankberg, the Prussian army officer arrested here for passing a fictitious check, was arraigned in the Police Court yesterday and will be given a hearing this afternoon.

HEALTH BOARD BUDGET WILL PROVIDE FOR EXPANSION.

More Inspectors and Nurses Needed to Cope With the Increase of Disease and to Enforce Preventive Measures—Health of City Ranks High in Statistics.

Having saved $3455 during the fiscal year just ended, the Health Board yesterday decided to ask an increase of $30,000 in its budget allowance for the present year. Last year $57,500 was allotted for health administration, and this year the board would have $75,000.

A large part of the increase is needed for increasing salaries and increasing the sanitary forces. It is the wish to give greater inspection to milk, to have a veterinarian who will make war against tubercular dairy cattle and to enlarge the number and work of the district and school nurses. The budget requisition, which, with the exceptions noted, is practically the same as last year, was adopted by the board yesterday and sent to the Auditor.

Having discussed the future, the board listened to the past by Dr. L. M. Powers, health officer, as disclosed in his annual report to the board. It showed that Los Angeles has enviable statistics as to its health and mortality, considering the tremendous increase in population and the great number of strangers constantly in the city. The vital statistics have already been made public, but the disease tables showed the gratifying health conditions.

Of the 780 deaths from tuberculosis during the year, 243 were of persons who had lived in the city less than a year. This is the old story of those who come to the land of sunshine too far advanced to gain benefit. A feature of the white plague roll was that twenty-seven who died were children under 2 years of age. Dr. Powers also found an increase in the number of natives who were victims, there being seventy-one who had passed all their lives here. His report called attention to the fact that the work of prevention has not been thorough nor efficient, and that larger provision should be made at once.

Typhoid statistics show that the city, notwithstanding its rapid increase in population, has remained stationary on this disease, and that many cases are constructed outside the city. During the year there were 226 deaths from it, which is only 12.06 per cent. per 100,000 of population.

Only one case of human rabies developed, though ninety-three dogs and eight horses were found afflicted. Dr. Powers reports an epidemic during the year, principally after January 1, and declares there is no protection to a dog so great as a well-enforced muzzling ordinance.

He urges more school nurses, the five now in service having twenty schools each, more rigid enforcement of the milk ordinance, a veterinarian and four more inspectors, and the establishment of public baths and comfort stations.

MAYOR'S LEAVE.

WILL TAKE A REST.

The Council granted the Mayor a leave of absence for thirty days yesterday, to begin tomorrow. It is the first vacation the Mayor has had since the recall cyclone swept him into office a year ago last March.

Where is he going? He knows, but he declines to say. It is stated, however, that he will not go out of the State of California, and may be in and out of the city frequently. There is also a belief that he intends to make an inspection of the aqueduct, over which he has never been, though it is conceded he might choose cooler days.

During his absence, R. M. Lusk, president of the Council, will become acting Mayor. Just what effect this will have on the work of the Council, now sitting as a Board of Equalization, is not calculable now, but it is believed it will make difficulties before the vacation period ends.

CITY'S CASH.

THREE MILLIONS IN TILL.

The Los Angeles city treasury had a balance of $2,206,522.63 on June 30, the end of the last fiscal year. This was nearly $1,000,000 less than it had a year before, accountable for by the stopping of the aqueduct income from bond advances. The balance last year was $4,260,868.77.

During the year the city treasury received $24,758,635.51 and disbursed $26,477,760.74. These figures were shown in the annual statement of City Treasurer Hance to the Council yesterday.

City Hall Brevities.

The Council has instructed the Public Welfare Committee to consider an anti-prize-fighting ordinance.

Fixing harbor tolls and licenses has been postponed by the Council until August 9.

The Highland Park Protective League, the Garvanza Improvement Association and the North, Northwest and Northeast Improvement Association have asked the Council to divide the municipal band this year and insure concerts in all the parks of the city at least once a week. The request was referred to the Municipal Music Commission.

Guy W. Eddie has sent a communication to the Council, at the request of the Police Commission, so he says, asking that the anti-dice-shaking ordinance be resubmitted to the people as soon as possible. It was beaten last December. He does not ask a special election, modest Guy!

Milk Law Passes.

The new milk ordinance was amended yesterday by the substitution of a temperature of 70 degrees for the 60 degrees recommended by the Health Board, and passed. The lower temperature was found impractical, even the recommendation. Besides a milk famine and a referendum might result. The Mayor will probably sign the ordinance today. O'Brien voted against the measure because it is too long, he said.

OPEN MARKET?

POWER BOND POLICY TO BE DECLARED BY THE COUNCIL.

THE Council will be asked this morning to declare a policy on the use of the proceeds of the power bonds, amounting to $3,500,000, which are soon to be offered for sale. This declaration is understood to have been advised by Dillon and Hubbard of New York, special counsel, in order to prevent any successful attack on their issuance in the courts.

At a conference in the Mayor's office yesterday, with the Council (another star chamber session,) the ordinance was presented by City Attorney Hewitt and W. B. Mathews, aqueduct counsel, and it is understood, was approved.

The declaration will be a part of an ordinance authorizing the issuance and sale of the bonds and will make the primary purpose the construction of hydro-electric plants and distributing systems for the furnishing of the city with current for street lighting and numerous other municipal functions and, secondarily, for the sale of any excess to the inhabitants of the city for their private use.

This specification of the purposes is said to be necessary because of the close legal question about the power of a municipality to engage in the business of producing electrical energy for the purpose of selling to commerce. It is held that the city may produce current for its own uses and may sell the excess, but that it cannot enter the commercial business of lighting in any other way.

While all this is probably necessary the city still has a provision in its charter by which it may sell current, not only to the inhabitants of Los Angeles, but to other municipalities for resale and distribution. This provision is supposed to open the door for the sale of the great excess beyond the needs of Los Angeles to Pasadena and other near-by cities, and particularly to the harbor region, which is expected to have a suburban development by the time the power is available.

The ordinance will be presented during a recess from the work of the Board of Equalization. It may be accompanied by the ordinance authorizing the issuance and sale of the harbor bonds.

This course looks like the city had dropped all negotiations with the aqueduct bond syndicate for the financing of the two lesser projects, and would seek the open market for the harbor-power bonds amounting to $3,500,000.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

LONG JOURNEY FOR DAUGHTER.

FATHER COMES FROM CHICAGO TO GET POSSESSION.

Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus Heard and Mother of Child Is Charged With Desertion and Extravagance and Retorts That Husband Was Poor Provider.

A father's affection for a tiny, curly-haired girl, that stretched more than half-way across the continent, brought Dr. Oscar V. Schroeter, a city ambulance surgeon of Chicago, to this city with his attorney to contest for the possession of his child.

The attorney, Ernest U. Schroeter, brother of the physician, commenced habeas corpus proceedings, and the affair was taken up in Department Eight yesterday. The hearing revealed a tangle of relationships.

Dr. Schroeter is the nephew of the stepfather of his wife, and apparently does not love him a bit more for it. The stepfather, James Z. Charbonneau, is both the grandfather by marriage and the great uncle of the child in question.

The legal proceeding is based on the alleged flight of Mrs. Schroeter with her daughter, Alice E., on February 11, 1909, from Chicago. The father alleges that he has longed for the child, and that he has a home prepared for her, and will provide for her medical attention and education, which he alleges have been denied her.

The Schroeters were married in Chicago on February 22, 1903. The baby girl was born on June 2, 1906. According to the statements of each, their life was not blissful, even before the child came to them.

The physician testified yesterday that he found his wife "highly extravagant, a doer of many things which were not right, and a deceiver." Her answer was that he was a "poor provider, a fault finder with her relatives, and too fond of his own for her comfort."

Dr. Schroeter said that they had more or less trouble, but that they managed to live together during a number of years of quarreling. He declared that she was fond of fine dresses and living beyond his means. He accused her of having pledged his credit without his knowledge, and having taxed his wits to make his salary of $100 a month as a city employe meet the demands on it.

He pictured his surprise when he came home one night a year and a half ago, to the flat at No. 6101 South Green street, and found the place deserted. A note explained that his spouse had left him and taken her child with her.

The doctor said he traced her to the north side of the city, but was always a little too late to find her. Then he learned that she had come to Pasadena to reside with her mother and stepfather at No. 949 North Lincoln avenue.

The physician complained that he had entreated his wife to return the baby to him, but that his words were wasted. Then he packed up his belongings, and, with his brother, started for this city to seek relief through the courts. He declared that after he arrived his wife even denied him the privilege of seeing the child.

Mrs. Schroeter told a somewhat different story. She said that he would not give her enough money to live on, and that she depended on her mother for her clothing.

"His father wouldn't work, and he paid the rent for him, instead of giving the money to me," she said. "My home life was very unpleasant. We frequently quarreled over money matters. I had to pledge his credit to get enough things for myself and the baby to wear. He also found fault with my relatives.

"I told him if he did not do better that I would leave him, and he told me to go. For about two months before I left him I kept boarders in order to get enough money to buy things to eat. My mother sent me enough money to buy my ticket out here. I was sick for three weeks after arriving, but I have worked as a head waitress in a sanatorium, a cashier, and in a department store since then. I am well now, and am capable of providing for the child."

The little girl played about the courtroom during the proceedings. First she smiled at her father, as he coaxed her to come to him, then she hugged and kissed her mother. She is a bright-appearing child, but does not look to be over strong.

The case was not concluded, but will be taken up again Monday.

INJURED IN EXPLOSION.

POOLPLAYER SEEKS DAMAGES.

The suit of Charles E. Johnson against the Los Angeles Gas & Electric Corporation for damages for personal injury was brought to trial before a jury in Judge Moss's court, yesterday.

Johnson was playing pool on the first floor of Hotel Austin, No. 528-530 East Fifth street, January 12, 1908, when the building was destroyed by explosions and fire.

badly injured by the debris which was thrown against him that it was necessary for him to go to a hospital and that he will never recover entirely.

The gas company is charged with having been responsible for the explosions, in that its employes had neglected leaky pipes. There is an effort being made to show that escaping gas was smelled by persons living in the hotel for some time before the "blow up" came.

BALLERINO WILL.

PROBATE AGAIN POSTPONED.

The contest of Jeanne Uhalt against the probate of several wills of Bartolo Ballerino, the "Crib King," which was to have been begun yesterday, was postponed until the 21st inst. There was a fight among the attorneys, some of whom wished to proceed and others desired that the hearing should be continued.

The Uhalt woman was said at one time to have held a place in the heart of old Ballerino. The will which she seeks to have probated was made at that time, giving her the bulk of his property. Her contention is that he became insane before he made any more wills and in consequence she is the only one who is entitled to take by an instrument of this sort.

There were allegations made yesterday that efforts have been made to keep her out of the country, so that her case could not be successfully prosecuted. The trial of her contest may take more than a week, as she is said to have about thirty witnesses.

FRENZIED FINANCE.

BONDSMEN FIGHTING HARD.

The frenzied finance of Elmer E. Rowell, who was recently arrested on a charge of having "jumped his bail," was given another airing in court yesterday. His actions were the basis of a suit of P. Hospers against Warren Wilson and Mrs. M. A. Mintier, which was tried before Judge Hovey.

Hospers brought suit in Judge James' court more than a year ago against Rowell. The proceedings were interfered with long enough for application to be made for a warrant for the arrest of Rowell on a charge of having obtained money under false pretenses.

Wilson and Mrs. Mintier furnished bonds for Rowell's appearance to answer the criminal complaint and went surety for him in the civil action to the extent of $10,000. Hospers obtained judgment for $19,530 and $2670. He was unable to collect from Rowell and is now seeking to hold his bondsmen.

The evidence was submitted yesterday but the attorneys did not have time to argue the case. It will be taken up again today.

LICENSE ORDINANCE.

BANKS GET INJUNCTIONS.

Five new attacks were made yesterday on the validity and constitutionality of the occupation tax and license ordinance. No. 20,000, new series, which was favorably passed upon by the voters at the last election.

Four of the suits were filed at one time before Judge Bordwell. He issued temporary restraining orders against the city officials to prevent them from enforcing the law until the merits of the case are heard before Judge Monroe next Monday. The complainants were the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank, the Security Savings Bank, the German-American Savings Bank and the Southern Trust Company.

The other plaintiff is the Southern California Edison Company. Its complaint is similar to that which was filed Monday by the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation. It alleges several new reasons why its officials believe that the law is not valid.

WANTS HER DAUGHTERS.

HABEAS CORPUS WRIT OUT.

Technicalities yesterday blocked the final hearing of the petition of Mrs. Anna Petrou for the custody of her daughters, Louise and Catherine Moreux, who are confined in the Home of the Good Shepherd, Pico and Arlington streets, because of alleged delinquencies.

Several days ago Mrs. Petrou filed an application for a writ of habeas corpus, and it was made returnable yesterday in Department Eight. The attorneys for the mother objected to the answer which had been filed by the attorneys for the Sisters of the Good Shepherd against whom the writ was directed. The judge continued the case until the 16th inst.

The home of the two girls is in Ventura county. They were committed to the home from there by the Superior Court, March 31.

Mrs. Petrou alleges that the law under which the action was taken is unconstitutional and avers that she is opposed to the Roman Catholic religion, which is the creed at the institution.

The Sisters deny that Catholicism is taught to the inmates against their will, but that every influence which is good is brought to bear upon them to fit them to be allowed to go free or returned to their own homes.

FELONY CHARGES.

MANY PRISONERS PLEAD.

Seven persons accused of felonies were called before Judge Davis yesterday. Among them were George R. Vincent and Edgar Beaverson, who had a close combination for stealing trunks. Vincent is accredited with having been the leader and having PICKET FACES COURT TRIAL.

ESCORTED BY ADMIRING BUNCH OF STRIKERS.

Cowardly Assailant of Ironworker Swaggers Out on Bail Furnished by Union Men—Judge Coaxes Excuses from Dog Owners—Draws Line on Fish Horn Concert.

A. B. Maple, the union picket, who beat Arthur Guittar, an employe of the Pacific Ornamental Iron Works, No. 1942 South Main street, Monday evening until he was senseless, was arraigned before Police Judge Frederickson on a charge of battery yesterday morning. He pleaded not guilty, and was in not the least hurry about his trial. The case was set for 10 o'clock July 22, and the bully swaggered out of court, escorted by an admiring bunch of laborite loafers, the bail of $50 having been furnished at the time of his arrest.

Guittar, a free worker at the iron works, was knocked down as he left his place of employment in the evening without an opportunity to defend himself. The ruffians do not believe in giving their victims an equal chance to fight. After being knocked down, Guittar was hammered until he was unconscious, a confederate of Maple keeping off President A. J. Bayer of the iron works, who sought to save his man from further damage.

After this disgraceful exploit, Maple fled with his pal to the Labor Temple, where he related his feat to an admiring crowd of strikers. Mr. Bayer followed them, and the story-telling was cut short by the appearance of Patrolman Fisher and Mr. Bayer, whereupon the valorous Maple took to his heels. He was captured after trying to evade the officer by running through a rooming-house.

COAXES 'EM ALONG.

DOG OWNERS INVENT EXCUSES.

Violators of the dog-muzzling ordinance were jollied along nicely by Police Judge Frederickson yesterday morning, but they all paid fines in the end. F. W. Beaude of No. 1789 West Adams street had more reasons than anybody else why he should not be punished; also, he paid the biggest fine.

"You know the ordinance prohibits dogs wandering on the street unmuzzled; what have you to say for yourself?" asked the court.

"Well, Judge, that dog ain't mine to begin with," said the defendant, with much confidence.

"Not yours to begin with, eh? What is he to end with?"

"Well, another thing, the children take that dog out into the street to feed it, and they take its muzzle off." Beaude was assuming an easy conversational tone.

"Any other things?" drily asked His Honor.

Beaude thought a while, then brightened up. "Oh, yes, Judge," he exclaimed, "that dog has a sweetheart somewhere down the street and won't stay at home."

"Five dollars," said the court. "Call the next case."

F. B. Colby said his dog was only a six-months-old puppy. He had never heard of the ordinance, and did not think it should apply to such a small canine.

"Can that puppy fight?" suddenly asked the court.

For an instant the pride of the master in his dog almost overcame discretion, but Colby managed to choke down an exultant "You bet," and replace it with a deprecating, "Oh, no, such a little puppy."

"He has teeth, though, hasn't he?" insisted the court.

"Oh, sure, he has teeth," exclaimed Colby exultantly.

"Three dollars," saidt he judge, and passed on to the next case.

E. J. Barnes hesitated quite a while, and the only excuse he could think of was that his dog's neck is too large to hold a muzzle. He paid $3.

NO TOOTS FOR HIM.

COURT RULED OUT FISH HORN.

A fish horn solo was the evidence Patrolman Dobinson wanted to introduce in court yesterday, but Police Judge Frederickson promptly ruled it out, to the relief of the big crowd in court.

William Garbor was the defendant. He was arrested for violating the anti-noise ordinance while peddling fish. Garbor was indignant over his arrest, and inveighed bitterly against such fool laws that cripple the fish peddling business by plugging the indispensable fish horn.

"That noise was awful, Your Honor," said the arresting officer.

"It ain't much of a horn," retorted the fish peddler.

"Why, you could hear it a mile, Your Honor," went on the officer.

"You can't," growled the defendant, losing his patience.

"Cant' eh?" retorted the officer. "Say, Judge, if you say so I'll go down on his wagon right now and bring you that horn; it's a big horn, all right, and you can hear how much noise it makes."

Police Judge Frederickson has already gone on record in a complaint to the whole police force against street noises. The idea of having a fish horn follow him into court and be worked by the lusty lungs of a big policeman was too much for him.

"I guess we will not need any concert," he said, with just a bit of uneasiness, and he continued the case until 10 o'clock today, when Garbor will be sentenced.

Count Under Heavy Bail.

Count A. Von Dankberg, the Prussian army officer, who was arrested Saturday night near the Alexandria Hotel on a charge of defrauding Max Kliat of that hotel out of $10 with a fictitious check, was arraigned yesterday before Police Judge Frederickson. His preliminary examination was set for 3 o'clock this afternoon, and he was returned to his cell in the City Jail in default of $3000 bail.

Honesty Gets Small Fine.

Robert True lived up to his name when brought before Police Judge Frederickson yesterday morning on a charge of violating the ordinance requiring lights to be carried on vehicles at night. He did not hint at a defective wick, poor oil, or offer any of the standard excuses, but simply informed the court that he had "just forgotten all about it" and had nothing to say for himself. The originality of the plea was such a pleasant surprise to the court that True was let off with a $1 fine, one-third of that asked a half-dozen other offenders against the same ordinance.

"Blind Pigs" Say Guilty.

E. W. West, proprietor of the Sunset Athletic Club, No. 417 East Fifty-third street, and R. Jenke, arrested Monday night when the club was raided as a blind pig by the police, were arraigned before Police Judge Frederickson yesterday morning and pleaded guilty. They will be sentenced at 10 o'clock this morning. Enough liquor to stock a fair-sized saloon, confiscated by the police, was hauled to MOTHER AGAINST SON.

WOULD FORECLOSE MORTGAGE.

The trial of the case of H. S. West against Dr. C. F. Mears, before Judge Covert, of Kings county, who is sitting for Judge Monroe, was really a contest between mother and son, yesterday. The real plaintiff in interest is the mother of the physician, who assigned her claim to West for the purpose of bringing suit.

The action is for the purpose of foreclosing a mortgage on Mears's home at Compton, which the owner of the place declares he never knew was in existence.

The elder Mears, who had considerable wealth, came to Compton from the East several years ago. His family consisted of a wife, a son and a daughter. The children, who married, were each provided with a home.

Shortly after her husband's death, the widow presented the mortgage to her son and asked him to pay it. He declared yesterday that he was surprised when the instrument was shown him. He said that the only manner in which he though he could account for it was that he once signed a paper which he thought was an acknowledgment of an advancement of a part of his share of the estate. He admitted having paid interest on his home, but said that this was agreed because his father did not wish to have the income of his money cut off during his lifetime.

Other witnesses testified as to the father's statements in regard to the home of the son. They said they had spoken to the elder Mears as to his "close fistedness" with his children and he said he had given each of them a home.

There are number of more witnesses to be heard.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVETIES MISCELLANEOUS.

FILE BOND. The Los Angeles Gas & Electric Corporation yesterday filed a bond for $1200 to insure the city of Vernon against any loss which might be occasioned by the gas company laying pipes in the muncipal streets. Vernon attempted some time ago to procure an order restraining the corporation from putting in mains without having permits, but the order was made the company could proceed if it would file the bond.

SOLACE FOR SORE FOOT. Luis Cortez filed suit yesterday against the Santa Fé Railroad, by which he was employed when his left leg and foot were run over and severely injured. Cortez was working under a car at San Bernardino when it started and caught him under the trucks. He asks for $10,000 damages. He is married and has two children.

INCORPORATIONS. Articles of incorporation were filed by the National Drug Company, capital stock $8500, all subscribed; directors, M. E. Allis, L. G. Allis and J. E. Osborn, all of Sawtelle. The Western Film Company, capital stock $75,000, subscribed, $30; directors, Arthur S. Hyman, O. S. Wilson and S. W. Thompson. St. Peter's Altar & Benefit Co., no capital stock; there are fifteen directors, among whom are Alexander Bucci.

FEMININE CORPORATION. Five daughters of H. H. Visscher, deceased, yesterday filed articles of incorporation. They are Maria Visscher Wetherby, Gertrude Visscher Kayser, Henriette Visscher, Helen Visscher and Lyde Visscher Conrad. Mrs. Conrad resides in Santa Barbara and the other sisters live in Pasadena. The incorporators have taken the name of their father to designate the new concern. It is specified that the organization is not for profit, but merely to expedite the sale of the estate. The property consists of extensive holdings in Omaha, Neb., and in this city. The capital stock is fixed at $100,000 and is all subscribed.

GET DECREES. As the outcome of a legal tangle, Nellie B. Foreman was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from Harry S. Foreman by Judge Hutton yesterday. Mrs. Foreman filed an action against him sometime ago. She could not get service of the papers on him. One morning she saw a notice in the paper that he had started a divorce proceeding against her. Again her attorneys sought to find him, but could not. They dropped the first suit and filed a cross-complaint in the second action. Foreman did not show up to prosecute the action he had begun, and she was given a divorce on the cross-complaint, alleging failure to provide for a year. She was given $50 for attorney's fees, but assured the judge that she could not collect alimony if it should be allowed her. A decree was given Helen C. McCormick, the wife of D. E. McCormick, on the ground of desertion. She was allowed $25 a month as alimony. She was also given the custody of her two children, Mabel M. and Verne, 13 and 11 years old, respectively.

SPEEDY JUSTICE. Fifteen minutes after S. L. Tucker entered Judge Willis's courtroom yesterday, he was led away with the brand of a felon on him. He will enter San Quentin at the age of 58 years, and is sentenced to serve a quarter of a century as an example to all others who are tempted to commit the unnatural crime of which he is guilty. Tucker, who was a resident of Long Beach, committed a criminal assault upon his young daughter, who will become a mother in a few months. Two other daughters, who live in Kansas, have children of which he is the father. Probation Officer McLaughlin found the young girl by chance and caused the arrest of Tucker in Oregon. The prisoner confessed when he was shown that there was conclusive evidence against him. He pleaded guilty when taken in court yesterday.

BLOCKED HOSE WAGON.

A warrant was issued yesterday, at the request of Deputy City Prosecutor Reeve, for the arrest of Frank Hawkins, a scavenger. Hawkins, it is alleged, kept his rubbish wagon for three blocks in front of the hose wagon from Engine Company No. 3, which was on its way to a fire, Monday afternoon. The firemen say that he heard their bell and shouts, but continued stolidly on his way, blocking the street with Mrs. Arabella C. Thompson, of the late ex-Judge John S. T son, a prominent figure in the history of Los Angeles, died on day at Hermon, at the age of 84 and 7 months, after an illness o eral weeks.

Ex-Judge and Mrs. Thompson to California in 1869, with the railroad from the East, and, charmed with the country and cli purchased a 700-acre ranch a Habra, and also fifty-eight acr a home place in this city, where built a handsome place. The T son place included that land bo by Adams, Figueroa, Toberman Twenty-second streets, embr what is now St. James Park and of Chester house. What is Twenty-third street was the av lined with fragrant orange which led to the home, and the ent main building of the Marlbo School was the family residence, one of the show spots of the tow early days. Scarff and Thom streets were named for Thom whose middle name was Scarff.

The First Presbyterian Church, one of the large congregations of city, was organized by ex-Judge Mrs. Thompson, and she was the president of the Ladies' Aid So of that body, and an active wo in all charitable enterprises. She her husband spent much time in manner, and gave thousands of do to the needy. Mrs. Thompson Miss Chapman were the only sur ing charter members of the Presbyterian Church, of which Tho son was an elder for many years.

Mrs. Thompson came of long-l Scotch-Irish ancestry, her mo having died at the age of 97. STILL NOTHING DOING.

Supervisors, in Absence of Eldridge Divide Evenly on the New Furnishings.

Four members of the Board of Supervisors do not believe in even numbers. At least, they did not yesterday when they were deadlocked all day over the new furnishings for the Hall of Records.

Supervisor Eldridge was absent, and his colleagues had a not tiff. They were evenly divided, and when they got through they were just where they started.

Attorneys for the companies which desire the contract for the new furniture, were the cause of the trouble. One John D. Works let fall suggestions about the "solid three," and made a few choice suggestions which did not do any good for his client, especially with Supervisor McCabe.

Attorney Woodruff used a bit of satire which caused Works to copy McCabe's mood, when he suggested that he was not appearing for political reasons.

Capt. Manning voted to throw out all the bids and Pridham voted with him. Chairman Nellis and McCabe did not like this idea, and their answers to roll call showed how they felt. Eldridge will probably be present today with the deciding vote.

the land, and the only word received was the oral notice to them by Superintendent Hively that they were trespassers. They did not see fit to recognize this notice, and will go right ahead with the work. It is expected to spud in about the first of next week.

It is reported that the Standard has struck light oil in the Rabbit Valley, over the mountains, and the statement is borne out by the fact that a perforator has been hauled to the property within the past week. It is claimed by those who have been wildcatting there for some time past, that there is a light oil stratum through that country and running clear to Halfmoon Bay. The land is being operated upon by the Warthan Oil Company, a Coalinga corporation, which is now drilling east of the Fresno Hot Springs, and about ten miles on a direct line east of Coalinga. The members of this company and the stockholders are principally local people, and they believe that light oil will be encountered there.

The belief that this light oil stratum exists is said to be strengthened by the fact that some of the companies organized on the coast to prospect in San Benito and Monterey counties, have at various times drilled into small producing sands bearing an extremely light oil. In one hole on the Alvares ranch this fluid was encountered in a hole less than 200 feet in depth, and is said to have been brought up in a tin bucket.

The promoters of the Warthan believe that the others have gone too far over to get into the pay sands, and are sanguine on the ultimate success of their operations.

Cleveland Oil Company.

The Cleveland Oil Company's well on section 4, Midway field, has now reached a depth of 3200 feet, and the superintendent reports that the drill has passed through the heaving sand, and no more trouble is expected. On the Kern River property well No. 12 is down 700 feet and will be completed within ten days. As soon as it comes in work will be commenced on well No. 13. The Cleveland's refinery, leased to the Warren brothers of Boston, is running in fine shape and taking 20,000 barrels of the Cleveland oil per month.

BROKEN LINK.

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. THOMPSON, HERE FORTY YEARS.

Was One of Organizers of First Presbyterian Church and an Active Worker in Charitable Enterprises. Husband Once Owned All St. James Park and Most of Chester Place.

Mrs. Arabella C. Thompson, widow of the late ex-Judge John S. Thompson, a prominent figure in the early history of Los Angeles, died on Monday at Hermon, at the age of 84 years and 7 months, after an illness of several weeks.

Ex-Judge and Mrs. Thompson came to California in 1869, with the first railroad from the East, and, being charmed with the country and climate, purchased a 700-acre ranch at La Habra, and also fifty-eight acres for a home place in this city, where they built a handsome place. The Thompson place included that land bounded by Adams, Figueroa, Toberman and Twenty-second streets, embracing what is now St. James Park and most of Chester house. What is now Twenty-third street was the avenue, lined with fragrant orange trees, which led to the home, and the present main building of the Marlborough School was the family residence, and one of the show spots of the town in early days. Scarff and Thompson streets were named for Thompson, whose middle name was Scarff.

The First Presbyterian Church, now one of the large congregations of the city, was organized by ex-Judge and Mrs. Thompson, and she was the first president of the Ladies' Aid Society of that body, and an active worker in all charitable enterprises. She and her husband spent much time in that manner, and gave thousands of dollars to the needy. Mrs. Thompson and Miss Chapman were the only surviving charter members of the First Presbyterian Church, of which Thompson was an elder for many years.

Mrs. Thompson came of long-lived Scotch-Irish ancestry, her mother having died at the age of 97. Mrs. Thompson was an invalid during the last years of her life, and spent her days in retirement, but was bright and cheerful to the last. Her husband was long a circuit judge in Illinois, for four terms. He was a personal friend of Abraham Lincoln. In fact, when Thompson was on the bench, Lincoln, then a young lawyer, practiced and argued cases in his court. He was often at guest at the Thompson home in Aledo, and later Thompson was a frequent guest of President Lincoln at Washington.

Fifty years ago Thompson bought the land where the town of Aledo, Ill., now stands, laid it out, and in one day sold it for $200,000, quickly making what was then considered a fortune. He built the American Central Railroad, between Fort Wayne and Council Bluffs, and later, owing to the death of two brothers interested in the enterprise, sold it to the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy. He died suddenly in Philadelphia, eight years ago, while on a business trip. Mrs. Thompson leaves a daughter, Mrs. Charles J. Ellis; a son, Mose J. Thompson, and three granddaughters, Misses Bessie and Katherine Ellis and Mrs. John L. Von Blon.

The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, in the parlors of Booth & Boylson, No. 1147 South Flower street.

cost of the defense ought not to be great nor the legal work dismaying.

President Lusk, intending to put out this flame, said he favored not only appropriating abundant money, but supplying additional counsel, if needed; but some members construed his words as added reflection on the City Attorney. Lusk subsequently said this was not his intention.

STAND-PAT VOTE.

While the vote was taken, in which all but Washburn and Stewart voted against reconsideration by voting for a straight appropriation, Lissner came hurriedly into the room and took a seat in the gallery.

Betkouski renewed his request for a demand on the Board of Public Utilities to aid the defense.

"This board is sitting around and shrugging its shoulders, and it ought to be brought into line," said he.

Lissner rose from his seat and hurried through the gateway.

"Mr. President," said he, smiling, "everything that the Board of Public Utilities has or can do is at the service of the Council," and he paused, "If it will do you any good."

Betkouski laughed and withdrew his motion and the Council hurriedly adjourned.

But Hewitt demanded an explanation of Betkouski, and the latter said he hadn't meant any reflection on the City Attorney, except that he thought Hewitt too fearful of the result.

"I have said this is going to be a hard case to defend," said Hewitt, "and I do not withdraw that. Any rate case is hard to defend, but this one would dismay any lawyer."

So the City Attorney, provided with $15,000 of the taxpayers' money, is to proceed with the defense of an indefensible suit at law, because the "solid six" knows more than telephone experts can prove. The result in all probability will be the destruction of the new rates and the restoration of the old ones.

TRUNK LINE.

AND IT HASN'T ARRIVED YET.

THOUGH OWNERS AWAITED IT ACROSS COUNTRY.

Peculiar Incident of Travel Befalls Los Angeles Couple, Marring Pleasure of Long Trip—Some Things the Perplexed Husband Isn't Talking About Just Now.

With the return from New York yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. Catesby Thom, a few of their close friends learned of their exciting chase of a trunk from one end of the continent to the other, and the hurry and worry in which it involved the two travelers.

It all started in a matter-of-fact way. Mrs. Thom, with friends, left Los Angeles for a trip by auto through Yosemite Valley. Thom stayed at home looking after business.

One bright afternoon a telegram from San Francisco notified him of a better business opportunity. Packing the toothbrush, a clean shirt and two pairs of socks into one suitcase, Thom was off on the Lark train.

He expected to meet and surprise his wife there when she arrived from Yosemite. Two days previous to the time she was expected Thom received a wire from New York.

The high-up officials of a large corporation wanted to talk with him. Needless to say Thom was not averse to talking with the high-up officials. The issue, however, resolved itself around the finding of his wife. He was sure that he would not have time to return to Los Angeles to pack a trunk. He wired his sister to pack the trunk and forward it at once.

At the same time he sent telegrams into Yosemite Valley and to all of the small towns along the route which Mrs. Thom and her friends might travel—all of the towns except those on the route which the automobilists really took. After three days his wife did appear.

Could she go along? "Why, no, Catesby, I haven't a thing to wear except some soiled clothes in my suitcase."

"Don't allow that to worry you, for our trunk is on its way. Expect it this morning," assured her better half.

And Mrs. Thom agreed to leave on the next train for the East. Thom signed his tickets and then waited for the trunk. It did not come. Nor did word from it. At the last minute he secured the services of a railroad official who promised to have it forwarded at once to New York.

What happened when the Thoms arrived in the metropolis and did not find their trunk will never be told. Thom regards it as one of the sacred secrets of his young life.

He smiles weakly when relating the details of how his laundry was laundered while he waited, and how his suit was pressed while he read New York papers in absolute solitude.

As soon as his clothes were all properly groomed he visited the officials of the corporation—the National Surety Company—and was after several conferences made assistant Pacific Coast manager. While he conferred, his wife made frantic efforts to have the railroad officials find the trunk long delayed.

A pleasure trip was turned into one of expectant waiting, and final chagrin, when Thom decided it would be best to hurry back to Los Angeles, where he had shirts with pleats and shirts with stiff bosoms and negligee shirts—where he could change his apparel every half hour of the day, and thus assure his sartorial supremacy among the bonders of the city.

While waiting for the gates to open for the train which would carry the Thoms home, a bellhop from the hotel at which they had been staying announced to them between gasps that their trunk had arrived.

It was too late. They had engaged berths for that train, and anyway, the trip had lost its roseate hue as far as real pleasure was concerned. They gave the bellhop instructions to have the trunk shipped back to Los Angeles at once. It has not arrived.

In his offices yesterday Thom refused to talk regarding his experiences with the trunk. He referred reporters to his assistant, Mr. Curran, who evidently had been paid in advance for silence.

Production for June.

While the official figures have not yet been prepared, it is apparent from conditions that the June production of oil was equal to that of the month of May. The figures will be close to 7,000,000 barrels.

Incidentally, isn't it just about time for somebody to start another referendum?

The Ohio picnic at Sycamore Grove bids fair to be a great assemblage of Presidential possibilities.

Col. Roosevelt has indeed taken an unusually extended vacation; but his four days are now up and he's again up and at 'em.

One Los Angeles saloon-keeper is laying in a stock of signs reading: "This place will be open tomorrow if there is no election."

Have you noticed, Mr. and Mrs. Tourist, that the silly old saw, "Is this hot enough for you?" doesn't jangle on your nerves as it used to?

If Jim Jeffries ever "comes back" again we'll know what he's back for. Mme. Patti years ago demonstrated that there is good money in these "farewell" appearances.

How shall we spend that vacation? There are the mountains, the sea, fishing, hunting, bathing, boating, tramping, sightseeing, loafing—blame it all, and we've only got two weeks.

It isn't often that one of the Rockefeller family gets "busted," but the Associated Press has it that the oil king's famous immobile features have just been sculped in cold, hard marble.

Earl M. V. Long, the Harvard strong man who lives on $1 a week, believes he is appointed of fate to whip the black champ. It may be so. Earl's training expenses will be light, anyhow.

Thirty-two German university students and three professors will arrive in Los Angeles August 25 to study conditions here. For heaven's sake let's get this brewery trouble hushed up between now and then.

If the fortunes of the gentleman to whom the athletic Miss Sears is to be wedded ever wane to the danger point, he can take comfort in the knowledge that his wife is physically capable of taking in washing.

Isn't there something both humorous and tragical in the idea that the United States should participate in this Manchurian controversy? What actual weight has our "put in" when our whole navy is in Atlantic waters?

It may be true that cows will give more milk if subjected to the melting strains of classical music, but we rise to question the advisability of installing the phonograph in our barns. You've heard of the "tune the old cow died on."

There are applicants for a situation as picket to a certain Broadway saloon in easy sight of our office window. The fellow now "on the job" pulls down $2.50 per day for leaning disconsolately against a telephone post, rolling cigarettes.

The Gaekwar of Baroda, pinched for speeding, is promptly released by a magistrate who is overawed by the royal magnificence. Dangerous precedent, that, in our opinion, for we understand that the Akund of Swat is now on his way over.

A college professor takes occasion during the summer lull in academic aphorisms to defend laughing, crying and getting angry upon the part of the masses. Good for you, professor! You're the first of your kind who ever championed anything we do.

The American Mining Congress has extended a hearty invitation to Col. Roosevelt to meet with it at the Los Angeles convention. The whole city is back of this, Col. Roosevelt, for we want you to see how we've grown while you were over seas bagging bongoes.

The "Solid South" invites Col. Roosevelt to be the guest of its leading cities this fall. This same Solid South is growing daily more loyal to Roosevelt's distinguished successor. All the South or any other section asks of the Executive is that he make good.

E. Toopious Earl's recall detective, Paul Blair, seems to be the only out-and-out friend the discredited Capt. Dixon has left. Even the ingenious explanation of the "grand bounce" in yesterday evening's issue of Earl's cabinet organ lacked heartiness.

Mrs. Helen Kelly-Gould-Thomas holds it to be unthinkable that Frank Jay Gould should have his own children, and the latter in turn pretends to view with horror the idea that their mother should have them. Isn't it pitiful that children should be born to such parents?

"The spanking of children is reinforcing," says Dr. G. Stanley Hall of Clark University. We don't exactly grasp your meaning, Doctor, but in our opinion it is the modern trousers seat will need reinforcing if the spankings we used to enjoy in the good old days are again to come into vogue.

Attorney Rush pointedly asks if it is right that a merchant should be prohibited from exploiting and selling his goods on the street if at the same time the police are permitting pickets to parade the sidewalks denouncing that same merchant's goods. Is it right, indeed, Mr. Councilman?

POLITICS IN OHIO.

The political fight in the Buckeye State next November will be one of the hottest and in many ways one of the most interesting in all the Union. Gov. Harmon will be sure to head the Democratic ticket as the candidate for Governor, and whoever is put forward by the Republicans will have work cut out for him to defeat this powerful Cleveland Democrat. The fight will be as hot over candidates for Congress as on Governor, and every place on the ticket will be vigorously disputed.

These reflections are raised by the breaking of James R. Garfield into Ohio politics at the opening of the present week. Mr. Garfield's speech at Cleveland on Monday was not calculated to allay factional feeling in the Republican party, but to incite and intensify it. If his temper is developed by most of the Republican campaigners, and the policy of the leaders in Ohio be to waste their time, ammunition and strength in fighting Republicans who disagree in any respect from the individual campaigner or speaker, there is no doubt of what the result will be when the election is held.

The Democratic Governor of the State of Ohio is one of the old Cleveland type, and the fact that Bryanism in Ohio seems to be as dead as the fabled off ox of farmer Adam or the ghost of Julius Caesar indicates that the members of that party are getting together in a way that means much.

The importance of Ohio in the Presidential election two years hence will make the fight all the more bitter between the two parties. The result of the November elections will mean a good deal looking two years ahead. Gov. Harmon is often mentioned as a possible candidate for the Presidency on the Democratic ticket. His name at the head of that ticket might tend to call back to that party a great many voters who have cast their lot with the Republicans for the last fourteen years. If there should be a violent split in the Republican party, that would aggravate the situation and drive more of the old-line Clevelsnd Democrats to the support of the candidate of their old-time party.

If the Republican party perchance loses Ohio, the Garfield type of Republican will lay the blame upon President Taft individually and upon the "regular" Republicans in general. They will insist that it marks the general temper of the American people at the present time and that that temperament is very strongly of the "insurgent," "progressive," "reform" type of Republicanism. What we want to put on record now is that such a sad event would mean nothing of the kind, but the very opposite. The Cleveland type of Democrat is no more inclined to Pinchotism, Garfieldism, Republican "insurgency" or "advanced progress" than it ever was to Bryanism. It abandoned the Democratic party because of the populism, tainted with socialism, represented by the Bryan ideas. And if there is a great defection among voters who have supported the Republican party for the last fourteen years, these going back to support Harmon for the Governorship this year, it will be because of some conservative, sane and wholesome views held by the Democratic candidate for Governor and the semi-insane, thoroughly unwholesome views for which James Rudolph Garfield stands.

There is just one way to save the State of Ohio to the Republican party, and that is to get right back to the principles declared by the party at Chicago two years ago, the Roosevelt principles, the Taft principles, and to get as far away from the La Follette and Cummins style of Republicanism as it is possible to go.

It is tommy-rot to assert that these Lillisized Republicans represent the Republican party. Cummins's crowd from Iowa was represented in the Republican convention at Chicago in June, 1908. The La Follette type was very much in evidence in that convention, and the principal mouthpiece thereof, a former football kicker from the State University, was hissed and hooted, told to go to Denver and nominate Bryan for President instead of coming to Chicago to nominate La Follette. That "insurgent" wing of the party was beaten at every point. They were beaten in the plank of the platform dealing with the tariff, the plank dealing with the courts, and so on down the line. Railroads, banks and every notion that they sought to drag in were thrown out. They are claiming now to have had much to do in the last session of Congress with framing legislation. They represented nothing Republican in Congress any more than they did in the convention. They were beaten on the tariff, as the loud noise they made proves. They say they had a great influence in the recent railroad legislation. Mr. Mann of Illinois says they had nothing to do with it, and proves it by a comparison of the bill as it was passed with that first introduced. The changes were immaterial and slight.

The sane, wholesome-minded Republicans are willing to let bygones be bygones. We are facing the enemy in a life-and-death struggle and we want to win, first for the sake of the immediate victory and second for the sake of the effect this fall election will have on the Presidential campaign two years from now. If Mr. Garfield and his kind will only take the Republican platform of 1908, get on to it, stay on it, advocate it and fight for it, the "regulars" will be glad to do the same, stop all jarring collisions, present a united front to the common enemy, and win.

Will they do it? Not unless the Pinchotites and the Garfieldites are muzzled, we fear.

THE FALL OF DIXON.

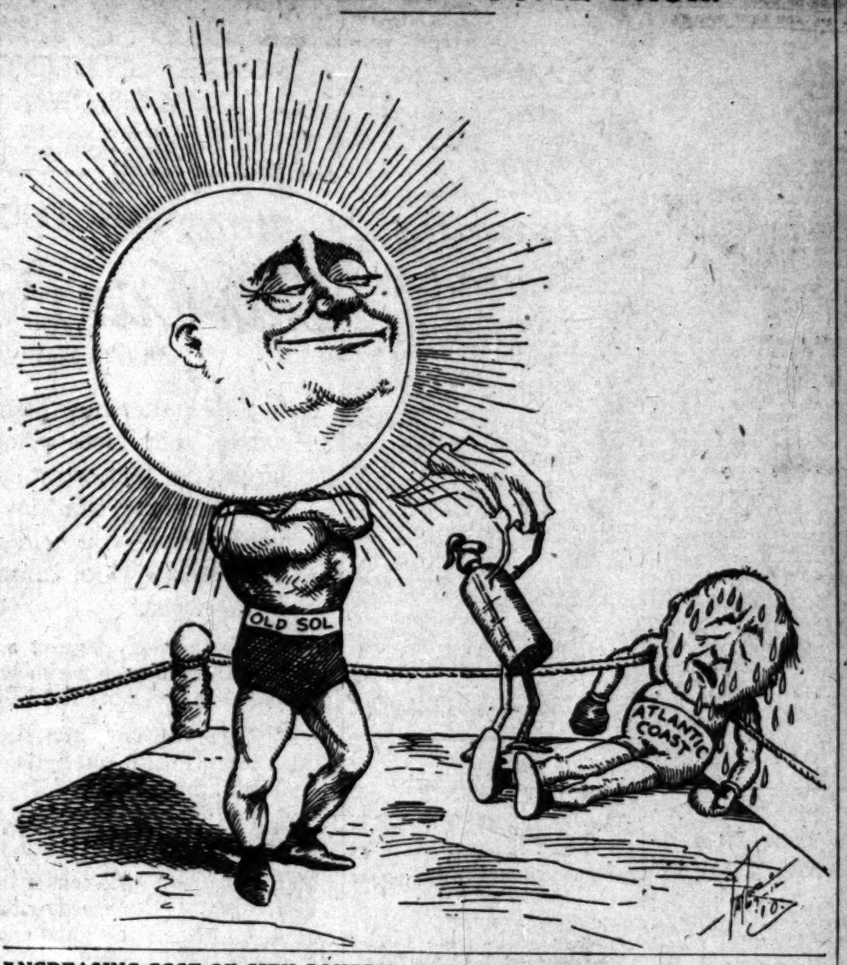
There could be no better illustration of the insincerity of Goo-Goo politics than the disgrace of Capt. Dixon of the police department. He was the Goo-Goos' own; he was their pet; he was the one man in the department to whom they pointed with pride; he was the officer in the white robe who was to "purify" this wicked city of ours and make it good enough for even Goo-Goos to live in. But, lo and behold! The first scandal of officialdom since the Goo-Goos gained complete control of the city breaks around their own best man, and after weeks of doubling and twisting they are forced to get rid of him.

It would be extremely interesting if Dixon should now make good his threat to tell what he knows about the evil practices of the Goo-Goo bosses. We imagine that he will be reluctant to talk for fear of compromising himself; but it will be better for him, on the whole, if he unbosoms himself. Out with it, Captain! Take the people into your confidence. Tell them whether it is true that police spies were kept dogging private citizens who happened to be enemies of certain Goo-Goo magnates. Tell them whether it is a fact that instructions were given to members of the force to spare lawbreakers belonging to certain political organizations and to arrest non-members. Tell us all why gambling was permitted to go on uninterrupted in the Lissner building and the Central building.

Huh! Probably these are the things upon which the ex-captain will not throw any light. He may babble more or less inconsequential spleen about the laughable inefficiency of Chief Galloway and the pestiferous politics at police headquarters; but about these vicious interferences with justice in behalf of millionaire manipulators and local imitators of Dick Croker, about the employment of the public's detectives to pay off dirty personal grudges and to further the selfish ambitions of political tricksters—no, we do not believe that anything but a noiseless Fourth will explode from Dixon on these burning subjects.

To the memory of that brave English pilot of the air, Charles Stewart Rolls, goes out our heartfelt respect. Capt. Rolls was a gallant sportsman and probably as successful in demonstrating the Wright machine as the Wrights themselves. His death is a distinct loss to the science of aviation.

ALWAYS ABLE TO "COME BACK."



INCREASING COST OF CITY GOVERNMENT.

Most cities in the United States are engaged just now on the municipal tax rolls. The assessors have done their worst, the various departments have sent in their estimates, and now the rate on the $100 is being made out.

New York is the queen city of the American continent, in many respects the worst governed, and we believe about the worst taxed of any.

Taking the five boroughs, Manhattan, The Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens and Richmond, and comparing the Assessor's work last year with this year, we find increases in the assessments running from a little less than $1,000,000 in Richmond to nearly $130,000,000 in Manhattan.

The total for the five boroughs a year ago amounted to $6,807,179,704, increased this year to $7,044,192,674. The total increase for the whole of Greater New York is the snug little sum of $237,-012,970.

This subdivides like this: Real estate, $6,257,-352,379 for last year and $6,491,335,999 for this year, making a total increase of $233,983,620 on real property. Franchises a year ago were assessed at $474,001,900 and this year at $465,409,600, showing a decrease for this year over last of $8,592,300. It is really refreshing to find anything less instead of more in the taxation of overburdened Gotham.

Personal assessments for the two years, taking the whole five boroughs, show for 1909 a sum of $443,320,856, reduced materially this year to $372,-644,825.

With the big net increase above, running close to a quarter of a billion dollars, the taxpayer in Greater New York might well be justified in looking for a little lower rate than on the previous assessment. Last year the rate per $100 was $1.67. When the expectant taxpayer read the figures he probably became very wide awake, learning that there would be a rise of ten points in the rate in spite of the enormous increase in the assessment. He will pay this year $1.77 on each $100.

If one had the figures for a series of years past and carried his researches back a quarter of a century he would find the increase of assessment and taxation in the city of New York appalling.

OUR MARVELOUS CROPS.

No investment in the world equals in profit that of American agriculture. In only eleven years the result has been $70,000,000,000 as the value of the crops, beginning with $4,417,000,000 in 1899 and ending with $8,760,000,000 in 1909.

As the Secretary of Agriculture says: "It has paid off mortgages, it has made better homes, it has helped to make the farmer a better citizen of the world, it has provided him with means for improving his soil and making it more productive."

In Kansas alone it has enabled the farmers to invest over $4,000,000 in automobiles. Crossing that State a few days ago, the writer saw autos on every road and at every station. Auto after auto ran races with the Santa Fé California Limited. The well-dressed appearance of their occupants was noticeable. Owning an auto compels one to live up to it.

Cotton	850,000,000
Hay	665,000,000
Oats	400,000,000
Tobacco	100,000,000
Sugar, both kinds, and molasses	95,000,000
Barley	88,000,000
Flaxseed	36,000,000
Rice	25,000,000
Rye	23,000,000
Hops	8,000,000

The corn crop was raised in 120 days, and its value was equal to $14,000,000 a day, nearly enough to pay for the daily building of two of the most powerful battleships afloat. The value of this crop is the most striking fact in the world's agriculture.

Nineteen hundred and nine was the year of highest production for tobacco, potatoes, beet sugar, all sugar, and rice; a year of next to the highest production for corn, oats and all cereals; the crop third in size for wheat.

For value, says the Secretary's report, the year's amount has not been equaled in the case of corn, cotton, wheat, oats, all cereals, potatoes, beet sugar, all sugar, flaxseed and rice; the year was next to the highest for hay, cane sugar and hops, and the barley crop was third in value.

The farm value of all cereals in 1909 was almost exactly $3,000,000,000, a value never before equaled, and 34 per cent. above the average value of the preceding five years.

Increased values in 1909 over 1908 were, chiefly:

Wheat	107,000,000
Oats	22,000,000
Total increased value in 1909	869,000,000

This increase alone is sufficient to buy a new equipment of machinery for over 6,000,000 farms.

The cereal crops alone, $3,000,000,000, would pay for all the tools, machinery and implements of the entire manufacturing industry in this country.

Animal products during the year were worth over $3,000,000,000.

Agricultural products exported in 1909 were not so large in value as in 1908, but reached $903,000,000; while the imports were never so high in value as in 1909, the amount being $637,000,000. The import gains were principally:

Packing-house products, mostly hides	$25,600,000
Wool	21,500,000
Sugar	16,500,000
Silk	15,000,000
Coffee	11,400,000

Our foreign trade in agricultural products yielded a balance of trade in our favor of $256,000,000. In products other than agricultural the favorable balance was $46,000,000.

Imports of forest products, $124,000,000, were never before so large in value. India rubber gained $25,000,000 compared with 1908. The balance of trade in forest products was against us by $47,000,000.

In closing this section of his report Secretary Wilson aptly says: "The agricultural production of 1909 must add much to the prosperity of our farmers. The record is unexampled in wealth produced and tells of abundance in quantity. Year by year the farmer is better prepared to provide the capital needed to improve his agriculture and to educate his children for farm life and work."

Figures of the wealth production on farms, as given in the just-published Statistical Abstract of the United States (Bureau of Statistics) graphically prove the correctness of the Secretary's statement:

Year.	Farm wealth produced.
1900	5,017,000,000
1903	5,917,000,000
1906	6,755,000,000
1907	7,488,000,000
1908	7,848,000,000
1909	8,760,000,000

The farm wealth produced in 1909 represented over $29,000,000 a day for each of the 300 working days of the year.

COWARD COMMONS.

The British House of Commons gave an exhibition of cowardice last night when it passed the Woman's Suffrage Bill. It is well known that the majority of its members are really against extending the franchise to the fair sex; but the women have badgered these legislators so much that they let the bill through in the hope that the Lords will throw it out.

It will be a monumental joke, one of those heavy English jokes of the "Punch" kind, if the Lords decide to let the bill become an act. Why should the hereditary chamber, which is so bitterly denounced for refusing some of the legislation of the lower house, do what the elected members are afraid to do themselves?

We all know very well that Premier Asquith is not in favor of granting the demands of the suffragettes. He has shown his hand too openly on several notable occasions. Probably he viewed with a great deal of disgust the spectacle of his followers trooping into the division lobby to have their noses counted in favor of votes for the Mrs. Pankhurst tribe.

Having been successful in scaring the commoners into yielding, the fierce feminine fighters will now, no doubt, turn their attention tto the strawberry-coroneted brigade, who so recently have been the center of the desperate conflict over the budget. No one on this side of the Atlantic can blame the nobles if they decline to carry out the real wishes of the commoners and reject the measure.

Attractive.

"I want a bathing suit that will make everybody look at me," says the beauteous creature with the dashing air.

"Certainly, miss," replies the modiste. "Wear a long skirt, rubber overshoes, a sunbonnet and blue goggles, and I'll guarantee you will attract more attention than any one on the beach."—[Chicago Post.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

PASADENA.

RESOLUTIONS ARE DRASTIC.

Homeopaths Condemn Rulings of Dr. Wiley.

Outspoken New Yorker Tells Price of Ignorance.

Another Move Toward Better Water Facilities.

Offices of The Times, No. 24 S. Raymond Ave.

PASADENA, July 13.—The sixty-sixth annual convention of the American Institute of Homeopathy yesterday unanimously adopted drastic resolutions condemning that part of the national pure food law which prevents the use of benzoate of soda and other condiments for the purpose of preserving canned fruits and vegetables and for the purpose of bleaching and curing dried fruits and vegetables. A telegram was sent to President Taft and Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, signed by the president and secretary, notifying them of the action of the institute, which represents 12,000 members, and congratulating the administration for its firm stand against the findings of Dr. A. H. Wiley which have proven derogatory to the welfare of the canning and agricultural industries of the country.

"This action on the part of the institute, which is entirely unanimous, is of very great importance," said Dr. J. Ward, president, yesterday afternoon. "The rulings of Dr. Wiley have been fought by California because they have struck at the vital interests of agriculture and horticulture. It is befitting and eminently indicative of the interests of the country that these eminent scientists and cultured men of the East should come out here on California soil and uphold our people in their stand against Wiley's rulings. President Taft and his administration have fought these rulings and our action today shows the feeling of the people of the country, through our members, who are certainly representative, in indorsing President Taft in his stand in the interests of our agriculture and horticulture. Dr. Wiley acted against the use of sulphur in drying dried prunes, peaches, apricots and other dried fruits; against the use of anything for the ripening or drying of lemons and oranges; against the use of preservatives to keep canned fruits, catsups and other goods sweet and pure. It simply means we stand as a man against a ruling which would entail a loss of millions of dollars to California."

Word was received from Washington last night that despite the action of the institute Dr. Wiley has stronger opinions than before upon the subject.

Dr. Wiley's views did not prevail in the Department of Agriculture, as the board appointed by Secretary Wilson to consider questions arising under the pure food law sanctioned the use of benzoate of soda as a food preservative.

"The developments in the last year," said Dr. Wiley, "have accentuated my opinions as to the harmful character of benzoate of soda as a food preservative. I expect to see that view sustained by the Federal courts, as evidence submitted recently in Indiana discusses points that way."

Other important resolutions adopted by the business session of the convention yesterday morning were that a board secretary will be employed at this convention, whose duty will be to travel throughout the United States and Canada in the interests of homeopathy, visiting physicians and inducing them to join the institute and doing other work in the interest of the profession. A committee was appointed to select a man and report this morning's meeting. It is understood that Dr. H. Arndt of San Francisco will get the

A resolution was adopted providing that all applicants to the various homeopathic colleges must have a high school education; that all active members in the institute must be citizens of the United States or Canada; that the Committee on Resolutions shall in the future be a standing one; that the trustees shall in future select the meeting places of the annual conventions. The committee appointed for the purpose of selecting the next meeting place will report this morning that the next convention will be held at Narragansett Pier, R. I., June 25, 1911.

The balloting for officers for the next year took place yesterday afternoon under the Australian system. The candidates are: President, Thomas H. Carmichael of Philadelphia and Gaius J. Jones of Cleveland; vice-president, Walter E. Nichols, Pasadena; E. H. Pilcott of Rochester, N. Y.; second vice-president, B. E. Miller, Chicago; Margaret H. Schantz, Philadelphia; A. W. Smith of Freeport, Ill.; trustees, J. Kinsley, E. I. Mann, J. E. Sutherland, James W. Ward.

The electioneering for the office of president was fast and furious and it was announced late last night that Dr. Carmichael of Philadelphia had the lead, although many of the Jones men were willing to bet money on their favorite.

The Obstetrical Society held a meeting in the music-room yesterday afternoon. Interesting papers were read by Dr. J. S. Hunt, on "Management of Normal Labor;" Dr. G. A. Montgon, on "Some Essential Points in the Care of Cases of Pregnancy;" Dr. G. W. Roberts, on "Suggestions In Its Relation to the Pelvic Operations;" Dr. Sarah M. Hobson, on "Middle Age Primipara." Dr. Hobson, who is a professor in the Hahneman Medical College at Chicago, made a strong plea for the holding of a high standard on tuberculin tested cows, clean dairies with modern equipment, quick cooling, bottling at the dairy, maintenance of low temperature during rapid transportation to the consumer.

Dr. H. M. Bishop

Of Los Angeles, member of local Committee of Arrangements, in convention of the Institute of Homeopathy, at Pasadena.

Last night the Surgical and Gynecological Association held a meeting, at which many interesting papers were read. Among others were "Cysts of the Broad Ligament," by Dr. G. S. Coon of Louisville; "A Membranous Dysmenorrhpea Case," by Dr. E. S. Bailey of Chicago; "A Reversed Baptism," by C. E. Walton; "The Significance of Limited Mobility in Joints," by Dr. H. P. Cole of New York; "Remarks Upon Some Important Factors Necessary to Successful Surgery."

The members of the Meissen Society, wives and daughters of the physicians, were given an automobile ride through the orange groves yesterday afternoon.

Last night an impromptu vaudeville show was held at the Maryland for the entertainment of the ladies and doctors who did not attend the illustrated lecture at Blanchard Hall, Los Angeles.

All day yesterday and last night the various bureaus and societies connected with the convention held sessions and many important papers were read.

The Bureau of Sanitary Science held two meetings in the main hall. The principal subject for discussion was tuberculosis. Dr. Pottinger of Monrovia read a paper on "Early Stages of Tuberculosis," and illustrated his address with two subjects from his sanatorium. Dr. E. L. Wagonner of Los Angeles read a paper on "The Conquest of Tuberculosis," stating in his remarks: "An early diagnosis is the most important step in the conquest, and the treatment used must be such as to aid nature in her own place of resistance. The best remedy we have today is to assist nature to resist the disease."

Another interesting paper was read by Dr. G. F. Martin of Lowell, Mass., on "The Tenement House in Its Relation to Tuberculosis."

The Neurological Society held a session yesterday afternoon. Scientific papers were read by Dr. H. R. Arndt of San Francisco on "Effect of the Great Earthquake of San Francisco on the Nervous Stability;" Dr. G. H. Martin of San Francisco, "The Treatment of Nervous and Mental Diseases;" Dr. J. R. Horner of Cleveland on "Dementia Praecox." The latter remarked:

"A certain percentage of children, when they reach the age of 15, stop in their mental development. Before that they have stood high in their classes and were considered very bright. They not only seem to be unable to advance, but retrograde. They seem to be endowed with just enough vitality and mentality, and when that is gone they stop and go back. The ultimate result is that most of them become insane. Many are the children of wealthy and cultured parents. Usually they are the children of parents who are weak or have insanity in the family. Great care should be of healthy and cultured parents. Overstudy, religious excitement, tobacco, liquor and all such things should be kept from them."

The most interesting meeting of the convention, so far as the general public is concerned, was held at Blanchard Hall, Los Angeles, last night, under the general subject of "Public Health."

Dr. S. D. Brooks of the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Board read an interesting paper on the work being done by that board in different parts of the United States, Cuba and the Philippines. He devoted some time to the discussion of eradicating the bubonic plague on the Pacific Coast and the extermination of rats and squirrels. He also detailed the work now being done in studying tuberculosis and typhoid, also the experiments being made with rabies. He said that during the past six months sixty persons have been treated in Los Angeles with Pasteur serum.

Dr. W. C. Hassler, chief sanitary inspector of San Francisco, delivered an interesting stereopticon lecture showing the work being done by the Board of Health of his city. He displayed many pictures of scenes which occurred soon after the earthquake, all of which were interesting to the eastern visitors.

Dr. W. F. Snow of the California State Board of Health at Sacramento had for his subject "Education in Public Health." He severely criticised the schools of the country, and particularly the colleges and universities, for their lack of teaching students how to live correctly. He said even the medical colleges are derelict in their duty to their students in not providing a course of instruction and example in hygiene.

The last speaker was Dr. Hillis Cole, director of the Division of Publicity and Education, New York State Department of Health, on the subject "The Price of Ignorance." "Largely because they do not know, the people of this country are the victims of disease from the cradle to the grave, and the monetary loss in doctor's bills, lost wages and premature death is incalculably great," said he. "Because mothers do not know how to feed their babies the death rate under 2 years of age is enormous. The man who causes his neighbor's death by polluting his drinking water is a murderer. Because the hygiene of married life is a tabooed subject the foundation for a suit of divorce or a life of unhappiness are laid in many a bridal chamber."

An interesting programme of business and entertainment has been prepared by the local reception committee for today. At the morning business session the Committee on Resolutions will bring in a report and among other things will recommend the appointment of a committee with power to act who will prepare a bill to be presented to the next United States Congress for the establishment of a national health bureau. The committee will act either alone or in conjunction with a like committee from the American Medical Society and other organizations.

In the afternoon all the visitors will be taken to Mt. Lowe. In the evening the homeopathy, surgical and clinical societies will hold meeting at the Maryland. At 8 o'clock tonight the Meissen Society will be entertained with a musicale in the music-room of the Maryland.

WATER FACILITIES.

As outlined in The Times a short while ago, a communication was presented to the City Council yesterday morning, suggesting that some concerted move be made at once to give Pasadena better water facilities. The communication was signed by George F. Kerneghan and William Magee.

After considerable discussion Mayor Earley heartily indorsed the sentiment. It was suggested that the matter be referred to the Board of Trade, or some other civic association, for the purpose of calling a public meeting and getting a movement started among the people. The Council voted to indorse the sentiment and spirit, but not the petition, leaving that for the people.

The purport of the petition is that some move be made toward consolidating the present water companies to the end that a thorough investigation may be made into the water supply and that, if possible, the city acquire the properties of the companies as a municipal plant and then negotiate for a portion of the Owens River water.

It is likely that the matter will be brought before the Board of Trade at an early date.

MERCHANTS PICNIC.

The Merchants' Association has appointed H. H. Webb, J. R. Jacobs and F. C. Nash as a committee to act with a like committee from the Board of Trade to make arrangements for the annual joint picnic.

A committee of enthusiastic citizens from North Pasadena met the Board of Education last night for the purpose of urging it to consider other sites for the new high school other than the four outlined in the call for the bond election. The committee want one or two sites in North Pasadena considered.

At the regular meeting of the City Council yesterday morning an ordinance was unanimously adopted forbidding the exhibition within the limits of Pasadena of any moving or motion pictures of any prize or ring fights or sparring matches.

The members of the Board of Trade Bridge Committee and City Council will visit the site of the proposed Arroyo Seco bridge tomorrow for the purpose of again going thoroughly over the various plans which have been submitted. Particular attention will be given to the proposed low bridge which would be forty-five feet above the bed of the arroyo.

MAY RESUME.

WISH TO REVIVE CHAUTAUQUA.

LONG BEACH SOCIETY TAKES TIME TO CONSIDER.

School Board Decides on Nature of Buildings for Polytechnic—Virginia Country Club Establishes an Automobile Service—Woman Fires at Intruder.

LONG BEACH, July 12.—The Chautauqua which flourished for years while the city was a small summer resort, and was abandoned two years ago, may be revived next year, if the balance of the directors feel as do the quorum which met this morning in annual session. Renewed interest in the assembly is shown by constant inquiries as to the intention of the association Mrs. Emma Greenleaf, Prof. J. J Morgan and F. E. Young were re-elected directors. Future plans were discussed and final action deferred until September 5.

A main building, including classrooms and auditorium, will be the center of the group of structures for the Polytechnic school. On the north will be a building devoted to the shops, and on the south the Science building. The main building will contain an auditorium and stage, and have a seating capacity of 1200. It will cost $100,000, while the other two will cost $50,000. This was decided upon last night at a conference with the School Board and Architect Sturges. The style of the building will be classic.

The Virginia Country Club has installed a regular automobile service between the clubhouse and Zaferia Junction. The Saturday and Sunday crowds at the grounds are always large.

FIRES AT INTRUDER.

Hearing noises on her back porch last night, Mrs. C. C. Clayton investigated and finding a man prowling about the house, opened the door and fired two shots at him. The intruder fled.

Paint rock, which it is believed can be used to advantage, has been found in quantity on the Palos Verdes ranch.

After a conference with his architects, and Manager Spratt of Hotel Kennebec, last night, Jotham Bixby decided that as soon as the summer season ends he will add a fourth story to the Bixby building, at the corner of Ocean and Pacific avenues. It will contain thirty-eight guest rooms, twenty-one baths, and will cost, including the furnishings, $35,000.

Passengers on the fishing launch Eagle today sighted the largest brown whale seen in months, five miles off Point Firmin.

DOG BITES BABY.

The 2-year-old baby of Mrs. E. G. Maher toddled across the lawn this morning to pat a neighbor's dog. The animal, thinking the child was after a bone it was gnawing, attacked the baby and bit it twice in the face. The wounds were cauterized and will not prove serious, says the physician.

Four of six poker players serving a sentence for gambling, went on a strike this morning when they looked out of the window and found that the municipal wood pile, which they had cleaned up the day before, had been replenished with big timbers from the damaged pier. However, when told that if they did not work there would be only one meal a day, the quartette capitulated.

One of the features of the entertainment provided for the Methodists who attend the annual picnic Friday, will be a vesper concert in the evening by the choir of the First M. E. Church, assisted by several soloists. A caterer has been engaged by the Chamber of Commerce to make 600 gallons of coffee for the visitors.

HIS INCOGNITO IS UNCOVERED.

SON OF SECRETARY OF STATE MASQUERADES AT AVALON.

Hugh Knox Registers as Frank Gish of Waterburk, Ct., But Meets Old Yale Classmate, Who Gives His Identity Away—Chicagoan Has Exciting Fight With Swordfish.

AVALON, July 12.—"The Masquerader" might have been the title of an amusing little drama enacted at the Metropole Hotel yesterday afternoon. Meeting an old classmate of Yale, '07, on the veranda, young Hugh Knox, son of Philander C. Knox, Secretary of State, who had just registered as Frank Gish of Waterbury, Ct., found his incognito speedily uncovered.

A notable son of old Eli, Walter L. Camp, football hero, and creator of much football literature, with Mrs. Camp, accompanied Mr. Knox to the island yesterday for a week's outing and fishing. Mr. Camp is secretary of the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce and has been entertaining Mr. Knox at Long Beach.

Young Knox has been in Phoenix, Ariz., for the past few months. Short of stature, he bears a striking resemblance to his distinguished father, with the same restless dark eyes and dark hair growing sparse on the forehead. Mr. Knox is a bachelor and has not had the romantic marital history of his two younger brothers.

TWO SWORDS.

The former president of the Light Tackle Club, A. J. Edd, of Chicago, had an exciting adventure with a huge swordfish this morning. After hooking the big fish two long runs were made and the swordfish finally made his escape. George Farnsworth, fishing near by, hooked the mate of the huge fish, with the same result.

Miss Georgia Davenport, sister of the cartoonist, Homer Davenport of New York, is spending a week at Avalon as the guest of Miss Clara Belle Foster.

Pomona Board of Trade Starts to Raise Last Sum Needed for Trolley Right of Way.

POMONA, July 12.—At the meeting of the Board of Trade last evening steps were taken to raise the last $5500 necessary to secure the private right of way on the Claremont-Pomona electric railway. This money is required to settle with Messrs. Olds, Schureman, Mercereau and others for property which will be encroached upon. Some of the people here have been reluctant to subscribe, believing that the road would be constructed anyway, because of the fact that bonds have been sold under the printed statement that the right of way from Claremont to North Pomona and Pomona has been secured. The public-spirited men of the Board of Trade, however, believe that the great benefit that will accrue to Pomona by the early completion of the electric road into this city will well repay the raising of the money now. Hence, at last night's meeting, the Committee on Transportation, composed of Messrs. Lobinger, Dole, Bichowsky and Travis, was instructed to concentrate its effort on securing the money before the 20th inst. If this is done the road will be built in here before the first of next year. This, W. G. Kerckhoff, who is completing the road from Upland to Claremont, has promised, if the free right of way is furnished. The Transportation Committee, assisted by several members of the board, has now started to canvass the community for subscriptions. It will first secure a 150 pledges of $25 each, then it is expected that the balance will be forthcoming in larger amounts.

The condition of the paving on Second street, from Garey avenue to Rebecca street, is causing much comment. In many places it is entirely worn away. The abutting property owners do not agree in repairing the street at their expense, believing that it should be done by the city. But the Treasurer has no funds available for the purpose of the improvement of pavements. A resolution passed by the Board of Trade will be presented to the Trustees, asking that body to provide in the forthcoming city tax apportionment for the setting apart of a small fraction to provide a fund for the repairing of the street, the main business thoroughfare. The Committee on Good Roads from the Board of Trade will present this matter to the Trustees.

Resolutions of respect to the memory of the lates Parke W. Kauffman, superintendent of Pomona schools, have been passed by the trustees of the Public Library, the Board of Education, the Teachers' Association and the Board of Trade.

ARE SEEKING COMMUNICATION.

Residents of Montevista and Sunland Want Trolley Connection With Glendale.

GLENDALE, July 12.—The residents of Montevista and Sunland are trying to form a combination with the citizens of Crescenta to raise a sufficient bonus to induce E. D. Goode of the Glendale and Eagle Rock Railway Company to extend that line to their respective towns. La Cañada citizens want the line extended east through their town to Pasadena, but the grades are so heavy the company is slow in making a proposition covering the three points. It has agreed to build from Verdugo Park to Crescenta, for a bonus of $15,000 per mile and a private right of way forty feet in width.

More than 1000 people visited Verdugo Park Sunday over the new line. Next Saturday and Sunday afternoon ball games will be played between the reorganized Glendale team and teams from Los Angeles. John A. Pirtle, principal owner of the Verdugo ranch, has donated fine ball grounds, and is erecting seats and a grand stand in the shade of the large sycamores, for which the cañon is famous.

Four new homes are being erected near the park, among them that of Mr. Pirtle, costing $7000.

DIVE FOR JEWELED PURSE.

Members of Smart Set Try to Recover Valuables Dropped in Sea at Santa Barbara.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SANTA BARBARA, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Members of the San Francisco smart set domiciled at the Potter have resolved themselves into submarine detectives, the object of their search being Mrs. C. O. G. Miller's gold purse which is bedecked with diamonds and contained several hundred dollars in gold. Mrs. Miller dropped it into the ocean while standing on the pier.

Those who have braved the bottom of the deep, crawling amongst stingarees, sharks and horrible submarines, are Jennie Crocker, Julia Langhorne, Helene Irwin, the Misses Newhall, William Mayo Newhall and Templeton Crocker. All efforts to locate the jeweled purse have been futile.

Former Vice-president Fairbanks, son and his wife, will arrive in Santa Barbara Wednesday for an extended visit. They have engaged quarters at the Miramer, where Theodore Roosevelt and bride are domiciled.

LONG FOUGHT CASE.

After having been three times to the supreme Court and with three of the principals now dead, the case of Elizalde versus Murphy et al, is on trial again in the Superior Court, being heard by Judge Robert M. Clarke of Ventura. The case covers eleven years of litigation and involves property, including the great Elizalde ranch near Guadalupe, valued at several hundred thousand dollars. Ernest Graves the first administrator, died and then his bondsmen were made defendants in a case brought to compel Graves to make an accounting for certain funds. Lately one of the chief bondsmen died. Mrs. Eliza P. Elizalde is the present administratrix. One of the issues involved in the settlement of the case was the right of Graves to accept a note for claims held by the estate, the note being made in his name instead of as administrator.

LITTLE WOMAN MAKES JOURNEY AND LOSES OUT.

Alleges Rancher Said He Would Marry Her and Lured Her from Arizona—Man in the Case Declares He Answered Advertisement for a Housekeeper and Fed Her.

SAN BERNARDINO, July 12.—Mrs. P. P. Nutting, a tired little woman from Missouri, with two small children, reached town last Friday from Los Angeles as the result of correspondence with M. E. Clark, a Santa Fé employé and rancher. Today she reported to the newspapers that Clark had lured her from Tempe, Arizona, under promise of marriage, and that when she got here, he refused to make good.

She declared that when Clark denied to her face he had promised marriage, she showed him several of his letters and he tore them into bits. Clark, on the other hand, denies her allegations. He says that he noticed her advertisement in a Los Angeles paper seeking a position as housekeeper, and he answered it. At that time, she was in Tempe. Weeks later he received a letter from her at Los Angeles, saying that she was on her way to this city. His home burned down just before she arrived, but he provided her with money to live at a lodging house and obtained meal tickets for herself and children. The juvenile court officials took the matter up this morning.

AN UNUSUAL FEAT.

The financial report of the city for the past fiscal year shows that more money was expended on streets improvements than was collected in taxes. This most unusual feat was possible because the citizens, on many of the streets improved, paid the assessments out of their own pockets, most of the street work having been done under private contract. The city collected for municipal purposes $43,000 and spent on street work, in round figures, $49,000.

The city's income in taxes for all purposes for the fiscal year ending June 30, was $104,077. It cost $95,695 to run the city, leaving a balance of almost $9000. Not in decades has the city come through the year with a surplus. In the past, it has invariably been that every account was overdrawn, and the officials were in a puzzle where money sufficient to tide over the stringency was coming from.

MANY ACRES BOUGHT.

Charles M. Bowles, of San Francisco has just added 800 acres of raw land to his holdings in the Rialto Irrigation District, between Rialto and Bloomington. The acreage, with water rights, was bought for $32,000. He owns 600 acres adjoining the tract, which was bought a year ago of Henry C. Dent. The sellers of the 800 acres were Francis Cuttle, Archibald Sharpe, J. N. Hagins, C. C. Bond, J. B. Neel.

RESIDENCE DESTROYED.

The residence of M. J. Livingston in Bridge street was completely destroyed by fire at 1:40 o'clock this morning. The origin of the fire is unknown. The occupants were asleep when the fire broke out, and they only had time to grab a few necessary garments and escape. All other effects were destroyed. The loss is estimated at $1600.

CITY'S NEW WELL.

The city's new well in Lytle Creek is now throwing 112 inches of water, constant flow, into the reservoir. The well will be placed on the sand pump and the pit lowered four feet. It is expected then that the flow will be increased to 150 or 200 inches.

BAD CHECK AT ANAHEIM.

ANAHEIM, July 12.—The bad check man visited this city last evening and disposed of about $90 of worthless paper to six local business houses. A slim man of medium height, about 145 pounds in weight, 45 years of age, with blue eyes and light complexion, who represented himself to be J. R. Porter, succeeded in inducing six different persons to cash checks for him. In each case the check was $15, and drawn on the First National Bank. When the checks were presented today they were pronounced worthless, as no such party was known at the bank. A warrant has been issued.

COURT ADMITS FIRE LETTERS.

EVIDENCE OF LOS ANGELES EXPERT IS TAKEN.

Letter Says Communications to Police Giving Warning of Blazes to Come Are in Same Handwriting as That of Man on Trial on Charge of Arson.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN DIEGO, July 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] During the trial today of Adolph Schonek on a charge of arson, Judge Guy of the Superior Court admitted as evidence all letters purporting to have been written by the defendant to local papers and to the police department, giving warning of probable fires. This decision was reached following the testimony of E. K. Isaacs, the Los Angeles handwriting expert. He testified that the writing on the notes is identical with that of the defendant.

George Dickson Richards and Edward B. Hall of San Diego were ushers tonight at the wedding in Chicago of Truman Henry Miner and Miss Rowena Gilbert, one of the most important society events of the season there.

THE FIRST TRAIN.

The first train over the San Diego and Arizona Railroad will be run under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce, August 29. Business in mercantile lines will be suspended on that day. The train will run to the end of the constructed portion of the road, three miles below Tia Juana. A big barbecue will be served. Equipment to haul the excursionists will be loaned the new road by the Santa Fé.

SAN DIEGO NOTES.

An increase of 300 per cent. is shown in bank deposits within the last year.

The City Council has begun preliminary arrangements to entertain the California branch of the American League of Municipalities, to meet here next November.

A. G. Spalding and E. W. Scripps, who became antagonistic through a difference in politics, may become reconciled. Scripps, in a communication in his own paper, suggests this. Spalding, however, maintains that Scripps, in his publicity of their relations, has been impertinent.

The City Council, upon hearing petitions of churches in protest against exhibitions of the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures, decided to postpone action in order to await a report from the National Board of Censorship.

Charles Steffgen, son of a contractor, who last week married Hazel Ruark, a young nurse girl, was arrested on a charge of desertion. The young wife declares that shortly after her marriage Steffgen told her she could draw $6 a week from a local bank, and then left her.

INQUIRY INTO OLD CASE.

Celebrated Murder in Ventura County Recalled by Digging Up of Old Papers.

VENTURA, July 12.—The celebrated T. Wallace More murder case was revived in this section in the minds of old-timers, when investigation of the old papers in the case was made this week at the solicitation of Capt. Thomas Duke of the San Francisco detective force. More was murdered by squatters on the Sespe ranch, which he owned at the time, in 1878. The inquiry resulted in the arrest of seven men, the turning of State's evidence by one, the sentence of F. A. Sprague, the ringleader, to be hanged, commutation to the penitentiary for life, and later his pardon. He went to the Yaqui country of Mexico, where he has resided for seventeen years. He visited a relative here last year. The letter of Capt. Duke to Sheriff McMartin here asked for record information of the case.

Samuel Cile was last night named as a City Trustee to supply the place on the board made vacant by the death of the late Leachman Lewis.

To date 3000 voters have registered for the August primaries in this county. The registration for the last general election amounted to 4020. Registrations are coming in rapidly just now, and it is thought that by the close, on the 26th inst., there will be several hundred more.

F. F. Canham, who has been in charge of manual training at the local High School, will go to the Eureka High next season.

A marriage license has been issued for Ludwig Carl Ditman, aged 32, and Frederika Elizabeth Helen Fisher, aged 27, both of Oxnard.

DISCUSSES COLLEGE SITE.

Corona Board of Trade Considers Request for Location for Proposed Scientific Institute.

CORONA, July 12.—The Board of Trade held a special session this evening to consider the matter of a suitable location for a college site. Secretary Garvey is in receipt of a letter from Los Angeles stating a scientific and literary college was to be opened by a Los Angeles corporation, and inquiry was made as to what could be furnished in the way of a site. Particulars in the matter are meager, but it is said several buildings would be erected. The institution would have an attendance of from 500 to 1000 pupils.

About ninety members of Riverside Lodge No. 643, B.P.O.E., including local members, attended a banquet last evening at Hotel Del Rey. H. K. Stahl of Corona was toastmaster. Among those who responded were F. H. Speich and Mr. Hancock of Riverside, Supervisor J. T. Hamner and G. R. Freeman of Corona.

Fifty Riverside people, comprising members and a drill team from the Fraternal Brotherhood, visited the local lodge last evening, and with Miss Bernard of Ontario as district organizer, installed these local officers: H. E. Roberts, president; Kate McDaniel, vice-president; Mrs. Charles Wrestler, chaplain; Roy Crane, master-at-arms; Mrs. Roy Crane, mistress-at-arms; Mrs. L. Gones, I.K.; Allen Tucker, O.K. Dancing and a supper followed the installation.

Pedro Musquero was fined $20 for cruelty to his horses.

J. F. Copenhaver has been awarded the contract to carry mail on the Star route between Corona and Elsinore. He also operates the stage over the same route.

George W. Palmer of Los Angeles has sold a ten-acre orange and lemon grove at Olive and Lincoln streets to R. A. Blackburn of Glendale. The deal was made by S. E. French.

Clorenda, the 8-months'-old daughter of Ralph Boorquiz, died last evening.

A team owned by the Corona Lumber Company ran away yesterday and one of the horses was so badly injured it had to be killed.

Miss Isabelle Bertha Boob, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Boob, was married to Thomas Miller of Glendora Sunday, at the ranch home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will reside in Glendora.

Mrs. O. P. Hull arrived yesterday from Alden, Minn., where she visited for several weeks.

HEADWAY.

DENTISTS TO OBTAIN PAPERS.

WILL MAKE FORMAL DEMAND ON SECRETARY.

If State Board Refuses the Application for Certified Copies, Mandamus Proceedings Will Be Started and Documents Brought Into Court. Hope of Compromise Is Given Up.

On behalf of the applicants for licenses to practice dentistry who failed to get by the State Dental Board at the recent examination held here, Attorney Wideman will today make formal demand upon Dr. C. A. Herrick, secretary of the board, for the examination papers of the unsuccessful applicants, together with the markings accorded each by the examiner. In addition, the examination papers of a number of those who passed will be demanded that they may be compared with the others.

The attorney for the Justics Association of Doctors of Dental Surgery claims that he has many decisions showing that his interpretation of the law is correct, and that the secretary of the State Board of Dental Examiners must furnish him with certified copies of any official documents of the board which he may demand. Should the secretary refuse to do so, mandamus proceedings will be brought and the books and papers summoned into court.

The dissatisfied ones who were turned down by the board have now given up all hope of compromise, and they will carry on the fight to the bitter end. They have already made considerable headway in raising funds for their battle, and they say that they have received assurance that there will be ample backing when the time comes.

When the copies of the examination papers are obtained, they will be submitted to a competent committee of licensed practitioners. In case the committee shall declare that they should have been passed, they will bring action to secure their licenses; should it be decided that they have not passed, but that the questions asked were not fair, they will demand a new examination.

State Senator Hurd was present at last night's meeting of the Justice Association. Though he is taking no part in the present fight, he is lending his support to the efforts of the discontented ones to obtain what they consider fair treatment.

"Dentists from other States seeking licenses to practice in California are not securing fair play," he said. "I am the last man who would willingly see the bars let down and the standard lowered, but I do demand common justice. I favor a reciprocity law of the right sort, and I shall continue to work for one. I will not consent to any legislation which will lower the standard of the dental profession in this State, but, on the other hand, I object to a law which gives a board of examiners arbitrary powers to keep any man from practicing here, simply because he is persona non grata to the board or is likely to prove a formidable competitor."

AN INVITATION TO WOMEN

The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., cordially invite any woman interested to call at their laboratory at Lynn, Mass., and see for herself the care that is taken with the vast correspondence received from the women of this country. No letter or testimonial has ever been made public without the written wish or consent of the writer. No confidence has ever been violated, and never in their history have they sold or disposed of any of their letters from women. It is for these reasons that thousands of suffering American women every year feel free to write Mrs. Pinkham for her valuable advice, which is always given free of charge.

THE MARKETS.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

There is a good demand in all lines of produce and prices were not very apparent yesterday morning. Among the receipts of the day were pineapples from San Francisco, first shipments of the season have just arrived in the northern market, and are being distributed as rapidly as possible. The dealers have received in the past three or four days about 100 boxes and the demand for fruit has been good at prices ranging from 5 to 7 cents a pound. Mangoes are one of the tropical fruits which are in season. They are shipped in from Mexico and are sold here for 15 cents a pound. Owing to the fact that they are a very little used fruit, the demand for them is light; there were very few with the receipts yesterday. Receipts of the morning were 1200 dozen. A few coast eggs were reported in town and sold a cent lower than local stock. The price on coast eggs remains the same as prices, as high as 22 cents being declared for it. The Chicago butter price is 29 cents, while in New York dealers are asking 30 cents a pound for the best grade of the market throughout the entire United States. Ladie butter sold well at 27 cents a pound. Receipts totaled 32,600 pounds.

Receipts today, eastern twins and northern cheese were the three varieties in demand. They were all sold at prevailing quotations. Receipts of cheese were 30 pounds.

The 183 sacks of potatoes arrived from the north. The price on potatoes of local fields is going up fast, owing to the fact that the crop is about cleaned up and northern potatoes are not due for two or three weeks yet.

Local receipts continue very light from local fields and it is far from possible for local dealers to fill all the orders for local stock that are coming in.

Egg receipts are daily increasing. More than 3000 cases of the fruit were received this morning. They were of the red belle and the white Astrakan variety. Other fruit receipts were heavy, peaches and melons being the largest arrivals of the day. Melons from Oregon were among the arrivals of the day. They were held at $1 per crate.

Cherries and logans were more than plentiful and prices on them declined to 4 cents on very fine stock. Strawberries on the other hand went as high as 4 cents on account of the light receipts.

There were just enough fish to supply the demand. Halibut and barracuda were sold fairly. Mackerel and Bonita were well sold. Kingfish and smelt were the small receipts received. Shad and carp were the only arrivals from the North.

LOCAL STOCK EXCHANGE.

Aside from Associated, Midway and Palmer Oil, the Trading Was Listless.

Prices were firm and steady, but there was no activity to the market, on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday. The bond list remains unchanged, as well as bank stocks. Public utilities were listless, and of no interest. Of the oil stocks, the only traders were in Associated, Midway and Palmer Oil; the balance of the list was exceedingly quiet. It was a dull, unsatisfactory day on the exchange, owing to a dearth of orders.

SAN FRANCISCO LIST.

Falling Market, But Losses Not Serious—Consolidated Dropped Five Points.

[Special Service to The Times by B. F. Taylor, 112 West Third street.]

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—The tendency of the whole market today was slightly reactionary, although no serious losses were recorded. Consolidated was off 5 points, Florence, 2½; Nevada Hills, 5; Belmont, 12½; MacNamara, 1; Consolidated Virginia, 2. These were the only important in all the Nevada stocks; trading was light. The market has a mid-summer holiday appearance.

Weather Conditions.—A moderate disturbance central Monday morning in the western lake region has developed into a well-defined storm over Lake Superior and adjacent territory, with a southerly extension in the Mississippi Valley. Rain has fallen from Oklahoma to the lake region and also in the Lower Ohio Valley. The largest amount reported fell at Dodge City, Kan., 1.96 inches, during the last twenty-four hours. The weather along the Atlantic coast was generally clear this morning, without marked temperature changes, and, as a rule, temperature changes east of the Rocky Mountains have been slight. A trough of pressure lies along the western slope of the Rocky Mountains, and although the weather is generally clear at interior points, the usual morning cloudiness prevails at most coast points. Temperatures are slightly lower on the North Pacific Coast, and stationary in the South. The present conditions are likely to continue for the next thirty-six hours, giving generally fair weather, with clouds tonight and Wednesday morning in Los Angeles and vicinity.

Forecasts.—Local forecast for Los Angeles and vicinity: Fair tonight and Wednesday, with clouds (high fog) in the morning; light easterly winds, changing to westerly.

Pasadena, Redlands, Riverside, San Bernardino and vicinity: Fair tonight and Wednesday, probably with clouds Wednesday morning.

California south of the Tehachepi: Cloudy tonight; Wednesday, fair.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—Forecast: San Francisco and vicinity: Foggy Wednesday; brisk southwest winds.

Santa Clara Valleys: Cloudy Wednesday; light south winds; moderate temperature.

Sacramento Valley: Cloudy, cooler, Wednesday; light south winds.

San Joaquin Valley: Fair Wednesday; continued warm; light west winds.

California south of the Tehachepi: Fair Wednesday; overcast in the morning; light south winds.

Arizona: Generally fair Wednesday and Thursday.

COPPER DROPS TO NEW LEVEL.

STOCK MARKET SUFFERS A REACTION.

Weakness of Amalgamated Has Sympathetic Effect on the General List—Tendency in Price Movement Revives Disquiet Over General Business Situation.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

NEW YORK, July 12.—Stocks suffered reaction in today's market after rising in the early dealings to about the high level rebound which had been in progress for several days. The movement was not accompanied by any noticeable change in the news of conditions, but there was a distinct decrease in demand at the higher levels incident to the reduction of the short interest and the disinclination of buyers of a more substantial kind to follow the rise in prices in face of the uncertain views of the conditions indicated by the six months of falling prices of stocks. The copper stocks were the vulnerable spots in the list. Amalgamated Copper falling to a new level for the year in consonance with a further decline of the price of copper in London. This special weakness had sympathetic effect on the general list, but the establishment of a downward tendency in the price movement, had the effect of reviving some feeling of disquiet over the general business situation. One tone of a statement said to have been issued on behalf of the German foreign office regarding diplomatic relations in Central and South America, was the decisive influence in shaping the later movement of stock prices. The fall in prices of copper metal to new low levels in London, and reports of price concessions also in the New York copper market put a bad face on the situation in that industry, and on the earning prospects of companies concerned in the mining and sale of the metal. The weakening effect of the liquidation in the coppers and the hesitation of buying on account of the extent of the rebound made the market sensitive to the reported utterance of the German foreign office. The report was so circumstantial in giving official sanction to the statement and the statement itself was at the same time so provocative in tone as to throw some feeling of consternation into the market, and there was some hasty throwing over of stocks. The direct contradiction in the tone of the utterance to the conciliatory statement on the subject from the same source earlier in the day served to throw suspicion on it and the lack of reliable confirmation left the report discredited and induced the shorts to cover and rally the market. The earlier declines were only partly recovered, leaving last prices below last night but with the tone quite steady. Crop news, money market conditions, the gold import prospects and other factors which have figured in the late market, were supplanted by the technical position and the German sensation. Bonds wer irregular. Total sales, par value, $1,413,000. U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

Having sold over $5,000,000 of the following described bonds, we offer the unsold portion, subject to sale and advance in price, at 93½ and accrued interest:

Sierra & San Francisco Power Company

First Mortgage Five Per Cent Gold Bonds

Dated August 1, 1909. Due August 1, 1949. Optional on any interest payment date at 110 and interest. Interest payable February 1 and August 1 in New York. Denomination $1,000. Coupon bonds with privilege of registration of principal or fully registered bonds, interchangeable. Pending the issuance of permanent bonds, temporary certificates will be delivered. United States Mortgage and Trust Company, Trustee.

Application Will Be Made to List These Bonds on the New York Stock Exchange.

For complete information regarding these bonds attention is called to the letter of Mr. George W. Bacon, President of the Company, copies of which will be furnished on request, and from which we summarize as follows:

The Sierra & San Francisco Power Company owns and operates important electric water power properties near San Francisco, and a supplementary steam station in that city, which will have a combined capacity, as completed during the present year, of 68,500 horse power. This, with a small amount of power leased and additional steam equipment to be installed next year, will bring the total capacity up to 78,000 horse power.

The above bonds are secured by a first mortgage lien on the entire property of the Company, which represents a cash investment of more than $10,000,000, increased by $1,000,000, which will be expended toward additional distributing and generating facilities. Against this total cost of over $11,000,000 only $6,500,000 First Mortgage Bonds can be issued, and the conservative provisions of the Trust Deed insure the preservation of this equity.

The Company has made a contract extending until 1953 with the United Railroads, which does over 90 per cent. of the entire street railway business of San Francisco, to supply the latter with all the power necessary for the operation of its system

nual Message Deals Bluntly With Secrets.

shburn Says Action Hampers Committee's Work.

ubt Wisdom Making Public Syndicate's Proposals.

s annual message of the Mayor the unexpected cause of some exment in the Council yesterday be- e of its exposition of the long- ined secrets of the aqueduct finan- situation. For over two months inability of the city to maintain great income necessary to com- the water project by the spring 1912 has been known in official es, but the Mayor is the first to k the self-imposed silence of of- dom.

e action of the Mayor was openly ised on the floor of the Council Chairman Washburn of the nce Committee. When the long ment had been read through he the proposals alluded to by the or were two months old and had rejected as soon as received by e who were in New York negotiat- with the syndicate and had not considered since. He continued: his Council has appointed an ad- y committee in order to provide the aqueduct and we are just able to say that that provision bout complete. I don't think the or should hamper the work of committee by such an announce- t. It is a delicate matter and ot be settled by newspaper con- ersy or by clamor. I most seri- y object to the Mayor treating subject, with which he has had ing to do, in this way."

is speech startled the whole City because it indicated a difference een the Mayor and the Chairman he Finance Committee on the od of relief for the great project. regarded as the contest of con- atism and radicalism. That dif- nce is said to relate to the quantity elief, the Mayor wanting the work tained on the eccelerated schedule, e Washburn wants to provide for medium scale surely and then as t an increase as possible without mplete break with the syndicate. February 3 option is important he city for the premium increases ne-half of 1 per cent. while in 1912 ill be 1 per cent. providing the icate exercises its option each . The Mayor favors breaking the syndicate and putting the s in the open market, confident they will be subscribed immedi- y. He says he has already re- ed assurances of this.

barrassing silence followed shburn's speech, which was relieved n Bethmann moved the reference he different parts of this message roper committees.

THE BOND SITUATION.

portion of the message relating he bond situation follows:

e are facing a crisis in the aque- enterprise. A bond syndicate has ption on the aqueduct bonds, by terms of which the City has ed to sell to it the aqueduct e in annual options of $4,896,000, erable in installments of $816,000 tantially every 60 days until the ining bonds are sold, the bonds e taken at par, accrued interest a premium of one-half of one per until February 1, 1912, and there- at par, accrued interest and one cent. premium. This is a mere n and does not compel them to The work progressing more dily than estimated, the syndicate ited bonds faster than required the schedule. The contract does contemplate such advance de- ries, and the action of the syndi- in taking them ahead of the dule was purely voluntary on its and without prejudice to the right the city to require the syndicate to conform to the scheme of bi- nthly deliveries specified in the con- ct; but the syndicate claims that it not be compelled to take any more ds before December 1st, next. The has given notice to the syndicate make the payment scheduled for ruary 1st, and in the meantime the k on the aqueduct has, of neces- been retarded.

We have recently voted $3,500,000 the establishment of the aqueduct er system. $2,200,000 will build one of this system, with a transmis- line to the city capable of carry- nearly all the power that can be eloped along the aqueduct, which conservatively estimated to be 120,- horse-power. This unit will de- p a peak load of 30,000 horse-power an average load of 16,000 horse er, which is 50 per cent. more than the electricity used in the city at present time, other than that used the railways. If we develop but unit at this time, we will have 0,000 to be applied toward a dis- uting plant in the city.

We have also voted $3,000,000 of is for harbor development. Sev- members of the bond syndicate a large interest in the stocks, bonds of the local light and power panies. It is safe to assume that old fight of the Southern Pacific inst the free harbor at San Pedro extend to the sale of the harbor ds, and that the influence of that oration in financial circles will be against the sale of those bonds.

SYNDICATE'S PROPOSALS.

The above facts should be borne mind in considering the following osals which have been made by bond syndicate in response to the s request for more funds at once:

1. We (Bond Syndicate) take at one million five hundred and y thousand dollars, from which city is to purchase nine hundred sand dollars, for to thirty-six bonds at cost, and agree to cut n the work to two hundred and thousand dollars or three hundred sand dollars per month. In consid- ion of our taking bonds at this in advance of agreement under contract, our taking the bonds is to be considered as exercising option on any additional bonds, to give us the right to take additional bonds at any time when and as may desire earlier than the month- later specified in our contract, at and interest; and, as a further ideration, we are to have the right three years to take any or all of power and harbor improvement ds at four and a half, at one hun- and interest, in such amounts at such times as we may desire.

2. We take at once two million forty thousand dollars from which city is to purchase nine hundred sand now at 102½, and interest, if we desire, four hundred thous- additional in November, the city slow down the work as much as ible until market will permit our keting bonds in large amounts. consideration of our taking bonds is time in advance of agreement the contract, our taking the bonds is not to be considered as exercising our option on any additional bonds, but to give us the right to take additional bonds at any time when and as we may desire earlier than the monthly dates specified in the contract, at par and interest; and as a further consideration, we are to have the right for three years to take any and all of the power and harbor improvement bonds as four and one-halfs, at par and interest, in such amounts and at such times as we may desire.

"3. We to have option on power and harbor bonds for three years at par. We agree to sell sinking fund nine hundred thousand dollar bonds at our asking price; proceeds to be used immediately, thus giving sinking fund an opportunity to earn interest at once. We to buy five hundred and ten thousand dollars firm and to accept delivery of same as fast as sold by us, but not later than the date on which city will need the money after expending the nine hundred thousand dollars proceeds from sale to the sinking fund. Contract to be modified so that future deliveries shall be made at our option, on or before dates mentioned in our present contract; we to use our best endeavors to keep the city supplied with funds. Contract to be modified so that all deliveries be made at par and interest.

"4. All future aqueduct bonds at par. City invests all sinking fund, including fall collections, at one hundred and three. Syndicate purchase one million three hundred and fifty thousand, including their December payment, in monthly installments between now and February, without obligation for further purchases. City not to offer any power or harbor bonds for one year."

"Propositions 1, 2 and 3 enable the bond syndicate to prevent the sale of the power and harbor bonds for three years, and at the end of that time it could refuse to take any bonds; and also enables it to tie up the city's sinking fund, so that it cannot be used for the purchase of power or harbor bonds. These propositions also provide for a reduction in the purchase price to par and interest accrued, which would mean a loss to the city of about $160,000. The fact that the syndicate asks the city to purchase at 2¼ or 3 per cent. premium indicates that they believe the bonds to be worth that amount on the market.

NIGGER IN WOODPILE.

"Proposition 4 is similar to the others, except that the city would be compelled to withhold its harbor and power bonds for only one year.

"The foregoing will give your honorable body some idea of the seriousness of the situation. Our fight for a free harbor has only begun, and in addition to it we have on our hands a fight against the power trust of the United States, for we must not forget what it means to have a city of the size and standing of Los Angeles point the way to municipal ownership of power and lighting systems.

"If we stand firm and show the bond syndicate that, if necessary, we can finance these enterprises without its help, there is still a slight hope that it may be induced to comply with its option and provide the funds so much needed at this time.

"The attitude of the syndicate and their evident purpose to coerce the city are made more clear by the fact that, while the syndicate, under the pretense that the bond market does not justify it, refuses to take any more bonds at present, other financial institutions are eager to purchase outright a million or more bonds immediately; but the syndicate so far has refused to release that amount from its option.

PREPARE FOR EMERGENCY.

"Under the circumstances, it behooves us to consider what steps we may take in the probable event of the bond syndicate refusing to take more of the bonds.

"To continue the building of the aqueduct at the rate at which it should be built, we must raise, in addition to our sinking fund and the funds in sight, at least $2,000,000 to be used between now and the first of next February; and we should secure subscriptions for at least another two millions, payable February 1, 1911, to tide us over in the event that the syndicate then abandons its option.

"I understand that two insurance companies have offered to buy a half a million dollars of the bonds each. Your Finance Committee should, and probably already have, taken up the matter with those companies to see whether or not they can be induced to buy the bonds subject to the option of the bond syndicate.

"Los Angeles by her wonderful growth and prosperity has made her banks wealthy. These institutions undoubtedly would gladly come forward in this, the city's time of need, with subscriptions amounting to at least two million dollars. I understand your Finance Committee is now working on this proposition, and also is giving attention to the offers of other big institutions and of our citizens."

The message complimented the men who are serving gratuitously on commissions and took credit for dismissing twelve useless city employés. Also it related that the "bad" element was being weeded out of the police force, and that the Board of Public Utilities had reduced light rates. The Mayor urged the regulation of social hygiene, the establishment of a city garage and repair shop, and the purchase of portable voting booths to be used in the streets at permanent sites in each precinct.

The historic Black Horse Tavern, which has stood on the old Washington pike at Canonsburg, Pa., for 136 years, attached with the memories of George Washington and Col. Braddock, and once the rendezvous of mail robbers and insurrectionists during the whisky rebellion in 1794 and 1795, is doomed to pass away, unless a historical society intervenes. The old hostelry and the land surrounding has been sold for $3245 to the Canonsburg school board, which proposes to erect a modern High School building.
